

BACK AT THEM.

The Oregonian was never known to be honest in anything, much less consistent. This is well known in this state, therefore the great journal (in appearance) has but little influence except among admirers of antocracy.

The Oregonian whines like a common, flabitten cur when it is whipped. When it comes down "off its perch" and picks manure in the barnyard with the chickens, then failing to bring the refractories into line, flies off on an irritable, puerile tangent and foams and froths, mark well, the Oregonian is getting some welts where it hurts.

Openly the Oregonian has fought Mitchell since his name has been brought again before the public for the position of United States senator, but finding that its course was not going to win in Multnomah county, that the old ring was whipped, the Oregonian changed its tactics and says "there's no fight on Mitchell in Multnomah county." It had suddenly learned that Mitchell was good enough, despite his views on silver.

But the Oregonian could not hide the fact that it was trying to cheat the victors out of the fruits of the conflict, one solid week. It threw off the cloak and resumed its fight. It avoided mentioning the name of Mitchell, thinking to hoodwink the people, but making the same old claims why silver men or those favorable to silver should not be chosen, substituted the names of Hermann and Ellis for Mitchell. The people know, and the Oregonian is too well aware of the fact, that the fortunes of Mitchell and Ellis are as indissolubly linked as the movements of the earth and sun. It is a new way of attacking the enemy, but no one is deceived, and if the friends of Mitchell succeed in the primaries in Portland, which they surely will, Multnomah county, being in the second congressional district, will decide the contest in favor of Mr. Ellis without taking a second ballot. Not a person in the state will be found so obtuse but who can see at a glance that the conditions that affect Ellis and, to some extent, Mr. Hermann, also relate to Mr. Mitchell's contest.

The Oregonian by implication talks as though his plutocratic faction have a right to bolt if they do not get what they want, and even go so far as to suggest that this will be their course. The Gazette wants it strictly understood that it represents nothing but itself when it reminds all auto-crats that this is a game that works both ways, and that the Oregonian should know by this time that there are individuals in this state who do not wear plumes that can fight when it comes to a "show-down." If the Oregonian persists in rupturing the republican party in this state, prosperous as it is, because it cannot have its childlike way, then let it go to fragments. Let the fight go on, and in the quoted language of one of Oregon's gifted legislators last winter, "Lay on, McDuff, and damned be he who first cries 'hold! enough!'"

The Washington democrats are beginning the work of the campaign in that state early. Their state convention meets in Seattle on March 23. The state election occurs in November.

SENATOR CULLOM, of Ill., says he is in the field for the republican nomination for President and expects to remain there until the St. Louis convention names the candidate, regardless of the instruction for McKinley in some of the Illinois districts. Mr. Cullom says he could have had quite a number of delegates instructed for him, but that he has from the first opposed instructing the delegates for anybody, believing that an uninstructed delegation would yield more influence in the National Convention.

The politicians are all for John H. Mitchell now, to get into the republican primaries. After they get in they may be something else. While all appears to be in favor of Mr. Mitchell's re-election now, the Journal's advice to the people is to turn out to the primaries in every precinct and county in the state; and to put none but Mitchell men on guard, and see to it that outspoken Mitchell men who will not have to be paid to vote for him for senator are put on the legislative ticket.—Salem Journal.

NERVOUSNESS.

Is the Wail of the Nerves for Food.

People with Weak, Flabby Nerves are the Ones who Suffer. They may be Relieved by Building up their Nerves with a Nourishing Nerve Food.

An Interesting Interview with a Prominent Physician and a Case in Point Cited.

From the Journal, Kirkeville, Mo.

"What is this modern disease called nervous prostration?"

If this question had been asked a physician in our grandfathers' time, he could not have answered it. The disease was not known then. It is new and is a product of our American hustle and worry. Stated in brief, nervous prostration is a complete collapse of the nervous system. It is brought on by overwork, worry or disease, and the patient can only be cured by rest and a proper feeding of the nerves.

Notice the dragged-out appearance of the average mother. She can scarcely drag herself around; her nerves and strength have been overtaxed; she has no reserve force. She keeps up, but it is at the expense of her nervous system. Finally she is overcome; she can work no more, her nerves are exhausted; the cares and worries of life have gotten the better of her, and it will require weeks and months to recover.

