SUMMER FASHIONS.

Toilettes for August has many cool and dainty gowns, showing agreeable changes from established models; some of the best known firms of Parisian designers are represented in this issue.

The sleeves show a marked tendency toward getting smaller, and more gracefully trimmed; seen again on the skirts, especially towards the hem. But even more striking than the many absolute novelties of design is the finished style of the illustrations, which excel anything in this line to be found in the country.

Jack Murray and Pat Barry got in yesterday from a trip to Idaho. They think that times are just as good here as they are over in the Idaho section.

Any inventor in Eastern Oregon who desires the services of an attorney in Washington, D. C., will find it to his advantage to call on or address this paper.

Dandruff is due to an unclean state of the skin. Hall's Hair Remover quickens the nutritive functions of the skin, healing and preventing the formation of dandruff.

E. O. Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hendley have been visiting in Heppner and Echo. Mr. Hendley is now attending to his duties as a member of the wool firm of Hendley & Gould.

E. O. Howard Dodson, deputy internal revenue collector, having a position in Collector Blackman's office in Portland, is in Pendleton as a guest of his sister, Mrs. Theron E. Fell.

Here and There.

Mrs. Jake Pearson is on the sick list. Gid Matt is back from his Portland trip.

R. R. Daran was in yesterday and reports having in full blast in his neighborhood.

C. F. Belmont and E. C. Warren, two of our brave drummer boys, were here yesterday.

Found—In the road, in Heppner, a ladies' jacket. Owner will please call at Gazette office.

Dr. E. R. Swinburne has been quite ill for the past few days but at present is convalescent.

Col. Day and son, I. N. Day, propose to put on a line of steamers between Portland and The Dalles.

E. O. Mrs. Jerry Cohn, sister of Mrs. M. P. John, arrived this morning from Heppner for a visit in Pendleton.

Geo. Sperry and Lanes Penland captured a cub bear and killed the mother out on Ditch creek early this week.

New Jones' team ran away Tuesday last in Heppner, smashing the rig and damaging the harness considerably.

Lost—On the streets of Heppner, a cap off of a bicycle pedal—rat-trap. Finder will please return to this office.

Congressman Ellis and family departed yesterday for Newport where they will spend the remainder of the next term.

Women

Who are nervous, weak, worn out with local troubles find pure blood, nerve strength, and perfect health in Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We do not say the above to raise false hope. It has been the experience of many, very many women in those intensely trying periods which demand and consume so much force—those special physical trials we delicately indicate by merely using the words—Maid, Mother, Matron.

Like a confidential friend we suggest the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, a reliable blood purifier and tonic; it has helped many others and will help you.

"I was in poor health five years, broken down in strength, and appetite all gone. Local troubles and other weaknesses intensified my misery. Nervous sick dizziness, heartburn and pains in my back made me think I should never be well again. A friend prevailed upon me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I soon began to improve and in six months it restored me to better health than for years. I have found Hood's Sarsaparilla a grand medicine for all troubles peculiar to

Headaches

My Sex

I am now strong and healthy and can do a good day's work. I stand by Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it cured me after other medicines failed." Mrs. LUC DIER, Carlinville, Illinois.

This and many similar cures prove that is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists, $1. Prepared only by C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, contain no opium, and are sold only at the Belvedere Saloon.

Now the "Candidate" is out of date. The crops are looking fine; It is a treat to view the wheat. The melon on the vine. The horn of plenty in the land. But the horn for which we sigh is a winning lass and a brimming glass of Sperry's "Linwood Bye."

Geo. Palmateere, who recently came to Heppner from Pendleton, stopping at Visonen's hotel, is very seriously ill with pneumonia. He is now being very kindly cared for at the home of E. G. Sperry, and is reported to be gradually improving under the treatment of Dr. McFaul.

E. O.: In 1879, a girl 15 or 16 years old disappeared from Cascade Locks and the body was never found, until the other day, when Louie Conini, proprietor of The Dalles Marble Works, discovered a skeleton near his quarry which is thought to be that of the young Sullivan girl.

E. O.: J. M. Herman, manager of the Black Butte mine in Grant County, is in the city. Mr. Herman says work goes steadily on at the mine. A stamp mill has been bought and will be taken in to be set up immediately upon its arrival. The Black Butte owners are confident they have the best mine in Eastern Oregon.

Do not be Deceived. Do not be induced to buy any other if you have made up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Remember that other fails. Do not give up in despair because other medicines have failed to help you. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and you may reasonably expect to be cured.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25c.

A Rare Bargain. I take pleasure in informing the public that I have purchased the photographic studio of D. C. Herrin and will fill all orders issued for photos by Horner & Rhea (the best place on earth to trade) on the following conditions:

For every $15.00 worth of dry goods bought and paid for you get one ticket which entitles you to one dozen of my best $2.00 photos, and for every $25.00 cash you invest in Horner & Rhea's dry goods you get one ticket which entitles you to one dozen of my best $3.00 cabinet photos.

See! You kill two birds with one stone. Yours respect. M. R. GALLOWAY.

Wait, Thompson runs stage between Heppner and Monument, arriving every day except Monday and leaving every day except Sunday. Shortest and cheapest route to the interior. Conser & Brook, agents.

A Great German Prescription. Dissolved blood, constipation, and kidney, liver and bowel troubles are cured by Karl's Clover Root Tea. For sale by Wells & Warren.

VIEWS OF THE BRITISH PRESS.

