THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS

Monthly Illustrated. Edited by ALBERT SORW. HIS magazine is, in its contributions and departmental features, what its readers, who include the most noted names of the English-speaking world, are pleased to call "absolutely up to date," "thoroughly abreast of the times," "invaluable," and "indispensable."

YANKEE ENTERPRISE NEEDED.

Good Field in Central America for American Pluck and Ingenuity. Taken as a whole, Central America offers a fair field for foreign enterprise, says the North American Review.

CONSCIENCE HIS TYRANT.

Woe of a Young Man Who Always Followed His Promises. There was an anxious, doubtful look on the young fellow's face as he paced up and down the aisle in a Broadway theatre.

ST. MARK'S.

Sentiments Inspired by an Old Church—Effect of Fugue Music. Any old and beautiful church give us all that is most moving and noblest—organism, beauty, absence of all things momentary and worthless, exclusion of grossness, of brute utility and mean compromise, equality of all men before God.

THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

Reason Why It Is Becoming the Universal Tongue. "Everywhere in the United States," Father Chiquiquy says, "the children of French Canadians, as soon as they acquire the English language at school, speak up the use of French, except to give to their mothers. By this procedure the French must rapidly disappear.

OLD SOLDIERS TROOP OUT.

Germany is fast turning out its old soldiers, 33 having been forced to retire within a year, which beats the record. The average age of a brigadier commander is 53 years, so 37 in the French army, where the average age of all ranks is higher than in the German.

Canada's New Man.

Peter Broussot, of Belle River, Can., distinguished himself some time ago by carrying off prizes at the county fair for embroidery, crochets, beadwork, etc.

Calve Praises America.

Mrs. Calve is so loyal to the American when she is in Paris, that she goes to her when she is in New York, says Harper's Weekly. She has been talking to a Parisian reporter about E. Lamerique, and avers that it is an enchanted and dreamlike country, to which, if she were not French, she would wish to belong.

CAUGHT UP WITH THE HERD.

Southern Railway Conductor's Apt Retort to an Impudent Passenger. Southern railroads have a reputation for slow travel, and in some cases it is well merited. A western traveling man, says Harper's Round Table, making a trip on these lines suffered a great deal of annoyance from this particular fault, but up to the time of the following incident he had enjoyed himself immensely.

A GREAT DINNER.

Because Enjoyed by a Great Quartette—They Are Still Alive. The greatest dinner that I ever sat down to, says Waterson in the Courier-Journal, consisted of a leg of mutton, dressed with mustard, a bit of hot wheat bread, and some fresh butter, with half a jug of fine whisky to wash it down.

NO AUTOGRAPHS FOR HER.

Servant Girl Had No Use for the Check She Received. A certain family, whose home is in the suburbs of London, have in their employ, says Amusing Journal, a cook, whose ways are invariably so methodical and her cooking so near perfection that, were she to leave her present home, one-half of the mistresses in the district would be eager to secure her services.

A QUEER INCUBATOR.

One That is Used to Hatch Out Microbes for Experimental Purposes. A firm in Regent street, London, makes a business of hatching out artificial birds, chickens and the like, and the incubators adapted for their various purposes are lined up against the sides of the long room. They also take infants that are prematurely born and by keeping them in a certain and unvarying temperature, and giving them proper nourishment, develop them into healthy and lusty babies.
