-Cocoa Balls,-Before the fondant is very stiff, take out about a cupful. Knead into it as much grated cocoanut as possible, form into balls, brush with white of egg and roll in dry cocoanut. -Prairie Farmer.

-Polish for Floors.-Boil together one cup of strong beer, a piece of beeswax about the size of a nut, and a spoonful of sugar. First clean the floor by wiping it over with warm beer, and then apply the polish with a brush. Leave until dry, and then polish with a soft duster.

-Beef and Carrote.-Chop one pound of beef (not too fine). Cook slowly with three sliced carrots in water, enough to cover until well done. Season wth salt, pepper, tablespoonful of butter, one-half teaspoonful of onion juice. Cream one teaspoonful of flour in onehalf cup of milk, and add just before serving.-Chicago Record.

-Plain Custard.-The beaten yolks of five eggs and five teaspoonfuls of sugar. Pour over this one quart of hot milk, add flavoring and the whites of two eggs. Bake in cups set in a pan of boiling water. Cover with meringue and eat cold. Do not leave too long in the oven. Boil instead, if pre-ferred.—Farm, Field and Fireside.

-Cocoanut Creams,-These are made by dropping some grated cocoanut and a few drops of vanilla in some of the fondant; work like dough, roll out, cut in cubes and allow to harden. Melt a piece of fondant without chocolate, and dip the cubes in this. The dipping must be done expeditiously, as the creams will melt if left too long in the hot mixture. Keep the mixture for dipping warm over hot water .-Orange Judd Farmer.

-Apple Butter.-Boil three gallons of cider down to one-fourth of the quantity. Pare and core as many apples as the cider will cover. Divide the ground cloves, allspice, cinnamon, brown sugar. Then boil again, stirheld up.-Boston Budget.

THE MANGER IN BETHLEHEM. Its Bareness Concealed by the Rich Gifts of the Devout for Ages.

No one thing in the Gospel story appeals more to the hearts of young and old alike than that the Redeemer of Men was born in a place so lowly as a manger, out of which beasts were wont to take their food. Every one who has eard or read the immortal narrativ of that birth has tried to picture to himself the scene-that rough stable, hollowed out of the rocks-where Christianity had its origin.

The poverty and squalor of that scene have been of wondrous power in affect- Every one fully expected that the cow ing the hearts of all of us. We have would be killed. Finally, however, a pondered the rude features of that environment until it has gained a romantle wretched animal down and removed place in our thoughts. Few of us have the net. Hardly was this over when a not hoped we might sooner or later look splendid stud bull got over a part of portents for mankind.

But the visitor to Bethlehem is no stable to be seen. The uncouth is no more. Whither has it vanished? It has been concealed from view by a veneer of beauty-it has been destroyed from sight by esteem for it. The rocky was the cradle of Christ, is shown only the Christian church has delighted in bringing hither its gifts of gold, frank. nately it was not to be. incense and myrrh, as did the wise men who came under the leading star. The church has done no more than to follow forth in the Scriptures, but the result is unfortunate. It thrills the heart of the devout, doubtless, to stand on the spot where the Infant Christ first opened human eyes, but how infinitely more would it thrill the heart could one but see that scene in all its first nakedness-the bare rocks, the naked floor, the gloomy recesses, the damp air, shaken by many currents—the una-dorned, the real birth chamber of Jesus Christ?-N. TIGER LOOSE IN A DAIRY. Surprise of a Thirsty Bull When the Big

The tiger in the present instance is me which is kept by his bighness' dairy to keep away the "evil eye" from the cattle. He was netted for Lord Lansdowne to shoot when his excellency visited Mysore a few years ago and is a splendid brute. The dairy is a very arge yard, with open sheds all round, in which the cattle are tied, the tiger's eage being close to one end and a fountain near the other. The tiger got out about seven p. m. and calmly strolled around, the place being full of entitle and people at the time; but, fortunately, he had no desire whatever to taste stall-fed beef, or Hindoo either, although he passed within a few feet of the outhors, and he reads everything the cows and the men, and after exam- that Emile Zola writes, ining them all quietly in down by the

By nine o'clock a couple of elephants brought down the nets and a cordon was run around the place, preventing the tiger excuping or getting at the cattle, when two rather amusing incidents occurred. A cow managed to get into the yard, and after shipping about for some time rushed into a part of the I growth of plants.

From early child-hood until I was grown my family spent a fortune trying to cure me of this disease. I visited Hot Springs and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had termined to FROM failed I determined to FROM failed I determined to FROM failed I determined to and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible eczema was gone, not a sign of it left. My general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease. The cool and indifferent way in which Bassapali Urs' fossilized hunters, with their fearfully and wenderfully made hundooks, walked up and down past the tiger was most amusing. What they would have done in the event of the tiger making for one of them it is hard to tell.
