NOT A SICK DAY For Over Thirty Years! RESULT OF USING

AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually-as a result of constipation—from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had noticed that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."-H. An Unknown Book Peddler Meets Death in a Horrible Manner. From Blue Mountain Eagle.

Wm. Rudio, who recently returned from a business trip to Orook county, gives an account of the discovery in hat section of the charred remains of a book peddler in the ruins of a cabin owned by Joe Karns, which had been burned with the evident intention of cancealing the crime. The cabin is situated on the border line between Grant and Crock counties near the head of Beaver creek and in a very sparsely

The victim is remembered in Canyon City as having passed through there last fall with the intention of returning before winter. Stranger as he was no notice was taken of his non-appearance until the discovery of his remains and a part of his outfit by Mr. Kerns a few days ago told the story of his fate. The last seen or heard of him as near as can be ascertained, was at the farm of Mrs. Hinkle where he stopped and made in quiries about the route to Breman's quiries about the route to Breman's place It so happned that a daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Hinkle were about to start for the same locality, and informed the wayfarer that if he would follow their tracks he would reach the place all right. With that understand-ing they started out, but upon reaching Swamp creek, it has since transpired, the pedler must have lost the track, for nothing more was seen of him. After wandering aimlessly about he accidently stumbled onto or was inveigled into the deserted cabin where it is supposed he
