FIREMAN AND BRAKEMAN KILLED.

A Terrible Accident on the O. R. & N. Line Near Wallula.

From the E. O. At about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, the O. R. & N. freight train No. 21 was wrecked a few miles east of Wallula.

With the train running at full speed the engine, No. 135, struck a defective rail on a hill side grade and a moment later the whole train was in ruins and the lives of two men crushed out. Owing to the accident having taken place several miles from a telegraph office it is difficult to obtain positive information.

It is reported that the fireman, named Carpenter, and the brakeman, R. V. Williams, were killed. Carpenter was found crumpled to death between the engine and tender soon after the accident happened, but the body of Williams was not found for several hours.

Finally some one discovered a hand protruding from under the wreck surrounding the engine and after much difficulty poor Williams' mangled body was extracted from among the mass of iron and splinters.

Engineer Runke escaped without serious injury and is now being cared for at the Walla Walla hospital. Conductor Alford was not hurt.

The main line where the wreck occurred is blocked, the engine is wrecked at the foot of the embankment and eight or ten cars are crushed into a shapeless mass. The Spokane train made connection here instead of at Walla Walla last night and this morning. It is expected that the track will be cleared today and that the passenger train will run as usual and be on time.

Brakeman Carpenter leaves a wife and four small children. His body has been taken to LaGrande, where his family reside, and is not known here. Carpenter was a regular brakeman on the mountain division and was working extra a few days on the Washington division.

Business Letter After Election. Speaking of the political situation in Portland, says the E. O. Mayor Furnish (democrat), who returned from that city this morning, said: "I did not hear a man speak for Bryan or see a Bryan button while I was there. What I mean is that I did not recognize Bryan's picture on any of the buttons I saw, but saw hundreds of McKinley buttons and McKinley men. I took pains to get an expression of opinion from men I knew to be conservative and from what I learned I think McKinley's minimum majority for McKinley can be safely placed at 4000. Republicans are confident of carrying the state and of the general result.

"There is a decided improvement in business in the city of late, which is attributed to the prospect of McKinley's election. But many business people are still in suspense, and a feeling of uncertainty still holds them back. Just as soon as the returns come in and there no longer remains any doubt as to the election of a republican president, all kinds of business will start up with a rush. This is the way matters look to me, and my business in Portland was to ascertain so far as possible the outlook."

WHAT NEXT?

Working in a Few Cards for a Little Effect.

JUST AS "TRANSPARENT" AS DISHWATER.

A recent issue of the Portland Tribune, a campaign sheet, gave it out that H. W. Scott, of the Oregonian, had given up the fight and had admitted that Bryan would be elected. Absurd as this report was, it was taken greedily for the gospel truth and the dejected peopercats took fresh courage.

The Gazette wired Mr. Scott yesterday, not that it believed the idle report, but desired to have the complete denial for this issue. The Gazette's telegram was as follows: Hepper, Or., Oct. 29, '96—H. W. Scott, Portland Or.: Have you conceded election of Bryan? Ours PATTERSON. His answer came speedily and is decisive enough to suit anyone. Here it is: Portland, Or., Oct. 29.—O. Patterson, Hepper: No sir, I have not. I fully believe McKinley will be elected. Moreover, that he will carry Oregon. H. W. Scott.

HOW IS YOUR EYESIGHT? Dr. J. C. Lannerberg, Eye Specialist, Graduate of Spencer Ophthalmic College, of New York City, in Town—If Your Eyes Bother You, See Him. Dr. J. C. Lannerberg, of Butte, Montana, a graduate of Spencer Ophthalmic College, of New York, arrived Wednesday evening from the interior and will remain a few days. People having weak eyesight should not miss this opportunity to have their eyes properly examined and fitted. The Doctor has instruments with which he can examine every part of the interior of the eye, and can tell in an instant whether he can benefit you or not. Many children complain of pain in the eyes and feel unable to keep up with their classmates in school. They undoubtedly have trouble with their vision, which if corrected will benefit them for life. Judging from what the press say of him he must be master of his profession. Below we append a few clippings: Dr. J. C. Lannerberg, the celebrated oculist, will be in Prairie City Thursday, Oct. 15. The doctor has done much work for parties in Canyon City, Long Creek and Barne, and has been endorsed by all the leading physicians of these and other places as a thoroughly competent oculist. If your eyesight is defective let the doctor make an examination, it will cost you nothing.—Grant County News. Dr. J. C. Lannerberg, the eye specialist, will remain at Park City only a few days longer. Therefore we advise those desiring to have their eyes examined by a man qualified to do so, a man whose work at Park City during his stay here has been satisfactory to all, to call and see him at the Park City hotel. The eye is a delicate organ, and no one but a skillful oculist should be allowed to treat it.—Park City Patriot, Utah. Dr. J. C. Lannerberg, an eye specialist of noted ability, arrived in Eureka yesterday and is stopping at the Eureka hotel and will remain until Tuesday. He comes highly recommended from various places in this state, and will give satisfaction in his work. If you have any trouble with your eyes do not fail to call on him and have your eyes examined. Consultation free.—Eureka (Utah) Democrat.

