

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Miss DeForest has had years of experience as a teacher of elocution and on the stage. An interesting program interspersed with music will be rendered. Such an opportunity to hear the best talent is seldom offered the people of Heppner.

The secret of a speedy cure in sickness lies in selecting the proper remedy and this is difficult to do unless one is sure what the ailment is. But one thing is sure, had the liver been actively at work sickness could not have come. It is then always safe to take Simmons' Liver Regulator which keeps the liver well regulated and all poison expelled from the system.

Mrs. B. F. Vaughn has accepted the agency of The Pacific Corset Factory, and those ladies who desire anything in this line will please call on Mrs. Vaughn. It is well known that this firm makes corsets to order and those who want comfort and exact fits should see Mrs. Vaughn before ordering. 97f.

To the aged, with their poor appetite, feeble circulation, and impoverished blood, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a boon beyond price. Its effect is to check the ravages of time, by invigorating every organ, nerve, and tissue of the body. See Ayer's Almanac for the new year.

A grand ball will be given at the opera house Wednesday, New Year's night, Jan. 1, 1895. Excellent music for the occasion will be furnished by Messrs. Hale and Wattenburger. Price of admission, $1.00. A grand time is assured.

CHRISTMAS MATTERS.—The Christmas exercises at the M. E. church, South, on the evening of the 25th, were well attended, the house being filled to its utmost capacity. The program was commenced with singing by the choir, followed by Wm. Walbridge with the devotional exercises. Spert. H. T. Bagley made the opening remarks, followed by the S. S., with a well prepared program. The essay of J. W. Hornor on the "Work and Object" of the S. S. showed careful preparation and was instructive. Special music was rendered by the choir and the solo by Miss Florence Crittenden and duet by Mrs. A. Minor and Miss Maggie Adkins are deserving of special mention. The children rendered their respective parts in a way which proved they had received careful training. The meeting was a grand success considering the time consumed in preparation and the committee in charge are to be congratulated.

A Baby's Life Saved. "My baby had croup and was saved by Shiloh's Cure," writes Mrs. J. B. Martin, of Huntsville, Ala. For sale by Wells & Warren.

THE MASQUERADE.—Heppner people usually attempt to enjoy themselves on Christmas, and Dec. 25, 1895, was no exception to the rule. The masquerade at the opera house was well attended on this occasion, and the whole festivities a grand success. The number of maskers were unusually large. The prizes were awarded as follows: Ladies, the best dressed character, Miss Iva Swaggart, "Queen of Diamonds," set of silver knives and forks; best sustained characters, Messdames A. A. Roberts and Otis Patterson, "Boothills," ladies' gold watch. Gents, the best dressed character, Floyd Thomas, "English Dude," album; most comical character, Chas. Sargent, "Paddy from Cork," album; best sustained character, Art Minor, "Shepherd," gents' gold watch. Dancing was indulged in till a late hour.

Pills do Not Cure. Pills do not cure constipation. They only aggravate. Karl's Clover Root gives perfect regularity of the bowels. For sale by Wells & Warren.

After Dec. 1, 1895, the Gazette will make a discount of 10 per cent. from list on all staple job work. This reduction is made on the supposition that cash will be paid for all work as soon as completed.
