

Strong Nerves

Nerves just as surely come from the Hood's Sarsaparilla as does the cure of scrofula, salt rheum, or other so-called blood diseases. This is simply because the blood affects the condition of all the bones, muscles and tissues. If it is impure it cannot properly sustain these parts. It made pure, rich and vitalized by Hood's Sarsaparilla, it carries health instead of disease, and repairs the worn nervous system as nothing else can. Thus nervous prostration, hysteria, neuralgia, heart palpitation, are cured by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Because it is the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion, etc.

Here and There.

Bring in that wood.
Get in and advertise.
Wood is moving at a much better price.
Frank Lee is here again looking after wool.
Pat Kilkenny was in town Tuesday last.
Carl Crow was in Heppner Tuesday last.
Let your light shine through the Gazette.
Joe Biber has returned from his vacation.
The Heppner Transfer Co., has wood for sale. 37-ft.
Geo. Lund got home Tuesday from Wyoming.
H. A. Cupper, of Monument, is over on business.
M. C. Fuqua was in from Eight Mile yesterday.
A Andrews was over from Alpine yesterday.
Tom Gillilan was in from Sand Hollow yesterday.
Morris Mack was over from Long Creek yesterday.
Jeff Hayes is over from Lone Rock. He says, "Hurrah for McKinley."
Drink the celebrated J. H. Cutter whiskey. On tap at Chris Borbers'.
John McMillan and son were in from the Lexington section on last Tuesday.
Gov. Lord has set apart the 20th day of November as a day of Thanksgiving.
Geo. French sold his wool yesterday at a fair figure for these times—about 6 cents.
S. J. Freeman, representing Eberig, Gunst & Co., of Portland, was in town yesterday.
You will find that you will be treated all right down at the Red Light saloon. Call on the boys.
E. Cambell, of Ridge, was here Wednesday. He is running two bands of sheep up in Idaho.
A man named Gordon has struck petroleum down in Douglas county, the first discovered in Oregon.
T. M. Hon J. B. Eddy, state railroad commissioner, accompanied by two lady friends, is visiting in the city.
Chas. Barrett is up waiting on Marsh White, Aivah Leach having had to return to his home at Lexington.
E. O. Tom Rhea, of Heppner, and W. M. Rudio, of Long Creek, are in the city, having come over from Heppner to look after some cattle business.
All accounts owing the Gazette, if not settled before Jan. 1st, will be put in the hands of a collector. The Gazette means business, that is all.
Good advice: Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Conser and Brook.
The M. E. church, South, will give a musical and literary entertainment at the opera house on Dec. 2nd. Please remember date and look for program later.
G. W. and A. E. McCreeley, of Washington, were here this week to buy sheep. None being for sale at what they considered good terms, they left for Grant county.
The Gazette must have more patrons for its space in order to live. This paper asks no charity but it does appeal to business men to wake up and do business once more.
Next Sunday being quarterly meeting occasion at the M. E. church, services will not be held at 11 a. m. in the M. E. church, South. Services in the evening at 7 o'clock.
Old Hatt and Charley Jones are associated together down at Charley's old place in the territorial business. Call on them and get your whiskers pushed in.
Mrs. Emma Carlock, sister of Harrison Cummings, of Hardman, arrived here on yesterday's train from California and was met by her brother, leaving for Hardman yesterday.
Rick Mathews is still at the old stand, next door to the post office, where he is prepared to do anything in his line, shaving, hair cutting, baths, etc., at popular prices.
Heppner had its novel election last Tuesday. John Rasmus hauled Bob Hynd in a wheelbarrow on Main street from one bank to the other. Rasmus bet on Hynd and lost.
T. M. Lane county seems to be in the best condition financially of any in the state. All her warrants issued prior to March 25, 1896, have been called in by the county treasurer.
E. O. Henry Blackwell, Ed Turk, Frank Rice and Archie Harris, of Long Creek and Hamilton, came in today with a bunch of beef cattle to be delivered here for shipment to the Sound.
Clyde Thompson, who is suffering from aberration, is out at his brother's, Walt Thompson, beyond Toll Book, where it is hoped he will recover. It is said that his difficulty is only temporary.

