

18 DECEMBER 96

Calendar for December 1896 showing days of the week and dates.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The recent message of President Cleveland is one of the ablest, if not the best, that ever emanated from his hand.

His introductory is peculiar, as it hints that the termination of the recent political battle was satisfactory to him.

The president then perpetrates a huge joke by alluding to "brevity" to "avoid tiresome narration."

Since 1879, the year that specie payment was resumed, there has been no scare to create any "endless chain" until the Cleveland administration came into power.

The Cuban question is handled carefully, with due regard to the rights of all.

THE senate is preparing the way for an international agreement on the question of silver.

It is evident that the Dingley bill cannot be passed.

DR. RICHARDSON was chosen mayor of Salem, while W. F. Furnish was "vindicated" by being elected to a similar position.

Spanish students say the names of the two Cuban leaders are pronounced Homayth (Gomez) and Mathay, (Maceo) with the "h" of the first syllable like that in "far" and the stress on the second syllable.

son tariff law in a sort of a perfunctory manner, the bill that he refused to sign on account of its "perfidy and dishonor."

In regard to financial legislation, the president referred to the so-called "endless chain," created originally through the exigencies of war.

"In considering projects for the retirement of United States notes and treasury notes issued under the law of 1890, I am of the opinion that we have placed too much stress upon the danger of contracting the currency and have calculated too little upon the gold that would be added to our circulation if invited to us by better and safer financial methods.

The beginning of the New Year will have a welcome usher in the shape of a fresh Almanac, descriptive of the origin, nature and uses of the national tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4, 1896.—Senator Sherman with characteristic promptness and bluntness put his foot down on the sensational stories saying that he had made a deal with President-elect McKinley, Governor Bushnell and Chairman Hanna, whereby he was to resign from the senate to become secretary of state and Governor Bushnell was to appoint Mr. Hanna to succeed him in the senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4, 1896.—Senator Sherman with characteristic promptness and bluntness put his foot down on the sensational stories saying that he had made a deal with President-elect McKinley, Governor Bushnell and Chairman Hanna, whereby he was to resign from the senate to become secretary of state and Governor Bushnell was to appoint Mr. Hanna to succeed him in the senate.

MITCHELL need have no fears as to his re-election. He will have a walkover.

A PLAGUE in India is killing hundreds. Eight hundred have perished so far.

PRESIDENT CHEERMAN, of Liberia, died on Nov. 11th. He is a native of Liberia.

QUEEN "LIL," of Hawaii, that is the queen that was, is visiting America on a pleasure trip.

THE appearance of snow, or Arctic owls, in Oregon is said by some to indicate a hard winter ahead.

CULLUM, of Illinois, made a ringing speech on the Cuban question yesterday. He says Spain is the prince of robbers.

It is evident that the Dingley bill cannot be passed. The democrats do not want it, as well as a number of republicans. If passed the president would veto it.

DR. RICHARDSON was chosen mayor of Salem, while W. F. Furnish was "vindicated" by being elected to a similar position and as his own successor, up at Pendleton.

form adopted at St. Louis. Those absent on this account were Dubois, Pettigrew, Mantle, Cannon, Squire and Teller.

FITZSIMMONS has sued Sharkey for the $10,000 purse, and according to the evidence he ought to have it. "Fitz" will prove clearly that he is the victim of a conspiracy.

It is not difficult to understand that Eastern Oregon has the right to ask for the speakership of the next house of representatives.

A Welcome Usher of '97. The beginning of the New Year will have a welcome usher in the shape of a fresh Almanac, descriptive of the origin, nature and uses of the national tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

who has been recommended for the position by Colonel Parker, the District of Columbia member of the republican national committee, but whoever he appoints will have the cordial support of the people of Washington regardless of party.

THE True Remedy. W. M. Repine, editor Tekilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc."

WHAT OUR EXCHANGES SAY. Hon. John H. Mitchell will attend to his duties in Washington during the entire winter.

Hon. John H. Mitchell will attend to his duties in Washington during the entire winter. He will not come home to buy votes to re-elect himself, if he could buy them.

