Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

Will people never learn that a "cold" is an accident to be dreaded, and that when it occurs treatment should be promptly applied? There is no knowing where the trouble will end; and while complete recovery is the rule, the exception are terribly frequent, and thousands upon thousands of fatal illnesses occur every year ascribed to a little injudicious exposure and seemingly trifling symptoms. Beyond this, there are today countless invalids who can trace their complaints to "colds," which at the time of occurrence gave no concern, and were neglected.—When troubled with a cold use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is prompt and effectual. 50 cent bottles for sale by Conner & Brock.

For $22.50 I will sell a first class, high grade, high arm sewing machine guaranteed for 10 years. For further particulars call on or address, N. A. Leach, Lexington, Oregon.

S. D. Dennis, an erstwhile printer and newspaper publisher but now a prosperous attorney of Portland, was in Heppner over Saturday, and may do some trace their complaints to "colds," which at the time of occurrence gave no concern, and were neglected.—When troubled with a cold use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is prompt and effectual. 50 cent bottles for sale by Conner & Brock.

A. E. Powell, brother of Mill Powell, of Sand Hollow, arrived Saturday from Montana where he has been living for about five years. Mr. Powell formerly lived in Morrow and his many friends are glad to hear that he is in the land of the living. It is hoped that he will be able to remain permanently.

"NEVER TOO LATE, ETC."—Last Saturday Ed. Reed arrived from the east, accompanied by a bride. Now Ed. was supposed to be a bachelor beyond redemption, but all this time he has been fooling us, but his friends grant full pardon. The wedding occurred on Feb. 26th, at Blue Springs, Mo., and the lucky lady was Miss Leticia Johnson, a sister of Mrs. Utterback, who, with her husband, formerly resided here. The Gazette extends its well-wishes in behalf of the numerous friends in Oregon, as well as on its own account.

ANNUAL SCHOOL ELECTION.—Pursuant to call a number of the citizens of the Heppner school district met at Matlock's ball yesterday at 1 o'clock, and in the absence of Chairman Morrow the meeting was called to order by W. A. Kirk, a member of the board. The annual report of Clerk Roberts was read and accepted. The election of director resulted in favor of J. J. Adkins, and as there was no opposition to J. J. Roberts for clerk, he was unanimously elected by acclamation. An expression of those present as to the length of the next school term was called for when a number responded. The attendance was not as large as it should have been, only 27 being present.
OF INTEREST.—McClure's Magazine for March will contain interesting passages from a speech made by Abraham Lincoln, in the Illinois legislature in January, 1857—undoubtedly the earliest speech of Lincoln of which any record remains, and one hitherto unnoticed by any of his biographers. It is in his most attractive vein—that mingling of genial candor with perfectly clinching argument for which he afterwards became so noted. Along with these passages will be presented some entirely new anecdotes and reminiscences of Lincoln's service in the legislature and of his humble beginning as a lawyer at Springfield. And there will be a full quote of Lincoln pictures: among them four portraits of Lincoln, two of which have never before been published, and a view of his first law office.

CLUB RE-ORGANIZED.—Last Saturday afternoon a bus load of republicans from this city were driven to Ione by "Fole" Thompson where a number of good republicans gathered at the school house at 7 o'clock for the purpose of re-organizing the Ione club. Appropriate remarks were heard from E. A. Brundage, T. R. Lyons, A. W. Patterson, C. M. Peck, John Hornor, Ben Case and a number of others. Following this A. C. Petty and A. W. Patterson, who had acted respectively as chairman and secretary of the meeting, gave way to the permanent officers who were selected as follows: E. T. Perkins, pres.; Ben Case, vice pres.; Edward Keller, secy. The club starts off with a good membership and an abundance of the right kind of enthusiasm. All speak highly of the meeting and treatment received at Ione, and it is safe to say that it would not be difficult to get another crowd to go down from here especially if our former driver could be assured that winter was over. The club meets next Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Williams school house, and the following Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at Ione.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Councilmen were all present at a regular meeting last night, Mayor Morgan presiding. Minutes of last regular meeting and subsequent special meeting read and approved. Quarterly report of the recorder and treasurer read and referred to the new finance committee. Messrs. Gilliam and Minor, new councilmen, were inducted into office, and Patterson, Liehtenthal and Farnsworth retired.