GOING TO WORK.

No Doubt About This—The Success of McKinley Gives All Confidence.

Special to The Walla Walla Union:

SEBASTIA, Mo., Nov. 9.—After working one-half of the force on half time for several months past, the Missouri Pacific shops here today put a full force of men to work on full time.

Bristol, Conn., Nov. 9.—The business revival is felt here and the most notable instance of it is found at the works of the Bristol Brass & Clock company. Beginning tonight, the factory will run over time.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 9.—The big mills of Cheney Bros. began a full-time schedule today. The works have been running at reduced time for more than three years. The exchange affects 2500 employees.

Piqua, O., Nov. 9.—The corrugating works, rolling mill, Snyder-Bentwood works and the Orr lined mill started today, giving employment to 500 men. The American strawboard works will start as soon as repairs are made.

Effect of the Election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The Tribune prints a list of 285 mills and factories which resumed business since November 3, giving employment to 155,495 men.

More go to Work

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 11.—The Staley plow works, which have been idle for two months, have resumed operations with 75 of the 200 employees at work. The Washburn railroad shops, which have been running with half force, began with the full force this week. Charles Ridgeley, president of the Springfield Iron Co., states that it is very indefinite when the rolling mills, which give employment to 600 to 800 men, and which closed May 1, will again open. The watch factory, which has only employed 150 hands for some time, will not increase the force for some time at least.

Ed. R. Bishop, successor to the McFarland Mercantile Co., is still on deck, giving great bargains in all lines. The stock must be closed out, and it is surprising how cheap things are. Call on them. Frank McFarland, salesman.

The Black Butte mine in Fox valley, Grant county, will soon be yielding plenty of the yellow stuff. Mr. John Gagen, the proprietor, has a big mill in operation which it is said will save all of the gold.

Complete returns have been received from all counties in Oregon, except Curry, Grant and Harney. The figures are: McKinley, 48,675; Bryan, 46,340, or a plurality of 2235 for McKinley.

An exchange notes the fact that the state of Oregon in 1890 cast 78401 votes. Its vote this year of 1896 is just about 95,000. Eight years ago it was 60,614, and twelve years ago it was 52,682.

Saturday night, October 31, William Spitzer committed suicide in his room at the Central hotel, Mitchell says the Princeton Review. The job was successfully done with strychnine.

Rev. J. H. Miller, Baptist minister, of The Dalles, will begin a series of meetings at the Baptist church in this city this evening, continuing over Sunday. All are cordially invited.

You Can be Well

When your blood is pure, rich and nourishing for nerves and muscles. The blood is the vital fluid, and when it is poor, thin and impure you must either suffer from some distressing disease or you will easily fall a victim to sudden changes, exposure, or overwork. Keep your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla and be well.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache. 25 cents.

For Dyspepsia

and Liver complaint you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shilo's Vitaeizer. It never fails to cure. For sale by Wells & Warren.

Dance on Thanksgiving

Wattenberger & Ingraham will give a masquerade ball at the opera house on November 26, 1896—Thanksgiving evening. The best of music will be given and a good time guaranteed. Tickets $1.00 for gentlemen, and 50 cents for ladies without masques. Ladies masked, free. Suitable prizes will be awarded which will be on exhibition at H. E. Warren's at an early date. Those who are masked must leave their respective names and characters represented with the doorkeeper. This rule will be rigidly enforced.

THE JOLLIFICATION.

"Hurrah for McKinley," "Boom," "Boom," "B-o-o-m," and kindred other rockets were in the air.

Tuesday night was the time set apart for the jollification of McKinley's supporters, and they did it nicely. Early in the evening the "tin can brigade" turned out with its usual enthusiasm—the smaller the boy the bigger the noise—reminding one of an immense number of charivaris, boiled down into one. Later on two immense bonfires on Main street lighted up the whole surroundings, while anvils and fireworks made noise enough, but not sufficient to drown the shouts of the multitude.

The Heppner band, composed entirely of ladies with the exception of the leader, Prof. Henry, rendered two selections on this occasion, and did exceedingly well, considering that they are a new organization, having had but little practice and all novices except the professor. This was followed by short addresses, after which the crowd dispersed to their respective homes.