From the Spokane Review. Great Britain appears deeply concerned in the political operations of the United States. From the tone of the English press, the mother country would like this country to follow out the line in political economy which she would prescribe. Having for a long period in the early history of this country exacted tribute from our people, she would like to continue to do so. The English press is not pleased with the gold plank, and points out the folly of the protective features of the republican platform, and says that it is wrong—that we should be guided by her advice in all matters of trade and commerce. In order to please England further it will be necessary to declare free trade. That will be entirely satisfactory to the mother country. We then would soon become simply a producer of the raw products, and she would fix the prices. Our manufacturers would close, unless the workmen would consent to descend to the scale of the operatives in Great Britain.

The republican party is regarded by the English mind as a thorn in the side of England. The doctrines of the party have heretofore run counter to the English system at all points. From the time of Alexander Hamilton, who formulated a financial system for this country and established the principal of the indissoluble unity of our nation, and during the days of Abraham Lincoln, who was largely instrumental in perpetuating the cardinal doctrines of republicanism, England and her press have opposed the republican party. No other country has manifested an equal amount of concern in American affairs. The London Standard is terribly worked up over the position taken in the St. Louis platform on protection. It declares that the gold standard and protection cannot exist together in the United States; and that if hard-and-fast protection wins in November, a debased currency is sure to follow. To what depths of woe the English journals would plunge if protection should win. Sad to contemplate. In the same sympathetic strain, that journal further says that the standard of parties in this country has fallen so low that men of the stripe of McKinley are about the best procurable. They are fully as good as the nation desires. The gentle, dispassionate good temper of this is so manifest that one is moved to say in response, "Thanks, awfully." These and other similar comments by other British organs give the true reflex of British sentiment toward this country.

The conduct of our party and national affairs will probably continue to be without deference to the sanction or disapproval of Great Britain or her press. It was this evening's desire for further domination in affairs of this continent that forced President Cleveland to the limits of forbearance when he called a halt on the Venezuelan question—the only thing he ever did which received the endorsement of all parties in this country.

Finally the Standard says: "We do not like the outlook." There is nothing left for the Americans of this republic to do but to apologize for their existence.

John Bull is our creditor, and he is hard to please. The best thing that England could do under the circumstances would be to trash us again.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble. Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaint.—Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Fredericktown, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for this cure. It is for sale by Conser & Brook, druggists.

Hypnotism in Medicine. The Journal of the American Medical Association has an editorial, the general trend of which is to show that hypnotism has had its day and is practically being laid upon the shelf, or, at least, its use confined to irregulars outside of the recognized school of medicine. This is a rather curious statement to make, at least in one measures the interest of a medical topic by the number of articles written about it. There are few subjects upon which German physicians are writing more monographs at present or in which they seem to take a more active interest. The sensational side of hypnotism is certainly dying out, but a certain practical side, which is represented by the word "suggestion," has undoubtedly come to stay and to be used in therapeutics.

Early Fietz. D. L. Moody, the evangelist, told a story in Philadelphia recently about his life before his conversion, when a boy of 17. He said that while he was a pretty bad boy in his unregenerate days, deep in the follies and errors of the world, he never broke so far away from his early religious training as to forget to say his prayers every night. "I used to sleep with my brother," he said, "and if either one of us happened to jump into bed without first getting on his knees, the other would swear at him vigorously and kick him out on the floor."

The horses which are used on the Kennebec rice fields are so accustomed to dropping through the low that they don't seem to mind it. They are yanked out a little roughly, to be sure, but they take their medicine like the chickens belonging to the family that was constantly moving, which, every time they saw a covered cart stop in front of their house, would turn on their backs and stick their legs into the air to be tied together, ready for transportation.

Another Immense Log Raft. Preparations are making for building another immense log raft on Puget sound, to be towed by steamer to San Francisco. Last year a large raft was towed from the Columbia river to San Francisco and the undertaking was a big success.

How She Spelled It.

Everyone knows how to spell "hard water" with three letters, but probably some readers would be puzzled to spell "yesterday" with six. A Cincinnati girl could tell them how, according to the Enquirer.

She does not yet go to school, but is taught by her mother at home. The other night her father was hearing her spell. One word after another was successfully disposed of, and then he said: "Now, Annie, I am going to give you a hard one. If you spell it correctly I'll bring you some candy. How do you spell 'yesterday'?"

It was a hard one. Annie thought of the candy, and just then her eye caught the calendar hanging against the wall. Then she answered, with a smile of triumph: "Y-e-s-t-e-r-d-a-y, day, yesterday."

Peccability of the Mocking Bird. The most remarkable thing about a mocking bird is its way of laying out a range. In the autumn it goes south and establishes itself on a piece of ground that will yield berries and other food enough to last until the following spring. The tract is determined respecting boundaries with as much accuracy as a mining prospector would be staking out a claim. Perhaps it may be only fifty yards square, and it may have a length and breadth of as much as one hundred yards. The space depends mainly upon the food supply in sight, but the mocking bird is a great glutton and wants ten times the quantity that would be necessary to keep him alive. Having laid out his range, the owner will defend it with his life, and no other fruit-eating bird is allowed to enter it.

For your Protection.—Catarrh "Cures" or Tonics for Catarrh in liquid form to be taken internally, usually contain either Mercury or Iodine of Potassa, or both, which are injurious if too long taken. Catarrh is a local, not a blood disease, caused by sudden change to cold or damp weather. It starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat. Cold in the head causes excessive flow of mucus, and, if repeatedly neglected, the results of catarrh will follow: severe pain in the head, a roaring sound in the ears, bad breath, and oftentimes an offensive discharge. The remedy is to be taken quickly to allay inflammation and heal the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.