E. W. Bingham, of Portland, has drafted a registry law which in the form of a bill will come before the legislature. Mr. Bingham is the man who did more than any other man to secure the Australian ballot law for Oregon and a registry law from his hands is worthy of consideration.

Let the tariff tinkers remember that it required a year and a half to pass the McKinley bill and about as long to pass the Wilson bill. There is no precedent to warrant the idea that the proposed extra session of the fifty-fifth congress could pass and have in operation an ultra-protective tariff measure before next June.—Telegram.

The story of Maceo's death was spoiled by putting silk stockings on the corpse. Instead of being a daintily dressed warrior the man was—most likely is—a regular military Jeremiah Simpson.—Telegram.

If Maceo stays dead this time he will disappoint his friends and delight his enemies.—Telegram.

The editor of one of our exchanges encourages his delinquent subscribers to use less tobacco and not drink so much whisky until they pay what they owe him, and adds that they should lose no time in doing so, as the hog cholera is liable to strike that section any time.

A story, which is too good to keep, is told of a lady teacher of this county or some other county, or somewhere, who, having an inordinate dread of contagious diseases, sent a little girl home because she said her mother was sick. The next day the child presented herself at school with her finger in her mouth and little hat swinging by the string, and said: "We've got a little baby at our house, but mamma told me to tell you it isn't catching." The teacher blushed slightly, said she was glad of it, and told her pupil to take a seat.

H. W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian, is mentioned for secretary of the treasury. McKinley might seek further, but he can find no better qualified gentleman for this cabinet position than the editor of the leading paper of the Pacific coast. Certainly no other dozen men in the whole west have done more for the gold standard than Mr. Scott. An enthusiastic admirer declares that Scott is the brainiest editor in the United States.—Cotton Globe.

There ought to be no question as to Senator Mitchell's position on the money question. In his speech at McMinnville he quoted the St. Louis platform and said: "On this I stand and on this I have stood—bimetallism by international agreement." Could any words be more pronounced than these?—Cotton Globe.

Senator Patterson would, as we said some days ago, make a most excellent president of the upper branch of the Oregon legislature. He is the peer in all the qualities of a good presiding officer of any of the distinguished thirty-Salem Statesmen.

Hon. J. N. Brown, state representative from Morrow county, is a candidate for speaker of the house, and if that honor is given to an Eastern Oregon man Mr. Brown stands a very good show of getting it. He is a bright, energetic young man, and, in our opinion, is well qualified for the position to which he aspires.—Antelope Herald.

We learn from the Oregonian that Prof. W. A. Wetzel of Portland is a candidate for the position of reading clerk of the legislature. All who have a knowledge of Mr. Wetzel's qualifications, know him to be eminently fitted for the position to which he aspires and we feel sure that his hosts of friends throughout the state would be greatly pleased to hear of his success, which they fully anticipate.—Waco Observer.

Planting must be begun right, else no amount of cultivation or fertilizer can prevent the crop being a failure. The first step is the selection of the seed. Do not take any risks here. Get seeds that you can depend upon—seeds that are fresh, that have a reputation behind them. The most reliable seeds grown in this country are Ferry's Seeds. Wherever seeds are sown the name of D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., is a guarantee of quality and freshness. The greatest care and strictest caution are exercised in the growing, selection, packing and distribution of their seeds. Not only must they be fresh, but they must be true to name.

Are You Made Miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. For sale by Wells & Warren.

A Valuable Journal. The January number of Toilettes will be an excellent edition of that popular fashion magazine. Aside from all of its splendid features as a journal of illustrations of fashions, what renders Toilettes even more useful to the vast majority of its purchasers is its line of 10 cent special patterns, which are invaluable in the home as well as to dress-makers, and the fact that it retails everywhere for only 25 cents per copy, or $2.00 for a twelve months' subscription, which makes it the most reasonable of all first class fashion magazines. All newsdealers and booksellers sell Toilettes. It is published at 126 West 23rd Street, New York.

THE Ills of Women. Constipation, causes more than half the ills of women. Karl's Clover Root, Tea is a pleasant cure for Constipation. For sale by Wells & Warren.