Thoughtless people say: "How foolish to work so hard and how foolish to worry." That is very well, but how many thousands of mothers there are who have burdens enough for a score, and whose poor, weak little bodies endure uncomplainingly all the burdens until finally they have to stop and it is a question if they have not waited too long.

In cases of this kind there is a food within the reach of all, and it is always effective. It is to the weakened nerves what bread and beef are to the muscular system. It supplies them all the properties necessary to build them up, strengthen them and restores them to a vigorous, healthy condition. This new food is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. If space permitted, we could fill pages with the heart-felt testimonials of thousands who have found in these pills their salvation. We only give one, but later others will be published that will be read with much interest by anyone suffering with weakened nerves as a result of the season or otherwise.

No more deplorable condition of the human body can be conceived of than that of nervous prostration, when every nerve in the system seems to vie with the others to make you miserable, when even the sunshine irritates you, when the happy prattle of the child distracts the loving parent, when life is haunted by a constant foreboding, when the light of life seems to turn to a smoldering, smoldering flame of torture—that's part of nervous prostration, just a phase of this many-sided disease. As its grasp upon you strengthens you lose, perhaps, the power to walk, to talk, to think, even the power to love. Death would be welcome, but alas! it comes not until the cup of suffering is full to overflowing. Such has been the experience of Mr. Henry Gehrke, whose story is best told in his own words.

To show the result of this nerve food on a special case, to prove the points above made, our reporter made the following interview:

Henry Gehrke is a thrifty and prosperous German farmer living four miles south of Bullion, in this (Adair) county, Mo. Mr. Gehrke has a valuable farm and he has been a resident of this county for years. He is very well-known hereabouts and well respected wherever he is known. Last week a reporter of the Journal stopped at Mr. Gehrke's, and while there became much interested in Mrs. Gehrke's account of the benefit she had not long since experienced from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. She said she wanted everybody to know what a great medicine these pills are, but as so many people are praising them now-a-days, she modestly doubted whether her testimony could add anything to what others had already said of them. Her only reason for talking for public-of Hillsboro, president of the Heppner Electric Light company, who delivered a very forcible address on the political issues of the day. Mr. Gates dealt principally with the tariff question, saying that it would be the leading issue in the coming campaign. His address was replete with facts and forcible argument, and in all the speaker showed himself to be thoroughly familiar with all the issues of the coming campaign. Frequent applause by the audience showed that they were in full sympathy with the speaker and the convincing arguments he presented. The club will meet again next Saturday evening at the court house.

For Dyspepsia and Liver complaint you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Valerian. It never fails to cure. For sale by Wells & Warren.

Charley Jones, the well-known "old-timer" in the territorial line, has again located in Heppner, having purchased Green Mathews' shop. Minor building opposite the city hotel. Charley will appreciate a call when in town.

tion about Pink Pills was that the people of Adair and neighboring counties might be convinced, if any doubt existed, that off-published testimonials concerning Pink Pills were genuine statements from the lips of persons who have been benefited by the use of them. Speaking of her own interesting experience, Mrs. Gehrke said:

"A little over a year ago I was completely broken down. I had been taking medicine from a doctor but grew worse and worse until I could scarcely go about at all. The least exercise or the mere bending of my body would cause me to have smothering spells, and the suffering was terrible. I thought it was caused by my heart. When everything else had failed to relieve me and I had given up all hopes of ever being anything but a helpless invalid, I obtained to read some testimonials in the Farm, Field and Fireside, also in the Chicago Inter-Ocean and the suffering of the people who made the statements were so nearly like the suffering I had endured that when I read that they were so greatly benefited by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, I did not hesitate to go at once and purchase two boxes. I took them according to directions and before the first box was used I felt a good bit better. Really the first dose convinced me that it was a great remedy. Before the two boxes were used up I sent my husband after three more boxes, so I would not be without them. When I had used these three boxes I felt like a different woman and thought I was almost cured.

"Since that time I have been taking them whenever I began to feel badly. When I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, I weighed only 113 pounds and after I had been using the medicine for about six months I weighed 122 pounds. I have had a good appetite ever since I commenced taking Pink Pills and instead of missing along, picking such food as I could eat even with an effort, I eat most anything that comes on the table. I am not the invalid I was. I do not have to be waited upon now as if I was a helpless child, but I work all the time, doing the housework and ironing and working in the garden without that dreadful feeling which comes over a person when they are afraid they are going to have one of those spells I used to have.