Mr. Geo. Conner was not present owing to illness. Mayor Morgan then announced his appointments in the matter of committees: Health and police, Geo. Conner, Frank Rogers and Frank Gilliam; streets and public property, Geo. Conner, Frank Rogers and Frank Gilliam; fire and water, Geo. Conner, E. J. Slocum and C. A. Minor; finance, E. J. Slocum, C. A. Minor and S. B. Horner; elections, S. B. Horner, C. A. Minor and Frank Rogers; ordnance, Frank Rogers, C. A. Minor and Geo. Conner; ways and means, Geo. Conner, E. J. Slocum and Frank Gilliam. Mayor Morgan then delivered his annual and inaugural address which was full of good advice. Bills allowed: election board, $15; F. J. Bailcock, $16.66; A. A. Roberts, $50; H. L. & W. Co., $70; Conner & Brock, $1.25; Wells & Warren, $5.00. Morrow Co. L. & T. Co. again petition the town to abandon streets down in their addition, and said petition was referred to the committee on streets and public property. Marshal reports 124,000 gallons in the reservoir. Adjourned.

Do Not Do This.
Do not be induced to buy any other if you have made up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all others fail. Do not give up in despair because other medicine has failed to help you. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and you may reasonably expect to be cured.
Hood's Pills are pure vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25c.

Rider Jenkins visited our neighboring city, Lexington, on last Saturday and completed the organization of a Christian church at that place.
The following are the grand jurors: G. M. Akers, foreman; H. C. Gay, Newt Jones, Green Matthews, J. B. Allen, Thos. P. Graham and S. W. Adams.
The meetings at the opera house continue with increasing interest. Large and attentive audiences greet the speaker at every service and cover away without something to think about.
The blue-bird is hailed as a harbinger of spring. It is also a reminder that a bird's nest is needed to prepare the system for the debilitating winter to come. Listen and you will hear the birds sing: "Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla in March, April, May."

BLEW UP.—Those who happened to be down town early yesterday morning and in the neighborhood of Charley Jones' barber shop were surprised to hear a cannon-like report, and to see the front of the shop precipitated onto the sidewalk and into the street. These demonstrations were followed by the sudden appearance of three grim, un-covered individuals, one limping, who were at first mistaken for chimney sweeps, but who proved to be Geo. Conner and Ed. R. Bishop, two well known bank cashiers, and the veteran redoubtable Chas. Jones, the barber of Heppner hills. Investigation proved that there had been an explosion and a pretty bad one. The whole front of the shop was out, the mirrors were demolished, the stove was distributed around in endless quantities and parts of bursted and mutilated gas pipe lay around. One large pipe had penetrated the ceiling, making a terrible hole. The shop was indeed a complete wreck. The stove had been serving as water heater, as well as a generator of heat, and the pipes having been frozen the night before, were heated suddenly and the steam having no chance to escape, an explosion occurred. Both bankers and the barber were standing near the stove at the time of the accident, discussing the probabilities and possibilities of an explosion at some time or other. The conversation was rudely ended by the accident, but no one was much hurt. Mr. Conner received a badly bruised ankle while Mr. Jones received slight injuries. Both are compelled to go on crutches for the present. A gas pipe will stand a pressure of over 1,000 pounds to the square inch, and it is indeed a wonder that some one was not killed.

