

Sleep

Induced by the use of coca, opiate or narcotic compounds is bad, decidedly bad. They undermine health and shatter the constitution and the patient is steadily growing into a worse condition—often resulting in the terrible slavery and misery of the cocaine and opium habit. Sleep induced by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla does not perhaps come as quickly, but it comes more surely and more permanently through nature's great restoring and rejuvenating channel—purified, vitalized and enriched blood. This feeds the nerves with life-giving energy and builds up the system and constitution from the very foundation of all health and life—the blood—pure, rich, red blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists. $1. Hood's Pills, easy to take, easy to operate. 25 cents.

FOUND DEAD.
O. D. Logan Found Dead On Near Bob Dexter's—Probably the Result of a Debauch.

O. D. Logan, who is well known in Heppner, or was until his death, was found dead near Bob Dexter's, last Wednesday. Coroner Vaughan went out, and found that he had been in Heppner on New Year's Day, getting considerably intoxicated, going home late that night accompanied by Jack Komyne, who left him about a quarter of a mile from his house and near where he was found dead. He was lying on his back and must have passed away peacefully from the appearance of the body which was in good condition. Jack McKenzie and Bob Dexter both gave in testimony.

The jury composed of J. A. Tolbert, H. C. Hanly, Harry Phillips, Joe Foster, Ed. Templeton and W. F. Potter, gave in a verdict that deceased came to his death from intoxication and exposure.

Deceased leaves a wife and several small children in destitute circumstances. He is said to have come of a good family, and his wife is a most estimable lady. His arch enemy was drunk and it caused his untimely end. The remains were interred yesterday in the Heppner cemetery.

Kind people of Heppner gave the widow $25.00 yesterday, and this will not come amiss.

Mrs. Smith had been ill for some time and her death was not unexpected. She leaves four small children, and a husband, who is at present seriously ill.

Deceased was a splendid wife and mother, a good neighbor and a devoted Christian, having been a member of the M. E. church for years.

The bereavement falls heavily on Mr. Smith, being in a financial strait, sick himself and with four small children to care for. Kind citizens, through Mr. D. A. McAtee, contributed something over $30 to assist Mr. Smith in his hour of trouble.

Notes Hattie Recovered.
Along in last July or the first of August, young David White, who lives near Milton, Or., loaned one M. S. Owens, a brother-in-law of Ed. Hais, his saddle. It was a case of "He Never Came Back," and likewise the saddle. Not long ago Mr. White learned indirectly from his cousin at Moscow, where Owens is now located, that the latter had traded the saddle to A. A. Wren, of Heppner. It was recovered by Geo. Gray, and on last Tuesday White came in from Milton for his property.

White loaned Owens a bookskin pony at the same time he let him have the saddle. Not long ago he discovered the pony near home, but a larger and better horse was missing. White thinks that Owens took the horse and that it has gone the same as the saddle.

The offense committed is only petty larceny, or otherwise young Owens would get a term for it, but if it should prove that he has stolen White's horse he had better keep out of Morrow county.

THE SOCIAL GIRGLE

The installation of Doric lodge No. 20, K. of P., at their castle hall, in the lower bank building, on last Tuesday evening, was witnessed by a large number of knights, their families, and by a number of invited guests. The occasion will long be remembered by the members as one of the most successful of its kind ever enjoyed by the lodge and its friends, and these splendid social affairs of the "brave boys" have been numerous.

The program was a splendid one, contributed to by members of the order, assisted by Mr. Josef Mueller, Miss Oritenden and Mrs. H. W. Bartholomew, to whom the lodge feel much indebted for their most excellent efforts which were so enthusiastically received by those present.

Willow lodge No. 66, L. O. O. F., and San Souci R. D. L. No. 33, held a joint installation at their lodge room last Wednesday evening, none but members and their families being present, except those who were invited to assist in the musical part of the program. It was decidedly successful in every particular.

The program, an excellent one, was as follows: March of grand officers, music, Mrs. H. W. Bartholomew.

March of installing officers of Reb. Dea. aree lodge. Opening Ode, Messrs. Rasmus, Bartholomew, Whelstone and Mueller.

Installation of officers of Reb. Degree lodge. Supper.

