

REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL TICKET.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, Of Ohio. For Vice President, GARRETT A. HOBART, Of New Jersey.

GEN. GEO. W. JONES, one of Iowa's first U. S. senators, died at Dubuque Wednesday.

THE Burns Times is now the property of Byrd Bros. of the Herald, of that place. Success to them.

THE Gazette is in receipt of the annual catalogue of the Weston school. Eastern Oregon is proud of her college—the only state institution of the kind east of the mountains.

This is how McKinley feels toward the American people, according to an eloquent supporter: "The glory of this country and the welfare of its people are the touchstone of his principles and his conduct."

IN a speech delivered at Atlantic, Iowa, on August 28, 1894, Mr. Bryan said: "I do not believe in stopping tariff reform until the last vestige of protection is eradicated from legislation."

IT is evident that there will be a very sharp fight and a bolt at St. Louis. The selection of Butler, of North Carolina, for temporary chairman, was a victory for the middle-of-the-road element who are opposed to the endorsement of Bryan.

IN a speech delivered at Atlantic, Ia., August 28, 1894, Wm. J. Bryan said that he did not believe in stopping tariff reform until the last vestige of protection is eradicated from legislation.

MR. BRYAN, in a burst of "eloquence" in the course of the speech that gave him the nomination, said protection had slain thousands. The Salem Statesman writes that that was what took off so many sheep in Eastern Oregon and Washington during the past three years?

THE democratic platform adopted at Chicago condemns the U. S. court, the highest law-interpreting body in the land; it goes back thirty years and reviews the old claim that federal authorities have no right to interfere in state matters; it demands a continuance of free trade.

THE American Protective Tariff League has just issued a new, revised and enlarged edition of that famous document "American Tariffs from Plymouth Rock to McKinley." This document comprises ninety-six pages and has been incorporated in the speeches of Hon. J. H. Gallinger, Senator from New Hampshire.

INSIGNIFICANT was the part played by Mr. Bryan in the two congresses in which he served, he will find that it was sufficient to stamp him as being unfitted for the presidency of the United States.

Convention News.

The populist national convention met at St. Louis last Wednesday, with Senator Butler, of North Carolina, as temporary chairman.

Yesterday it was wired that Sen. Allen, of Neb., was chosen permanent chairman and that the committee on platform elected Gen. J. B. Weaver as chairman of that committee.

An endorsement of Bryan under the circumstances is not what it was conceded to be several weeks ago.

Great Oaks From Little Acorns Grown. Is a line from the little old verse we used to recite in our schoolboy days. It has a forcible application to those small ailments which we are apt to disregard until they reach formidable proportions.

Up in Montana, Oregon horses are doing something for themselves.

Last Saturday at Anaconda Tampa won the six-furlong dash, while Paul Jones, the Heppner colt took in the boys on the five and one-half furlong race.

Last Monday at Butte—the first day's racing—Red S., Lee Caldwell's horse, won the half mile dash in 0:48 1/2, with Pin Ear, the Keeney animal, second.

Oregon racers are "pizen" most anywhere. They usually get their share of the purses.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair. Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's fair, Chicago.

Ben Brown left on yesterday morning in company with W. D. Huffman, for Baker City where he will take the cars for San Francisco.

I was nervous, tired, irritable and cross. Karl's Clover Root Tea has made me well and happy.

On last Tuesday evening the D. D. G. C., A. W. Patterson, of Doric Lodge, K. of P., duly installed the newly elected officers.

The officers installed were: Sterling Keithly, C. C.; E. G. Slocum, V. G.; Frank McFarland, Prelate; E. F. Voren, K. of R. & S.; J. J. Roberts, M. of E.; A. W. Patterson, M. of E.; Floyd Thomas, M. of A.; Ole Patterson, I. G. and E. B. Swinburne, O. G.

Time will not be allowed anyone after July 1st. All persons failing to pay by the 10th of each month hereafter will be out off.

OIL AMONG THE ORANGES.

Crude Petroleum in the Orchards of Los Angeles.

In a Moment of Desperation an Owner Begins to Bore, and the Result is Something Astonishing to Himself and Neighbors.

Indications of oil in and about Los Angeles have been apparent for years, and a few instances are on record of enthusiastic prospectors who sunk wells to the depth of from 100 to 200 feet, and actually succeeded in securing an occasional barrel of crude petroleum.

The first cable car line was built in Los Angeles in 1885, and it was naturally couched by investors generally that a piece of land close in on the cable line was about the biggest card in their pack.

At first a universal wave of indignation swept over the community which had in the passing years taken up its abode in this region. It was outrageous that oil factories of the people should be so violently assailed—their very hearth-stones invaded.

Then there was a great calm, which lasted exactly 24 hours, after which every adjacent property owner with $1,500 in hand or in sight began to prepare for boring.

Oil companies and oil exchanges are being organized and reorganized almost daily. Two pipe-lines are completed from the field to the railway tracks, one having a 32,000-barrel storage tank, and the other with a capacity of 35,000 barrels.

There are over 400 wells in actual operation today, and the drilling is progressing rapidly. What with the purchase of plants and the cost of piping the oil to the railroads, nearly $1,000,000 capital has already been invested in the industry.

As high as 300 barrels of oil have been pumped from a single well in 24 hours, although 100 barrels is considered an excellent daily average for the best producers.

The Brave Little Peccary. A Very Picky Fighter When He Is Angry Despite His Size.

Of the few American quadrupeds for which an intelligent hunter entertains a certain amount of respect, the colored peccary is one, says a writer in the Century.

This species has a very wide range, being found from the Red river of Arkansas as far south as Patuxent, in Texas.

Dr. E. R. Henlock, of Lone Rock, was among those who lost in the recent fire over there. He is out $1,500, his drug stock going up in the flames.

Effortful—Charles J. Booth, Olive-wood, Cal., says: "I have used Ayer's pills in my family for several years, and have always found them the most effectual in the relief of ailments arising from a disordered stomach, torpid liver, and constipated bowels."
