MITCHELL IS CHOSEN.

At the meeting of the senatorial caucus last night at Salem Mr. Mitchell was chosen as senator to succeed himself. The caucus is a binding one and the vote was taken viva voce. Mitchell is chosen and will be elected on the first ballot.

The opposition to Mr. Mitchell, including Simon republicans, pops, dems and nondescripts have endeavored to defeat Mr. Mitchell by forcing Mr. Bourne's candidacy and endeavoring to prevent the organization of the house unless Mr. Bourne is chosen. By the selection of Davis, of Umatilla, a nondescript, as temporary chairman, Bourne is preventing the organization of the house, and in this he has the support of Simon.