THE LECTURE.—Mrs. Cox delivered a lecture at the M. E. Church, South, on last Sunday afternoon that every man and woman in Heppner should have heard. She is a veteran in the ranks of the Temperance army, being a lady of culture and wide experience she has a large fund of information and anecdote to draw upon. She gave a graphic account of the "Woman's Crusade," of its rise, its rapid expansion and its crystallization into that most wonderful of modern organizations, the "Women's Christian Temperance Union" with its world-wide mission and its more than forty departments of Reform work. She then took up the aggressive nature of the liquor traffic and dealt some heavy and well deserved blows at the weak, vacillating voters, who for the want of backbone permit this power to continue to grow, to dictate the laws of the Nation, State and Corporation; to fill our cities with tools that do its bidding, thus degrading the manhood of the country, sapping its resources, crushing out patriotism, and enthroning idleness, anarchy, lawlessness. The lady is mistress of irony and sarcasm, but dealt very lightly in those commodities, just enough to spice her most eloquent and logical lecture of an hour and twenty minutes. C.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.—Yesterday Jud Wiley, a young man living here this winter, was held to answer on a charge of perjury. It appears that he told the city marshal, in the hearing of Sheriff Harrington, what purported to be the facts concerning the robbery of the saloon of McAttee & Krick, giving the names of the supposed culprits. Before the grand jury this was denied, but on being confronted by the witnesses he at last recanted and acknowledged that he had sworn falsely. Wiley is held to answer to a serious charge, which is not corroborative of the saying that "talk is cheap."

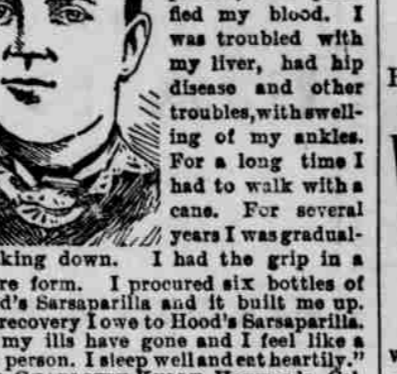

All last winter Mr. Geo. A. Mills, of Lebanon, Conn., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. At times it was so severe that he could not stand up straight, but he was drawn over on one side. "I tried different remedies without receiving relief," he says, "until about six months ago I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. After using it for three days my rheumatism was gone and has not returned since." For sale by Conner & Brock.

J. W. Kerne, the city painter, is prepared to do all kinds of painting and paper hanging and will do house-cleaning and take up and put down carpets. Office on Main street, opposite City hotel.

A Natural Beauty.
Kerl's Ointment will cure the most stubborn itching, sore, and all kinds of skin eruptions. For sale by Wells & Warren.

Pure Blood

Is the secret of the restoration to health which Hood's Sarsaparilla gives.

"It gives me pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured me of many complaints, and purified my blood. I was troubled with my liver, had hip disease and other troubles, with swelling of my ankles. For a long time I had to walk with a cane. For several years I was gradually breaking down. I had the grip in a severe form. I procured six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it built me up. My recovery I owe to Hood's Sarsaparilla. All my ills have gone and I feel like new person. I sleep well and eat heartily."
MRS. CHARLOTTE KELLY, Hayward, Cal.

A PLEASANT PARTY.—On last Friday evening a number of Heppner's young people, in response to previous invitation, met at the home of Miss Gertrude Bishop to enjoy themselves as none but the youthful can. Those present were: Misses Eleise Ayers, Emma Farnsworth, Ethel Myers, Bertha Matlock, Mamie Farnsworth, Ida Stevenson, Lulu Hager, Grace Hark, Alice Thompson, Annie McBride, Edith Vaughn, Vera Hart, Pearl Wells, Mable Ayers, Messrs. Wayne Howard, Ernest Kirk, Ora Adkins, Lee Slocum, Earl McFarland, Eric Rusch, Clarence Kirk, Orin Brians, Percy Hughes, Willie Hughes, Ralph Sperry, Gussie Ayers, George Vinson, Louis Biebae and Norman Shipley.

A Fact Worth Knowing.
Consumption, La Grippe, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung diseases are cured by Shilob's Cure. For sale by Wells & Warren.

COMING PROSPERITY.—In addition to the regular output of wool, sheep and cattle this year, at probably better figures than for some time past, it is now almost certain that a large wheat crop will reward the exertions of our industrious farmers. The season so far has been all that one could ask. The moisture of the winter will be largely augmented by the fall of snow Sunday last which will doubtless be followed by reasonable rains. The outlook is indeed bright.

Judge Lowell, at the opening of court yesterday, made the following appointments: Chas. Johnson, jury bailiff; W. E. Richardson, general bailiff; W. B. McAllister, grand jury bailiff.
