

A SPECIFIC FOR La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs, AND LUNG TROUBLES, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband, reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, procured for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."

Here and There.

Ras. Muir is 'shorter' on the sick list. "Zett" Mathews left Friday for Portland. Thos. Crow came in yesterday from Lena. Andy Cook, of Lena, visited Heppner yesterday. Waldron Rhea is confined to his room by illness.

W. G. McCarty and wife were in town last Saturday. Henry Thompson, of Butter creek, was in town today. Lisle Watkins was in from the mountains Saturday.

T. A. Rhea went down to The Dalles Saturday night. Highest prices paid for sheep pelts at the lower warehouses. Sam Kinmas left Saturday for his home at Linnton, Or.

Otis Patterson and A. Andrews left last night for Portland. L. H. Conard was over the first of the week from Canyon City. Luther Huston and wife were in from Eight Mile Saturday last.

Jas. Rhea shipped three carloads of cattle down last Saturday. Jas. Carv came in from Alpine yesterday, leaving for home today.

W. S. Brown, the veteran sheepherder, arrived from Nebraska Sunday morning. Drink the celebrated J. H. Cutter whiskey. On up at Chris Dobbers'. "Uncle" Nelae Swaggart is down from Athena to visit his sons, Geo. and Ben.

La Grande Marble Works, La Grande Ore. S. O. Smith, salesman, Heppner. Geo. Larmen and Sam Walker were over from Gooseberry Friday and Saturday.

The Best of all Cough Medicines is Dr. Acker's English Remedy.

It will stop a cough in one night, check a cold in one day, prevent croup, relieve asthma, and cure consumption, if taken in time. It is made on honor, from the purest ingredients and contains neither opium nor morphine. If the little ones have croup or whooping cough, use it promptly.

ACKER MEDICINE CO., 28 and 30 Chambers Street, New York.

E. L. Freeland, W. W. Smead and A. W. Patterson went down to Portland Saturday night. C. M. Grimes shipped three carloads of cattle from Heppner Saturday night.

G. E. Hatt, the tenor artist, can be found at his parlors, Matlock corner, where he will dispense at popular prices, shaves, shampoos, haircuts, etc.

Mr. N. O. Smead and J. O. Wormoth went to the Dalles Saturday evening to attend the state convention. The Dalles Chronicle says that E. M. Shurt, editor of the Astoria Herald, will probably receive the republican nomination for joint representative for Wasco and Sherman counties.

T. D. Mathews, of Galloway, fell on the handle of a pitchfork, near his home last Friday, and suffered a severe injury. Dr. McFaul was called to attend to the injured man and says that he is getting along nicely and will soon recover.

Mr. M. A. Knox, of Lone, will open up this week with a complete milliner stock in the store next door to the lone hotel, in Lone. The stock will be well selected and Mrs. Knox deserves the patronage of the ladies of that vicinity.

On last Saturday Jubilan and Browner ran a race at the track which was declared a tie. On Sunday the latter and Grover had a 300 yard dash, the latter winning. The colt, Grover, runs much faster than would the old man, himself, just now.

Rev. E. P. Green left yesterday morning for a week's visit with friends at North Yakima and Ellensburg, making the trip to Mabton, on the M. P. R. R., by team. His pupil will probably be supplied next Sunday by W. E. Walbridge, of Arlington.

Ho, ye voting men of Morrow, whittle up a "Candidate." I'm free to state, will stay with us till June. Then let him cut a sugar blade, with "Spray" the Livewood Eye.

Sunday was both mission and communion day at the M. E. church. Preaching Elder Moter preached in the morning to a large congregation, and in the evening the Sunday school rendered a pleasing Easter program. The collection for missions during the day was nearly $50.

Mrs. Florence Crittenden went down to Portland Saturday night, where she will probably secure a position as teacher. Miss Crittenden recently was honored in this county with the nomination of county school superintendent on the democratic ticket. She authorizes the Gazette to say that she is a republican, that she knew nothing about the nomination and that she will not accept the same.

The attention of the Gazette has been called to the opinion of Ed. Day, as a central committee member from Lena, and also the report of the nomination of J. W. Beckett, as county commissioner, in the proceedings published in Tuesday's issue of last week. Mr. Beckett was opposed by Henry Royce, of Healdton, and G. W. Smith, of Lexington, both of whom had a good, strong following.

It may save you time and money to be informed that, when you need a blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the kind most in favor with the medical profession. It is the standard and, as such, the only blood-purifier admitted at the Chicago World's Fair.

Echo stage leaves Heppner Monday, Wednesday and Fridays. Leaves Echo Tuesday, Thursday and Saturdays. Fare $2 each way. Office, Wells & Warren, Heppner, Ed. Driskell, Prop.

SURPRISE PARTY.—The young girl friends of Nora Matlock gave her a very pleasant surprise party on last Wednesday evening. They report a very pleasant time. The following were present: Wille Minor, Edith Hager, Mary McSwords, Zoe Patterson, Mamie Eates, Lela Campbell, Etta Rogers, Bertha Fristoe, Leah Minor, Juanita Matlock, Hazel Morrow, Grace Greenwood, Ita Greenwood, Edna Mallory, Myrl Jones.

New Music.—We have received from the publishers, the Zeno Manus Music Co., of 769 Market street, S. F., a copy of the new two-step march, "The New Bully," arranged from the popular song of that name. It is showy and brilliant, and not very difficult to be taught.

LOOKED LIKE A ZULU.—A good joke is told on a Rook creek man who visited a neighboring town a few days ago. While absent he purchased a new suit of clothes and then took a few drinks. On his way home at night the idea came to his wandering brain to surprise his wife by appearing dressed up in his fine clothes. Stopping in the road he undressed and threw his old clothes into the reek, which carried them away, not knowing that he had lost the new ones out of the wagon. Unable to find either suit he was obliged to go home like a Zulu. He surprised his wife just the same.—Condon Globe.

A PLEASANT TIME.—In response to an invitation issued previous to the time, a crowd of Heppner's young people went down to the home of W. P. Datton, a few miles below town, to spend an evening on the 28th, ult. They were met at the door by the smiling host, and after playing parlor games for a short time the guests were bidden to partake of a delicious repast, to which we all did ample justice.
