—INDUCED—
Nervous Prostration
Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hixson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinab's, S. C.

DOCTOR
Acker's
ENGLISH
Remedy

will stop a cough in a night, check a cold in a day, and cure consumption if taken in time. If the little ones have Croup or Whooping Cough, use it promptly. Croup is a very fatal disease. Fully one-third of those attacked die. The great danger is that the disease progresses so rapidly that the loss of a few hours in treatment is often fatal. Acker's Remedy will cure Croup, and it should always be kept in the home for all emergencies. One cent bottle may save your child's life.
Three sizes 25c, 50c, $1. All Druggists.

"A BURNED SIGHT WORSE"
A Bachelor, old and cranky,
Was sitting alone in his room;
His toes with gout were aching,
And his face o'erspread with gloom.
No little ones' shouts disturb him,
From noise his quiet was free.
In fact, from all annoyances,
Was quiet as a quiet could be.
No medical aid was lacking;
The servants answered his ring,
Respectfully heard his orders,
And supplied him with everything.
But still there was something wanting,
Something he couldn't command;
The kindly words of compassion,
The touch of a gentle hand.
And he said, as his brow grew darker,
And he rang for the hired nurse,
"Well, marriage may be a failure;
"But this is a damned sight worse."

Cared the Child.
Ely, Or., March 8, 1896. "I had malarial fever and chills, and was attended by physicians who did not cure me, and grew very weak. I sent for a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and began taking this medicine. I had a chill this afternoon, although before taking it I had three chills a day."—Mrs. C. Moran.

IONE ITEMS
Politics and other ticks is the order of the day.
Wire worms and squirrels are getting away with much grain.
Fred Balsiger is active as teacher in the Pleasant Hill district.
Ione has received her share of candidates on the republican ticket.
Lambing season is at hand and a number have found employment therein.
Robert Glock arrived a week ago from Highland, Ill., and will remain for sometime.

The various candidates on the three tickets are now daily discussed and much interest is manifested.
A number of persons joined the newly organized Congregational church on Sunday and more will follow.
Mrs. Knox, who recently opened a millinery store at Ione, has quite a stock of goods on hand and well worth seeing.
Joe Woolery is leaving his new residence in Ione painted. It will be quite an improvement and other residents will follow his example.
Ione has now a subscription school in session. It started a week ago, and the teacher, Miss Lena Jordan, a very enthusiastic worker, is giving good satisfaction.
The Ione Congregational Sunday school is in a flourishing condition. Over eighty were present last Sunday. Rev. Drake delivered a sermon after it. We are now to have preaching twice a month.
Saturday, a week ago, the Congregational church council was held at Ione. Rev. Drake, of Condon, Rev. Heath, of Lexington, Rev. Clapp, of Harney, and many others were present. The First Congregational church of Ione was fully organized and recognized, and it was positively decided to build quite a church in our town. Ed. Cliff has already donated a lot for the purpose, and many others interested in the upbuilding of Ione have promised their aid. A number of new members were taken in. JAKE.

Beneath the Car Wheels

Tuesday morning the O. R. & N. passenger east bound ran over a hobo between Umatilla and Wallula, and his body was broken into fragments and scattered along the track for a considerable distance. The train was running along and Superintendent O'Brien was seated in the rear of the receiver's car. He saw the pieces of the body scattered along the track and upon investigation it was found that two other men were riding on the trucks in that condition. The man's name is not known and there seems to be no way in which to identify him. Men were sent back to attend to the remains.

If we could trace Dyspepsia to its source, it would lead back to our kitchen. In fact, the secret of good health is good cooking. If well cooked, foods are partially digested; if poorly cooked, they are less digestible than in their raw state. If you are a victim of faulty cooking; that is, if you suffer from dyspepsia, the ration may be looked for in an artificially digested food, and a food which will at the same time aid the digestion of other foods. Such a preparation virtually rears the tired digestive organs, thereby restoring them to their natural strength. The Digestive Cordial, as prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, is just such a preparation, and a single 10 cent bottle will convince you of its value. If your druggist doesn't keep it, he will be glad to get it through his wholesale house.

Forty Years Ago.
Judge Bishop, of Pendleton, in the East Oregonian, tells in a recent interview of the horrible massacre at the lower Cascade, in 1856, at which he was present. The judge says: "I refer to a place down on the Columbia river on the Washington side opposite where the Cascade Locks now is. There is where I was and also a number of settlers. That was a day of moment. I can never forget it, as the Indians came skulking about the settlement and killed 15 of our white people. Times were mighty interesting about then. We were far from any other centre of settlement and if the redskins got the better of us we would all have lost our lives. As it was, the margin of safety was very narrow and we came within one or two acres of being all massacred. The pesky varmints not only killed 15 of our people, but almost captured our steamboat 'Mary,' which plied between there and The Dalles. They advanced as far as the gangplank, but just at the right moment, the engineer of the boat came forward and shot one of them and the remaining ones retreated into cover. They were afterwards pursued, captured, and a dozen of them summarily hung or shot."

My Back
did not trouble me so severely. My appetite returned and I gained strength every day. I am now able to do my own work, and feel perfectly well. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me and I gladly recommend it." Miss ELLA BARRETT, 213 S. Grant Ave., Columbus, Ohio.
I was nervous, had pains in my back. I cannot tell what I suffered. My eyesight became affected and I was so despondent I did not have any interest in life. I had two physicians, but my complaints became worse. I was told that I was affected with Bright's disease. A relative urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and in a short time I began to notice a change in my condition. Things began to appear brighter, my eyes improved and

My Kidneys

Nerves are weak, many people say, and yet they do not seem to know that they are literally starving their nerves. Weak, pale, thin blood cannot give proper sustenance—that is why you are nervous, tired, exhausted. The cure for this condition is to purify, vitalize and enrich your blood. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla fairly and faithfully, and the rich, red blood, which it makes, will soon feed the nerves the elements of true strength they require; they will cease their agitation and will resume their proper place—being under the control, instead of controlling the brain and body. Read Miss Bartley's letter:
