A WOOL MARKET. PENDLETON

This has become an established market for Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho wools. Last season three million pounds were received here by rail from Huntington, Baker City, Heppner, Arlington, and from Yakima, Spokane, Lewiston, Walla Walla and intermediate stations.

From no point in the Northwest, Portland included, is wool shipped East at less expense than from Pendleton.

Water competition has not afforded sufficiently low rates upon wool in the grease and dirt, to equal the lower expense incurred by shipping only clean, scoured wool from Pendleton.

Net the Grower more Cash for the same amount of wool than can be obtained in any other Market in the State.

THE DUTY OF REPUBLICANS.

From the Pendleton Tribune.

Many republicans and republican papers evidence signs of dissatisfaction with the outcome of the recent state and congressional conventions, and the Tribune frankly admits that it feels keenly its disappointment over the re-nomination of Congressman Ellis as well as over the narrow escape from defeat of Mr. Taylor, candidate for joint senator, despite the fact that the Umattils delegation was instructed to use every honorable means to secure his nomination.

There is an old saying that it does not do to always tell the truth and for this reason it may be just as well to leave untold some things that occurred at the state convention.

While Eastern Oregon is not entirely free from the evil influences of the political boss, Portland is dominated by the worst sort of building bosses in forty-four states. Portland for years has suffered from boss rule and there does not seem to be any prospect of immediate relief from the fraudulent methods of the machine in that city.

Loyal republicans all over the state will support the ticket named at Portland and in the various counties of the state, and though fraudulent enrollment, packing of primaries with democrats, high-handed and desperate methods may have employed in some instances, putting it beyond the power of republican voters to express their will in the usual manner, the regular republican ticket should and will be supported, as nothing can be gained by voting, and no better nor no independent candidate should receive the support of any republican voter, nor can any independent candidate in any county or congressional district be elected.

The Tribune has already expressed its dissatisfaction with certain methods that have been employed which seemed to it to have been intended to prevent real republicans from making their will known through the channels which in other states are left free and untrammeled, but now that the nominations have been made, there is but one thing left for republicans to do and that is to support the ticket from top to bottom.

Democrats and populists everywhere, knowing that neither stood any chance for success so long as the tariff was the main issue are aiming to force the money question before the country as the one great issue and so well have they agitated the matter that many republicans have actually been led to believe that there is really something in it.

But the plain people who settle by their votes all the great questions of the day, take a very different view of the situation, as may be seen in their personal preference so widely expressed for McKinley, due to their identification of him with a tariff under which labor and business enjoyed the highest prosperity.

With a tariff which defends home industry and secures prosperity the money question would at once become a dead issue. The tariff act of 1890 was not the work of any one man. But its enemies fastened the name of McKinley on it, and the people throughout the country have come to associate his name with the principle which secured for them the highest prosperity they have ever known.

We cannot afford to allow our democratic and populist friends to lead us to bolt the nominations of the republican party because of the preference of nominees for gold or silver. It makes but little difference to us whether they are goldbugs or silver-lunatics so long as they are based upon to stand solidly for the principles that experience teaches us encourages the development of the industrial interests of the whole country, and this is what providing revenue for the support of the general government by duties on imports does.

"Did my singing disturb you yesterday?" said the musical young woman. "Were you singing?" asked the impolite boarder. "Why, of course. Didn't you hear me?" "I believe it was your voice I heard, but I thought you had seen a mouse."—Washington Star.

Fits Cured. From Dr. J. C. Felt's Medical Pres. W. H. Felt, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living physician. His success is astonishing. We have heard of cases cured by a single dose, but this is a valuable work on this disease, which is a cure for all cases of Epilepsy, cured by a single dose. Mrs. Duniway on "Man."

Bless 'em! They share our joys, they double our sorrows, they triple our expenses, they quadruple our cares, they excite our magnanimity, they increase our self respect, awaken our affection, control our property, and out maneuver us in everything. This would be a dreary world without them. In fact, I may say, without prospect of successful contradiction, and without them this wouldn't be much of a world anyhow. We love them and the dear things can't help it. We control them and the precious fellows don't know it. As husbands, they are convenient, though not always on hand; as beaux, they are by no means matchless. They are most agreeable as visitors, handy at state affairs, and indispensable at oyster saloons; splendid escorts for some other fellow's wife or sister, and as friends they are better than women. As our fathers, they are inexhaustibly grand. A man may be a failure in business, a wreck in constitution, not much to boast of as a beauty, nothing as a wit, less than nothing as a legislator for woman's rights and not very brilliant as a member of the press; but if our Heavenly Father will over look his shortcomings we can cover his peccadilloes with divine mantle of our charity. Then as our husbands, how we do love to parade them as our paragons!

In the language of the poet, We'll lie for 'em, We'll cry for 'em, And if we could, we'd fly for 'em We'd do anything but die for 'em.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWANN'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

Pendleton's Moral WAVE.

