The republicans have a majority.

The right to organize the house belongs to them. If they surrender that right their constituents will hold them as incompetent if not cowardly. There is a vast difference between the policy of the republican party and that of the populist party and if the republicans —a fusion of uncertain ingredients, the men, who last summer spent time, money and effort to elect republicans, will not be satisfied with such surrender.

The noove is a fair statement of the house fight. The following question now presents itself: Do the constituents, at least of the shove of see 1s, and 80%, 100% with a bove is a fair statement of the course fight.