Heppner isn't the metropolis of Eastern Oregon but it ranks first of its class and is willing to meet all comers in Oregon or elsewhere, in the celebration of important events, or anything else.

Surveys On Edge

I was nervous, tired, irritable and cross. Kaff's Cherry Root Tea has made me well and happy. Max E. B. Womack, For sale by Wells & Warren.

M. E. Church Services.

The first quarterly meeting of this conference year will be held at the M. E. church Nov. 14 and 15. Rev. Robert Warner, the new preaching elder, will preach Saturday evening and twice on Sunday. Communion services Sunday at 11 o'clock. The occasion will be one of interest and profit. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Are You Made

Miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shilo's Vitaeizer is a positive cure. For sale by Wells & Warren.

THE WHEAT BOOM.

The Pendleton Paper Talks About the Local Crop and the Price—Still Going up.

Probably 15th of the county's crop remains unsold, so said a gentleman well versed in wheat this morning. Tuesday the price for No. 1 was from 63 to 67, today about the same. The Portland review at the close of business Tuesday evening was:

Portland, Nov. 10.—Close of business.—The wheat market has a firm tone in sympathy with the East. Liverpool prices are the turn dealer. Walla Walla in round lots was quoted at 80 cents and valley at 82 1/2 to 83, with many holders asking more. But cargo lots have not advanced since yesterday and our quotations are full value for export.

The East had a strong opening, followed by higher prices later on and closing within 1/2 of the top. Chicago December sold up to 84 1/2 and closed 2 3/4 cents dearer for December and 2 cents for May. San Francisco closed 4 cents per cental over yesterday.

Gossip news reported heavy foreign buying, nearly 2 pence in advance in futures at Liverpool, bullish news from Argentina and doubts about the reported raise in India.

Receipts at Eastern and Northwestern points are falling off. Bradstreet's world's visible supply statement indicates an increase for the week of 3,300,000 bushels.—E. O.

It is estimated that fully one-third of Morrow county's wheat crop remains unsold, and those who are thus fortunate will profit much thereby.

The price for No. 1 at Heppner is 65 to 67 cents. Other cereals have advanced in proportion. Hops are also a good figure.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Conser & Brock.

WHEN SOVEREIGNS CONFER.

Great Aid Made on the Occasions of Royal Meetings in Europe.

The innumerable banquets which are offered to the royal personages on every occasion are exact emblems of the many valuable and pleasant days which are, at their instigation and by their command, wasted in senseless formula, say Ouida in the Forum. Once, when costume was beautiful, pageantry was so also, and ceremonial was so also; but now both are unsightly and grotesque. Two bearded men in helmets, or caps, kiss each other on a railway footboard; old ladies in waterproof cloaks toddle through two lines of policemen; a fat gentleman, with a round hat, with a cigar in his mouth, walks over a piece of red carpet, nodding to a bending human hedge of supple spines; faces beam unweary, through inside the station door cheer, they know not why, troops are massed in readiness, for nowhere are these personages safe from attempts upon their lives; the whole thing is unlovely, absurd, anomalous, a caricature of what was once both intelligible and respectable, but in which there is no longer either prestige or symbolism. Without dignity in its object loyalty is a mere hollow bundle of worn-out robes, and dignity perishes at the scream of the railway whistle.

FOSSILS IN THE BAD LANDS.

Discoveries Recently Made in South Dakota by Prof. Todd.

There was brought to this place a few days ago the strangest collection of bones and petrifications that one could wish to see, says a Hermonian (S. D.) letter to the New York Sun. It was sent by the party of scientists under Prof. Todd, state geologist, who have been at work in the Bad Lands for some weeks and last week found a bill of tufa and volcanic ash which at intervals quakes and shakes. They have been for some time in the section between Wounded Knee creek and Battle creek, near the scene of the Pine Ridge affairs with the Sioux some years ago.

They have found quantities of the fossilized remains of turtles, with shells from two to three feet in diameter, and of the brontothorium, a hoglike animal from 12 to 14 feet in length, as well as the creodon, a prehistoric animal whose appearance was that of a sheep.