From The Dalles Chronicle.

Pendleton ladies of the W. C. T. U. are urging a movement to abolish houses of ill fame in their midst. A petition was presented to the council containing 400 names, as follows:

"To the honorable mayor and common council of the city of Pendleton: We, the undersigned, citizens of the city of Pendleton, respectfully ask your honorable body to adopt such measures as may be necessary to prevent any person or persons from opening, setting up or keeping or maintaining within the limits of the city of Pendleton any bawdy house, and to suppress and prohibit the keeping or maintaining of any and all bawdy houses within the limits of said city.

"We would respectfully represent that such houses as these now exist in our city are detrimental to the morals of the people of said city, and particularly of the children of the city, and are a menace to the peace and quiet of the city. And your petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.

Might not the Pendleton ladies be injuring the cause of morality by their action, rather than aiding it? Loutful and unprincipled men, driven from their accustomed fields, are apt to invade the homes of respectability and accomplish more deplorable ruin than exists under the present conditions. Cause rather than effect is the proper object of inquiry and reform.

Karl's Clover Root Tea

is a sure cure for Headache and nervous diseases. Nothing relieves so quickly. For sale by Wells & Warren.

The Irishman's View.

An Irishman, who was near-sighted, and was about to fight a duel, insisted that he should stand six paces nearer to his antagonist than the latter did to him, and they were both to fire at the same time. This beats Sheridan's telling about a fat man who was going to fight a thin one, that the latter's slim figure ought to be chalked on the other's portly person, and if the bullet hit him outside the line it was to go for nothing.

The Life of Women.

Constipation, causes more than half the ills of women. Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant cure for Constipation. For sale by Wells & Warren.

If a girl is going to marry a man who keeps a horse or a dog she can, by observation, form a pretty good idea of how she will be treated.—Life.

Bobby—Say, mamma, was the baby sent down from heaven? Mamma—Why, yes. Bobby—Um! They likes to have it quiet up there, doesn't they?—Truth.

"What were you on earth?" queried St. Peter, as the wheelman knocked at the gate. "I was a bicycle rider." "Did you ride fast?" asked the saint. "Fast!" repeated the cyclist, "I should say I did. No one could pass me on the road."

"You were always riding like mad and colliding with other cyclists and running down pedestrians, weren't you?" "Yes, I was a cyclist," the cyclist admitted.

"A cyclist, eh?" St. Peter repeated. "Well, there's no something here. You belong on the floor below!"—Truth.

No PUBLIC EXERCISES.—Rawlins Post, G. A. R., of Lexington, has decided not to have any public exercise on Declaration Day, but will appropriately observe the event with fitting tributes to the memory of those who braved shot and shell, sickness and disease, that this grand country should have naught but freedom, that the principle of a union of people, inseparable forever, should be clearly defined for the protection of the republic throughout all time.

At a recent meeting the following committee was appointed on decoration of graves: Mr. J. L. Hill, Hon. J. S. Boothby, Mrs. J. L. Hill, Lexington; Mr. J. C. Ball, Mr. A. J. Stephenson and Mrs. N. A. Kelly, Heppner. All members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. are requested to be present.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation be removed the tube cannot be restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free. F. J. CHERNEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

LEAGUE MATTERS.—The young people of the Epworth League, of the M. E. church, South, gave a social at the residence of the pastor, C. R. Howard, on last Wednesday evening, only members and their friends being present.

The event was an enjoyable one and adds great credit to the history of the league. The social department of this society for some time past has been inactive, but under the supervision of the present third vice president this work has been revised and made one of the pleasing and profitable features of the league work. A large number were in attendance and seemed to enjoy themselves in the fullest sense of the word. Refreshments were served by the ladies to whom great credit is due.

How to Treat a Wife.

(From Pacific Health Journal.) First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom.—To this we would add always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by Conser & Brook, druggists.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.—Heppner's board of trade met at the council chambers Tuesday evening last. Minutes of last regular meeting read and approved.

Oscar Minor was called upon and stated the object of the meeting. Frank McFarland stated that there was nothing in the way of the immediate opening of the road as the time was past for filing of the papers by those contesting the action of appraisers for damages, and that they must now accept the amount awarded. All the old officers of organization were elected by acclamation. E. G. Sperry was elected vice president. Mr. Minor was chosen to go to Canyon City and to look after the completion of business. Secretary and president were instructed to sign bonds of $1500 for payment of damages caused by opening Farris creek road. The president appointed the following committees: On railroads and transportation, R. F. Hynd, Frank McFarland and E. J. Hossum. Adjourned.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

The intense itching and smarting incident to eczema, tetter, salt-rheum, and other diseases of the skin is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorable remedy for some suppurating, chapped hands, chapped, frost bites, and chronic sore eyes. For sale by druggists at 25 cents per box.

Try Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, they are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. For sale by Conser & Brook, druggists
