Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HIXSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

Princeton Review: The maddest woman in town is a married lady, who on a recent night sat up until one o'clock waiting for her husband to come home from lodge, oh, no, she wasn't going to say a thing to him. Finally, utterly worn out by long and fruitless vigil, she went in her room to turn in and found the missing husband in bed, fast asleep, where he had gone immediately after supper instead of going to lodge. And all that woman is mad about now is that she can't get into the right position to kick herself.

CONTENT.
To-night, thank God! I am content,
No matter when the call is sent,
No matter when my soul is blest
With other souls above.
Contented here and perfect there:
Never was promise half so fair
As that which tells us "God does care;
His words are words of love."
So, though the day may still seem long,
And though your life seems full of wrong,
Through evil and through good be strong,
Be patient, and be brave.
God's messengers may be named "Pain,"
"Sorrow," "Affliction," yet not in vain
These messengers all sting one strain:
"Remember, He will save."

Makes the Blood Pure
This is the secret of the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this:
"I am glad to write that I am now in perfect health and it is all because Hood's Sarsaparilla made my blood pure. My health broke down with troubles peculiar to women, my nervous system was shattered and I had to take my bed. The physician said there was little hope for me. A neighbor told of wonderful cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla and I decided to try it. When I had taken 3 bottles, I could sit up and now I am perfectly well and strong."

has done all this for me." Mrs. C. F. PADDEER, La Platte City, Colorado.