IF TROUBLED WITH RHEUMATISM READ THIS. Annapolis, Md., Apr. 16, 1894—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. O. D. RENNIE. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of October, A. D., 1896. J. C. Booth, notary public for Oregon. HOFER'S WAGE ROLL.

Salem Typographical Union Analyzes It.

Seven Printers at Wages Worse Than Those Paid in Free-Silver China.

From the Salem Statesman. The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at the last meeting of Salem Typographical Union, No. 210, and will be issued in circular form for distribution to all of the labor organizations throughout Oregon: "Whereas, The Salem Typographical Union, No. 210, is a labor organization, united for the purpose of uplifting the intellectual, moral and pecuniary standard of the working classes, as law-abiding citizens; it is, therefore, the bounden duty of each and every member and members as a whole to further our interests by any legitimate action aiming to that end. Therefore, it is not only in harmony with good unionism, but it is our duty to resort to our rights of self-defense when all other efforts have failed to accomplish such purposes; and when an enemy to our cause and an antagonist to our principles seeks political preferment at the hands of the voters we, as organized people with the right to vote, should exercise that right in accordance to the welfare of our obligation; and "Whereas, We find such a man in E. Hofer, editor and proprietor of the Salem Capital Journal, and candidate for United States presidential elector on the Bryan-democratic ticket, to be voted for on the 3rd day of November, this year. For years Mr. Hofer has been a menace to labor and its union in this city, working his employees at starvation wages. "He had been petitioned many times to grant this Union some concessions, but without avail, until in the year 1891 his office was declared "unfair," and again in 1895, in the month of March, for the last time. A boycott was then ordered by the union, and the following notice printed in the Statesman of April 1 by the secretary: "To Business Men—By order of Capital Typographical Union, No. 210, the following are the 'fair' printing offices in the city of Salem: State, E. M. Waiter, R. E. Moore & Co., and the Statesman. All other offices are 'unfair.' W. D. Torrey, secretary."

"On the following day, April 2, the Capital Journal published the above notice at the head of a half column of abuse, denouncing labor unions and their methods. Editorially were several paragraphs devoted to the members of this union, to-wit: "The dearestly un-American method of dictating to business men whom they shall employ and whom they shall do business with is played out and ought to be smashed here in Salem as it has been everywhere. 'A few cigarette-smoking blatherers cannot dictate to the business men of this city who they may or may not order printing of.' Men who cannot run their own business have no right to dictate to others how they shall run theirs.' It remains to be seen whether a few labor agitators can hold up the town."

"In the face of all this Mr. Hofer has and is now stamping the state declaring that he is the friend of the farming and laboring classes, while one week ago he discharged a typesetter with a family that he was paying $6 a week and hired two in his stead, paying one $3.50 per week and the other $1.50. He said he did it to 'cut down expenses'—$1 per week. Three more typesetters he pays $4 each per week, who have worked years at the business; another $1 a week and his pressman $3 per week, making a total of $21 per week for seven people, an average of $3 per week, or a far less than the wages for one man. His foreman is a 'rat' and receives $10 per week. And yet Mr. Hofer says that he is the work- ingman's friend. The sweat shops of New York cannot be worse. His employees are all poor people and depend upon their wages for their bread. One young woman keeps herself and aged mother upon $4 per week and a man on 1 his wife subsist on $3.50 per week. These are truths on record; therefore, be it resolved: That we denounce such damnable oppression of the poor laborer and refuse to support any man that is responsible for it. We, therefore, ask the laboring classes and unions to join with us in the defeat of Mr. Hofer for presidential elector.
