

OVERWORK -INDUCED- Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, and unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health. A fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HISSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

DIED.
LARGO—In this city, at 10:30 Friday evening, May 22, 1896, Lester Lee, little son of Isaac Largo, aged 3 years, 9 months and 8 days.
The little boy had been sick for some time with a lingering illness, but the best of medical aid and nursing failed to restore him to health and death claimed him. It has been but a short time since the elder son of the family passed away, and this sorrowing family indeed have the sympathy of this community. Funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon at the M. E. church by Rev. E. P. Green, the remains being laid to rest in the Heppner cemetery.

Funeral.—At the residence of Geo. Vinocent in this city, at 12 o'clock Friday day night, May 22, 1896, Mrs. Julia Pressley, wife of Dave Pressley, aged 22 years.
Mrs. Pressley had been sick for about three months with a complication of diseases which baffled the skill of her physicians. She leaves a husband and two young children, one a babe of 6 months, to mourn the early taking away of the wife and mother. Services were conducted by Rev. E. P. Green at the M. E. church on Sunday afternoon, and the remains were followed to the cemetery by a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Geo. Weaver Here.
Geo. James B. Weaver, of Iowa, addressed the populist meeting at the opera house on Saturday afternoon. The large hall was well filled with populists, republicans and democrats, who were anxious to hear what a confidante of national repute would have to say regarding the issues before the American people of today. Mr. Weaver is a man of very pleasant address, and for two hours and twenty-five minutes he held the attention of his listeners, addressing them in the main on the financial question, giving in a forcible manner his reasons for the restoration of silver as money, and the free coinage of the same at the ratio of 16 to 1. His reference to the old parties and their actions on this question was in a respectful strain, and while he disagreed with their treatment of the case, he was not abusive, choosing rather to use argument than calumny. While large numbers of those who heard him do not agree with the views held by Mr. Weaver, yet they consider it was a treat to hear him speak. He left Heppner for other points on Saturday night's train.

Next Lake Reno Weekly Tribune.
On June 1st the Salt Lake Tribune will reduce the price of the Reno Weekly to $1.00 per year. The present high standard will be maintained, and every effort will be made to keep the Reno Weekly in the front rank.

Danger Signals

More than half the victims of consumption do not know they have it. Here is a list of symptoms by which consumption can certainly be detected—
Cough, one or two slight efforts on rising, occurring during the day and frequently during the night.
Short breathing after exertion.
Tightness of the chest.
Quick pulse, especially noticeable in the evening and after a full meal.
Chilliness in the evening, followed by slight fever.
Perspiration toward morning and "pale face and languid in the morning. Loss of vitality.
If you have these symptoms, or any of them, do not delay. There are many preparations which claim to be cures, but Dr. Ayer's English Remedy for Consumption has the highest endorsements, and has stood the test of years. It will arrest consumption in its earlier stages, and drive away the symptoms named. It is manufactured by the Ayer Medicine Co., 16 and 18 Chambers St., New York, and sold at all reputable druggists.

For your Protection.—Catarrh "Cures" or Tonics for Catarrh in liquid form to be taken internally, usually contain either Mercury or Iodide of Potassa, or both, which are injurious if too long taken. Catarrh is a local, not a blood disease, caused by sudden change to cold or damp weather. It starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat. Cold in the head causes excessive flow of mucus, and, if repeatedly neglected, the results of catarrh will follow: severe pain in the head, a roaring sound in the ears, bad breath, and oftentimes an offensive discharge. The remedy should be quick to allay inflammation and heal the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.