The water in the region is saturated with clay, held in solution, and it remains indefinitely without settling, giving the water the color and consistency of cream. This has been the cause of great suffering among the geologists, as it has been almost impossible to get water fit to drink. The light colored clay water composing the surface of the country are nearly all wet, and are so slippery that it is like walking up an incline of smooth ice to climb them.

A Pioneer Dead.

J. M. Hamer, a pioneer resident of Eastern Oregon, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. French, near Vinson, on November 7th. He had been an invalid for five or six years.

Mr. Hamer was born in Indiana July 21, 1830, being at the time of his death 66 years, 3 months and 14 days old. He crossed the plains to Oregon in 1861, settling in Morrow county where he has resided ever since. Of his children two daughters are living, Mrs. J. H. French, and Mrs. C. H. Gale, also an adopted daughter, Miss Jessie Hamer.

Mr. Hamer was well known to the residents of Heppner, who express their sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying its foundation, the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address, F. J. Coney & Co. T. L. G. O. Sold by Druggists, Etc.

ABOUT THE SPOON.

The Fork Has Taken Its Place Wherever Possible.

The spoon is a time-honored utensil, but of late seems to be growing in disfavor except in its very proper kingdom of liquids. Perhaps its aristocratic standing has been a little injured by the mushroom crop of inartistic souvenir spoons, which are imposed by dealers to be the great incentive to travel. To eat with a spoon anything that can be eaten with a fork is distasteful to those who are sensitive to the niceties of life. Besides, it gives an air of elegance to one's table manners, and it is at the table that one exhibits most unconsciously one's breeding or the lack of it, says a writer in Illustrated American. It is a positive embarrassment to be given a spoon for eating some dish which one is accustomed to eating with a fork. If spoons and forks be laid for dessert—the spoon to be invariably of dessert size—there can be no opportunity for embarrassment.

While on the subject of spoons let us please for small ones for eggs served in a coque. Waiters at hotels have a reprehensible way of bringing one's eggs broken into the bottom of a tall glass or egg cup, tumbled together in an unappetizing fashion, all daintiness and beauty gone. Into this unattractive substance one is expected to throw salt, pepper, paprika, butter and any other condiments, and to eat voraciously. Contrast this with the perfect oval form of an unbroken egg, stood upright in a holder which conceals but little of its symmetry, the shell a pale biscuit color, and dull with unglazed freshness. The eater cracks off delicately the apex of the oval with a small spoon, gold bowled lest the sulphur mar its color on the moment. Milk white and creole yellow are the contents thus discovered, which are delicately sprinkled with salt and pepper and eaten little by little from the natural cup which holds them. This is the only way to eat a soft-boiled egg.—Philadelphia Press.

THE KAISER AND THE TRAMP.

William Gives a Vagabond Some Money and Good Advice.

An anecdote of the kaiser and the tramp has just appeared in Berlin papers, says the Pall Mall Gazette. Kaiser William was, it seems, lately staying at the Jagdschloss Hubertstock, near the Angermunde, and was one day shooting in the neighborhood. A tramp deserted him from afar, not knowing it was the emperor, accosted him with the usual German request for unterstutzung or financial propping up, and also wished to be directed as to the road to Angermunde. The kaiser complied with both requests, conversed with him at length as to his personal and professional views of life, and dismissed him with a wish for a pleasant end to his day's journey. The pleasant end of the kaiser's servant, who seemed to be of the Scotchman's opinion, that it was an awful like business for purloin the kaiser's trunk, imagined that the emperor had been insulted and telegraphed far and wide for the arrest of the pilgrim, with accompaniment of bonds, fetters, handcuffs, and so on. The wanderer was run to earth at Angermunde, when he learned several things that he did not know before—inter-alia, that he had been speaking with the kaiser and was guilty of high treason, anarchism and the like. Needless to say, he was speedily released by an impetuous telegram from the emperor, who ordered that he should be fed, comforted and have a free ticket to Cuxhaven, "where he told me he wanted to go."

HOW DUELS ARE STARTED.

"Moral Box on the Ear" Given in a Letter to an Insult.