"Work don't hurt me any more. I honestly believe that had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would now be in my grave. I still have what the doctor calls bilious colic but the Pink Pills have made me much better and the spells are not so frequent and are nothing like as painful as before I began to use them. I would not be without the Pink Pills for that disease alone under any circumstances to say nothing of the other diseases for which they are especially recommended. I take pleasure in telling my neighbors the benefits I have received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and know of several other who have taken my advice and have been greatly benefited by them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unalloyed specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of jaundice, polipitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, all forms of weakness either in male or female, and all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Simon S. Hartman, of Tunnell, West Va., has been subject to attacks of colic about once a year, and would have to call a doctor and then suffer for about twelve hours as much as some do when they die. He was taken recently just the same as at other times, and concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I took one dose of it and it gave me relief in five minutes. That is more than anything else has ever done for me." For sale by Conser & Brook.

LEXINGTON BREEZES.

MISS ADA GENTRY is visiting out at Hardman this week. Many families are moving out of town for the purpose of commencing their spring work. James Leach and daughter returned from Athena Tuesday, where they have been visiting relatives. Miss Katie Barton, who has been visiting in the city the past few days, returned to her home on Black Horse, Tuesday. The school entertainment last Friday night, arranged by Prof. Balsiger, was highly appreciated by all who participated. Politics and office seekers are becoming more numerous every day, and as Lexington has about every belief "a gun," there is plenty of argument produced.

Robert Hynd and John Hornor were down to the literary Tuesday night. Next Tuesday night will be the last meeting of the season. A good time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Haley came up from Vancouver a week ago. They have been the guests of Representative J. S. Boothby and family. They left Monday for Monument, Grant Co., where Mr. H. will continue his school. "TAX JOLLS JOKE." LEXINGTON, Or., March 11, 1896.

Not to be Trifled With. (From Cincinnati Gazette.) Will people never learn that a "cold" is an accident to be dreaded, and that when it occurs treatment should be promptly applied? There is no knowing where the trouble will end; and while complete recovery is the rule, the exceptions are terribly frequent, and thousands upon thousands of fatal illnesses occur every year ushered in by a little injudicious exposure and seemingly trifling symptoms. Beyond this, there are today countless invalids who can trace their complaints to "colds," which at the time of occurrence gave no concern, and were neglected.—When troubled with a cold use Chamberlain's Sore Throat Remedy. It is prompt and effectual. 50 cent bottles for sale by Conser & Brook.

THE FUNERAL OF MRS. WELLS.—The funeral of Mrs. Geo. Wells which occurred in this city on last Saturday afternoon, drew a very high esteem in which she was held by the people of Heppner amongst whom she spent the greater part of her life. The procession was one of the largest ever witnessed in the city and was composed of the Epworth League of the M. E. church and Heppner Chapter of the Eastern Star, of which societies she was an honored and beloved member; an escort consisting of members of the Masonic Fraternity and a large following of citizens. The services at the church were appropriate and very impressive. The tribute to her memory by her pastor, Rev. Green, was full of pathos and most eloquently pronounced. The services at the grave were those of the O. E. S. and formed a fitting farewell to a noble, pure and beautiful life.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair. Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the World's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

CLUB RE-ORGANIZED.—In accordance with previous arrangements the members of the Blue Mountain Republican Club and Republicans of Dairy precinct met at the school house at Hardman last Saturday for the purpose of re-organizing the republican club of that precinct. The meeting was called to order by the former president, J. F. Boyse, and W. W. Smead, the county organizer, was introduced, when, after a few brief remarks, organization was perfected with more than 25 members, and the following officers for the coming two years elected: E. C. Frey, pres.; E. L. Wood, vice pres.; J. F. Boyse, sec'y. The president assumed his position and after thanking the members for the honor conferred he appointed committees on membership, program and constitution and by laws. After this several present were called upon for remarks and the following responded appropriately: J. N. Brown, E. A. Brundage, A. W. Patterson, John Hornor and J. F. Boyse. The club then adjourned to meet next Saturday. The following were present from Heppner: W. W. Smead, J. N. Brown, N. S. Whitstone, E. A. Brundage, S. P. Garrigus, John Hornor and A. W. Patterson. All report a pleasant and enjoyable time.