This part of the entertainment was most enthusiastically received and is said to have been one of the finest spreads ever tendered Willow lodge by the wives of the members.

The remainder of the evening was spent pleasantly in social conversation, and in the enjoyment of an impromptu program furnished by Mr. Mueller and Mrs. Bartholomew.

COFFEE AND ROLLING PINS.

Sport Out of One Bad Box Into Another—Will Flee to the Hills.

The form of a gentleman wearing an abbreviated hirsute appendage on his chin and a deep concern for his safety right in the neighborhood of the whiskers, was seen last Saturday going down the street at a lively gait. Investigation proved that sport was on his way to a place of secrecy, a sort of rendezvous, where he proposed to fortify himself against any woman on earth who essays to do him up with a rolling pin. Sport was wise in thinking that something was about to drop.

Sport was born under an unlucky star. No sooner had he gotten out of the difficulty with Dick Neville, by making full and ample apology, until he is harassed by other and more formidable difficulties. What can be worse than to be beaten into insensibility with a potato-masher, or stabbed to death with a hat pin?

When a man borrows another man's collar to appear on dress parade at some social affair, he would rather not have the whole assemblage come around one by one and tell him to be careful not to soil it as the owner wanted to wear it next day. The sporting editor would feel just like Herb Bartholomew did about it.

The Honorable Order of Neverweasts propose to observe St. Patrick's Day by holding a "Tanner" banquet. The initiation of a few indiscreet souls will follow, and a grand time is expected. The committee on general arrangements, consisting of Pap Minor, Henry Heppner and J. B. Natter, are busily engaged in preparing for the event. Applications for membership can be secured of the secretary, Peter Borg.

Ed. Getchel is over from the Cass Matlock ranch, much improved in health. If his indisposition does not return sooner he may remain a week.

Some one shot at Eli Keeney's dog, little Joe, the other night, three times, and hit about seven rods to the left of him, striking over near Tom Howard's house. Such marksmanship is rarely ever seen, except from an old Allen revolver that never hit anything aimed at, and sometimes all six barrels would go off at once, and then there was no safe place in the neighborhood except behind it. The man who did the shooting is a disgrace to our neighborhood. Joe had just recovered from an experience with Eli's boot which is of such dimensions that its owner was early selected to go on Pap Minor's committee in the Neverweasts—that of male culture and corporal punishment.

Baby Roth was taken over to Pendleton last week to have her knee patched up. Count Leroy Desvoignes, otherwise "Yak," escorted her both ways. She will be on the turf, "for better or for worse," next season. She's a clipper.

Tom Buckley has received from Pendleton, a bar's license, good from Jan. 6, '97 to Jan. 6, '98. He desires to renew same next year.

GOES INSANE.

Julius Mabbert, a German who has been working for Ed. Day, came to town a few days ago and showed signs of insanity. However, he was examined and being quite rational at that time was released. Afterwards he took to the hills east of town and was not apprehended for two or three days, wandering around night and day waiting for money to be returned to him which he claims was stolen by some one who lives near Heppner.

Besides being crazy over his supposed loss of money, he is a victim of a troubled conscience. Last summer, while working for Billy Morrow, he concealed a blanket and this worries him considerably, though our county clerk has endeavored to assure him that he has been forgiven for the transgression.

Mabbert is in jail and awaits the return of Sheriff Matlock from the country who will convey him to the asylum.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

The members of the Heppner W. C. T. U., with its president, Mrs. Drew, desire to thank those ladies who so generously contributed to the box that was sent to the Refuge Home, Portland. The box was received and is properly acknowledged in the "White Ribbon," with contents enumerated.

It should be borne in mind that this home is a state institution, instead of a Portland affair, as some have seemed to think. It is doing a good work and as the managers invite visitors we should be glad if Heppner friends would call when they visit Portland.

The union expects to hold an interesting public service on Monday evening, January 25th. A musical and literary program will be rendered. Announcement as to place will appear later.

The union has secured headquarters for the winter in the "Mountain House" and the regular meetings will be held there at 2:30 on Wednesday.

Some special topic is discussed each meeting which adds to the interest. It is desired that many will take advantage of these occasions.