Arthur Thiele, a young student at the high school of technology in Charlottenburg, near Berlin, has been sent to a fortress for nine months because he provoked and fought with Dr. Brockmann, says the New York Sun. Brockmann was Thiele's second in a sword duel, and in his comments on the meeting criticized severely one of Thiele's strokes. Thiele regarded the criticism as an insult. He challenged the doctor, but a court of honor decided the doctor was under no obligation to accept the challenge. This decision angered Thiele. He was determined to have a duel at any price. So he sat down and wrote what, to his German mind, was the most insulting letter he could think out. This letter reached its climax in the sentence: "You may regard yourself as morally boxed on the ear by the undersigned."

To Brockmann's German mind, too, this seemed an insult that could not be overlooked. Thus it came that early one morning Thiele and Brockmann found themselves ten paces apart in the Grunewald and shot at each other until Thiele fell with a dangerous wound in the abdomen. Thiele lingered for days between life and death, but after once taking a turn for the better, recovered rapidly. With nine months' rest in a Prussian fortress he will be fully restored to health.

Large and Small Books.

Near the city of Mandalay, Burmah, is to be found the largest book in the world, the famous Ruth Daw. It consists of 729 parts, in the shape of white marble plates. Each plate is protected by a temple of bricks. This enormous volume is written in Pali, and contains 275,259 stanzas. These stanzas form the religious code of the Buddhists. The Ruth Daw is not an ancient production. Buddhist piety prompted its preparation in this century. It was made by command of Mindomin, one of the last kings of Burmah. It is marked contrast with the Ruth Daw is a Konversation lexicon published in Berlin, which is the smallest book in the world. The volume is less than half a cubic inch in bulk, although it contains 175,000 words. A microscope specially prepared for the purpose is necessary to enable the reader to peruse this meager of a book.

No Reflection.

The facilities at the coming of age of the present Lord Hopetoun included a service at the parish church, which was filled with members of the great hope family and also with members of the hope clan. The feelings of the congregation thus composed can be imagined when the minister began his discourse with the words: "My brethren, the world is full of blasted hopes."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Some of small in an elephant is so delicate that when in a wild state it can scent an enemy at a distance of 1,000 yards.

THE KAISER AND THE TRAMP.

William Gives a Vagabond Some Money and Good Advice.

An anecdote of the kaiser and the tramp has just appeared in Berlin papers, says the Pall Mall Gazette. Kaiser William was, it seems, lately staying at the Jagdschloss Hubertstock, near the Angermunde, and was one day shooting in the neighborhood. A tramp deserted him from afar, not knowing it was the emperor, accosted him with the usual German request for unterstutzung or financial propping up, and also wished to be directed as to the road to Angermunde. The kaiser complied with both requests, conversed with him at length as to his personal and professional views of life, and dismissed him with a wish for a pleasant end to his day's journey. The pleasant end of the kaiser's servant, who seemed to be of the Scotchman's opinion, that it was an awful like business for purloin the kaiser's trunk, imagined that the emperor had been insulted and telegraphed far and wide for the arrest of the pilgrim, with accompaniment of bonds, fetters, handcuffs, and so on. The wanderer was run to earth at Angermunde, when he learned several things that he did not know before—inter-alia, that he had been speaking with the kaiser and was guilty of high treason, anarchism and the like. Needless to say, he was speedily released by an impetuous telegram from the emperor, who ordered that he should be fed, comforted and have a free ticket to Cuxhaven, "where he told me he wanted to go."

HOW DUELS ARE STARTED.

"Moral Box on the Ear" Given in a Letter to an Insult.

Arthur Thiele, a young student at the high school of technology in Charlottenburg, near Berlin, has been sent to a fortress for nine months because he provoked and fought with Dr. Brockmann, says the New York Sun. Brockmann was Thiele's second in a sword duel, and in his comments on the meeting criticized severely one of Thiele's strokes. Thiele regarded the criticism as an insult. He challenged the doctor, but a court of honor decided the doctor was under no obligation to accept the challenge. This decision angered Thiele. He was determined to have a duel at any price. So he sat down and wrote what, to his German mind, was the most insulting letter he could think out. This letter reached its climax in the sentence: "You may regard yourself as morally boxed on the ear by the undersigned."

