Judge Caples Speech.

The Gazette is glad that it has not the time nor space to give Judge Caples' speech, of last Saturday, in full. It was a grand effort.
Before the speaking began numerous representative gentlemen of this locality gathered onto the stage and occupied seats of honor during the address. It was noticed that among them were several democrats who will support McKinley this year.
The exercises began with the singing of a solo, by Miss Elise Bartholomew, which was liberally applauded. Hon. J. N. Brown, as chairman of the meeting, then presented Judge Caples in a few appropriate remarks. The judge talked about one hour and a half, and every word he uttered went straight home. It was a plea for better conditions, happy homes, a prosperous people. He said the money issue was not the real issue at all and that it should not have been brought into politics that it was pushed forward as forlorn hope of the populists. He urged the people to unite in the election of McKinley so that a protective tariff law might again be passed and that patriotism might once more reign. It was the hope of the American people, the speaker said.
The entire audience arose at the close of the speaking and sang as one person the patriotic hymn "America," after which Judge Caples proposed three cheers for McKinley which were given with a will, and a "tiger to boot."
Judge Caples' address made votes for McKinley in Morrow county. It strengthened the weak brothers and gave fresh courage to the "old vets."

Can't Eat
This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relieve. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

A PLAIN STATEMENT.
The following is an excerpt from a speech delivered by Senator Mitchell at Vernonia, Columbia county, recently, which ought to set at rest all doubts as to the senator's position on the two great questions of the hour. The speech is too long to publish in full, but the portion here quoted contains a few thoughts worthy of serious consideration:
"It is entirely clear to you, my silver friend, as an advocate of independent bimetalism, that it cannot be maintained in this country in connection with the enforced policy of free trade, and when entirely divorced from the policy of protection? While I, personally, following the platform of the republican party in this state, upon which the legislature was elected which appointed me to my present term in the senate, have advocated and voted for independent bimetalism, and have done so earnestly and honestly, believing it could be maintained in connection with the policy of protection, I have always insisted in every speech that I have ever made upon the subject, that it must be coupled with a protective tariff, otherwise we could not have prosperity in this country. In other words, I have believed that any good effect that might come from free silver would be more than destroyed by the policy of free trade. And I am firm in the belief, and always have been, that without a proper policy of protection in this country, we can never have that degree of prosperity which rightfully belongs to us, whether we have bimetalism or not. Therefore, I believe now, as I always have believed and argued, that bimetalism in this country, whether secured through international agreement or otherwise, must be accompanied by a protective system, otherwise we will remain slaves to Great Britain and other foreign countries, both commercially and financially. While I have argued earnestly in the past in favor of independent bimetalism, I have never, as it seems to be supposed by some, opposed bimetalism through international agreement, but, on the contrary, I have always insisted that if such an agreement could be brought about, it would be in all respects a better and more satisfactory settlement of the question, and such is still my conviction. And therefore, for these reasons, in part, I appeal to my silver friends to stand by the republican ticket."

SHERIFF'S SALE.

McKinley Club Meeting.
On last Saturday evening the McKinley club, of Morrow county, held their weekly meeting at the opera house. The program was interesting. Messdms. J. N. Brown and F. K. Bartholomew an instrumental duet, and the campaign quartet sang one of their choicest selections.

The first speech of the evening was made by Hon. W. B. Ellis, of Heppner, congressman from this district. Mr. Ellis made a most excellent effort, being in the main a persuasive appeal to all republicans to unite and vote as one for the magnificent principles of the grand old party. Everyone was pleased with Mr. Ellis' effort and indeed it was worthy of commendation.
Judge Caples closed with a stirring address which kept the audience in good humor, and at the same time fired volley after volley of telling shots into the ranks of the opposition. He closed with his cheery tercio three cheers for McKinley, and the club in return gave three cheers for Judge Caples.

Surprise Party.
Quite a number of Miss Bertha Kinsman's young friends surprised her, at the residence of her father, Sam Kinsman, in South Heppner, on last Friday evening. The evening was passed pleasantly in games and social conversation, ending with an elegant lunch—not at all one of the unimportant features.

There were present: Gertrude Bishop, Earl McFarland, Edith Vaughan, Heppner Blackman, Elsie Ayers, Garfield Crawford, Bertha Matlock, Edie Kinsman, Bertha Kinsman, Ralph Bishop, Katie Blahm, Archie Matthews, Zoe Patterson and Oscar Borg.
Miss Bertha left on last evening's train for Portland where she will attend school this winter.

For Ladies Only.
The attention of the ladies of Heppner is called to the fact that Miss F. R. Smith, Dep. Sup. Com. of the Lady Maccoobees, will give a special talk to ladies only at the Old Fellows hall, in Heppner, on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 29th, at 3 o'clock. Free to all. A fire will be formed at the close of the meeting. The charter list is now being formed. If you have not given Mrs. Mitchell, the organizer, your name, do so at once. Call at room 21, Palace hotel.

Your Worst Enemy Writing.
With the rheumatism is an individual whom, if you have a Christian spirit, you would forgive. He is, no matter what his delinquencies, punished enough. Nothing short of Tophet could enhance his misery. Moreover, he is in serious peril. The disease is always prone to attack his heart and kill him instantaneously. As a means of curing this disease, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has the highest reputation and the most authoritative professional sanction. Its use in the preliminary stage of the complaint is the wisest precautionary measure rheumatic invalids can possibly adopt. The Bitters is also a remedy of the greatest utility in muscular and kidney trouble, dyspepsia and liver complaint, constipation and nervousness. It counteracts the effects of hardship and exposure in damp or inclement weather, and is a capital promoter of appetite and sleep. Give this Bitter remedy the persistent trial to which all medicines of standard reputation are entitled.

Sound Money.
A well known colored man named Old Hayden recently made a speech in Chicago as follows:
The white men who have talked before me have told you about sound money. I don't know much about money; ain't hardly seen none since the dimyrate cut down the tariff and the wages, and made all kinds of work scarce. But its Old Hayden's opinion that there ain't no money that isn't sound, unless its counterfeited. A greenback's sound money, and so's a silver dollar, and so's a five dollar gold piece. And the republican party made 'em sound. I don't care nothing about your currency sisk. What I care about is work; when there is plenty of work there is plenty of money—and it's sound money when you go to buy groceries and stuff with it. Miteh Mr. McKinley means protection; protection means plenty of work, plenty of money. They tell me that Old Hayden must turn dimyrate now, 'cause the republicans is for gold money. Well, I ain't seen no gold money for a long time; if they is going to pay me in gold it's all right—just as soon take gold as silver—but I can't get neither gold nor silver without work. The republican platform says, "Giv' Old Hayden work"—that's what it says. That's what protection means.
When Harrison was president and the McKinley bill was in force Old Hayden didn't have an idle minute. 'Fore he got up in the mornin' some one was sayin': "Hayden, can't you come and work for me today?" And the pay was in sound money—same money as is layin' idle in banks today instead of making itself useful in factories and stores. The work question is on top. Settle it and the money question settles itself. Giv' Old Hayden work to do, and he'll see that he gets money.

"It is immaterial, in my judgment, whether the sheep grower receives any benefit from the tariff or not... Whether he does or does not I am for free wool."—Extract from speech of William J. Bryan in the House of Representatives when the Wilson bill was under consideration.