To Brockmann's German mind, too, this seemed an insult that could not be overlooked. Thus it came that early one morning Thiele and Brockmann found themselves ten paces apart in the Grunewald and shot at each other until Thiele fell with a dangerous wound in the abdomen. Thiele lingered for days between life and death, but after once taking a turn for the better, recovered rapidly. With nine months' rest in a Prussian fortress he will be fully restored to health.

Large and Small Books.

Near the city of Mandalay, Burmah, is to be found the largest book in the world, the famous Ruth Daw. It consists of 729 parts, in the shape of white marble plates. Each plate is protected by a temple of bricks. This enormous volume is written in Pali, and contains 275,259 stanzas. These stanzas form the religious code of the Buddhists. The Ruth Daw is not an ancient production. Buddhist piety prompted its preparation in this century. It was made by command of Mindomin, one of the last kings of Burmah. It is marked contrast with the Ruth Daw is a Konversation lexicon published in Berlin, which is the smallest book in the world. The volume is less than half a cubic inch in bulk, although it contains 175,000 words. A microscope specially prepared for the purpose is necessary to enable the reader to peruse this meager of a book.

No Reflection.

The facilities at the coming of age of the present Lord Hopetoun included a service at the parish church, which was filled with members of the great hope family and also with members of the hope clan. The feelings of the congregation thus composed can be imagined when the minister began his discourse with the words: "My brethren, the world is full of blasted hopes."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Some of small in an elephant is so delicate that when in a wild state it can scent an enemy at a distance of 1,000 yards.

I WANT YOU TO UNDERSTAND THAT I'LL HAVE NOTHING BUT THE GENUINE BLACKWELL'S DURHAM!

You will find one coupon inside each two ounce bag and two coupons inside each four ounce bag of Blackwell's Durham. Buy a bag of this celebrated tobacco and read the coupon—which gives a list of valuable presents and how to get them.

Hotel Palace

.....HEPPNER, OREGON

Mrs. Julia Bradley, Prop.

Guests will find the best of accommodations in every respect.

Gilliam & Bisbee

We are not small men, lbs. We are small men, $s.

We are not the Largest Merchants in the World!

• • • • • But when the people of all the surrounding country are in need of • • • • • Hardware, Tinware, Crockeryware, Glassware, Wood and Willowware, Nails, Iron, Barbedwire, Cumberland Coal, Gas and Water Pipe, Pipe Fittings, Stoves and Ranges, Wagons, Hacks, Buggies, Wagon Material, Hardware, Axes, Hammers, Saws, Sledges, Wedges, Guns, Pistols, Cartridges and Ammunition, Mason Jars, Granite, Plows, Harrows, Rakes, Mowers, Tubs, Wash Boilers and Boards, Sheet Iron, Zinc, etc., etc.

Should call and Examine our Goods and Get Prices. We have Good Goods at Fair Prices, and Cheap John Goods at Cheap John Prices.

GILLIAM & BISBEE,

MAIN STREET - HEPPNER, OREGON

16 to 1.

Do you know what this means? This, that there are sixteen reasons why you should buy your Groceries, Supplies and Gents' Furnishings at for every one objection made against it. This should decide the matter. It does. People want fresh goods, neat goods, good goods for the smallest amount of money. Buy the best when you can get it at the same figure paid for an inferior article.

T. R. HOWARD'S

HOWARD'S IS THE PLACE.

Old Stand, Main Street, near Bob Krick's.

THE PALACE HOTEL BAR,

J. C. BORCHERS, Prop.

Keeps the Finest Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

NO GRIPE

WITH PRENTISS RECTIFYING PILLS!

You're BOUND to Take 'Em.

Leaves No Constipation.

Cures it, as well as all Biliousness, Sick Headache and Malaria. The only comfortable pill in the world. Sold by all druggists or sent by mail on receipt of price, 25 cents per box. PRENTISS MEDICAL CO., San Francisco, Cal.

A NEW DEAL!

SPRAY & PROFIT

Now Have Charge of the

Where you can get a First-Class Meal at Living Rates.

CITY HOTEL,

Good Rooms and Excellent Service

The GAZETTE, $2.50 A Year for CASH.