HEITFIED has received the caucus nomination of the populists for senator of Idaho. This will probably defeat Dubois.

LYMAN J. GAGE, of Chicago, will probably be the next secretary of the treasury. This selection would give general satisfaction.

BRYAN, while down in Texas, made one of his characteristic speeches before the legislature of that state last Wednesday.

SENATOR SQUIRE is hardly a creditable figurehead in the Washington senatorial contest. He should withdraw and go home while his credit is good.

THE Salem Statesman has rightly earned the reputation of being the leading republican paper of Oregon. It has quite a list in Heppner. It deserves to have more readers.

THOSE representatives who are now daily answering blank as their names are called, will also find themselves blanks when they return to their constituents. It is safe to say that they will never have another opportunity of answering a roll call in the Oregon legislature.

THE Gazette believes that Senator John H. Mitchell will be elected to succeed himself next Wednesday. He cannot be beaten and if chosen will have no difficulty in being seated. The will of the people cannot be overridden.

THE Arlington Record's position in the matter of building a new court house is well taken. Gilliam county is reported to be out of debt and our neighbor's economical policy is certainly very commendable. Morrow county would be in much better condition at present if its officials for several years past had adopted this "get out of debt and stay out" policy.

The Greatest Monarch is a fit subject for pity if he is troubled with dyspepsia, while his poorest subject who digests properly may be envied by a prince thus afflicted. The dyspeptic of every clime and nation owe a debt of gratitude to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which rescues them from one of the most obnoxious and troublesome complaints against which medical skill is directed. On this continent, in Europe and the tropics, this sterling remedy is pre-eminently and justly popular, not only as a stomachic, but also as a means of preventing and curing malarial, rheumatic, kidney, bilious and nervous disorders. It improves appetite and sleep, hastens convalescence and the acquisition of vigor after exhausting maladies, and counteracts the infirmities of age. A wineglassful taken before retiring has a tendency to promote tranquil, health yielding sleep, a boon much coveted by nervous invalids.

WHAT OUR EXCHANGES SAY.

While the Oregonian is doubting Senator Mitchell's republicanism all republican papers outside of Portland that possess any ability, influence or standing, express the utmost confidence in Mr. Mitchell's republicanism and urge his re-election.—Hillsboro Hatchet.

What's the matter with these people, anyway? The enemies of Senator Mitchell name no person as his opponent. It is well known that Corbett is the man. It is stated that he will expend $100,000 to secure Mitchell's seat. No wonder the Scotts oppose Mr. Mitchell.—Portland Mercury.

Senator Mitchell does honor to Oregon in the halls of congress, and the people of Oregon desire to retain him there. Will the members of the legislature carry out the demands of their constituents and elect him, or will they allow themselves to be influenced by the Oregonian, and Corbett, a wealthy, superannuated political trickster, whose supped papers are keeping his name constantly before the legislature.—Portland Tribune.

But over and above all is the desire of the populists that no republican senator be chosen. It is not yet certain that the republicans can have control of the next U. S. senate, and the failure to elect here in Oregon may give the demagogues control of that body. Then so tariff legislation, no currency reform, but the same deficiency will pile up the debt. The free silver demagogues will still have excuses for howling. Bonaire is their tool in Oregon. It is a corrupt holdup all along the line. The worst is some individual republicans not clearly understanding the situation, are allowing themselves to be guided by corrupt leaders.—Hillsboro Independent.

THE Salem Statesman still continues to report fairly the news. It gives in a recent issue a little trap which the mongrels put up for the republicans but the latter refused to fall into it.

WHETHER the senate recognizes the house or not, this does not hinder the selection of a United States senator, such as Simon would like to see it result that way.

A CYCLING MINISTER'S EXPERIENCE.
THE RESULTS OF LONG, HARD RIDING.
FULLY 3,000 MILES ON HIS WHEEL.

He Makes Some Reflections on the Benefits of the Sport and tells of its Dangers.

The Rev. Wm. P. F. Ferguson, whose picture we give above, will not be unfamiliar to many readers. A young man, he has still had an extended experience as foreign missionary, teacher, editor, lecturer and pastor that has given him a wide acquaintance in many parts of the country.

In an interview a few days ago he said: "In the early summer of '94 I went upon a tour through Canada on my wheel. My route was from Utica to Cape Vincent thence by steamer to Kingston, and from there along the north shore of the lake to Toronto and around to Niagara Falls. I arrived at Cape Vincent at 5 o'clock, having ridden against a strong head wind all day. "After a delightful sail through the Thousand Islands, I stepped on shore in that quiet old city of Kingston. A slight shower had fallen and the streets were damp, so that wisdom would have dictated that I, leg-weary as I was, should have kept in doors, but so anxious was I to see the old city that I spent the whole evening in the streets. "Five o'clock the next morning brought a very unwelcome discovery. I was lame in both ankles and knees. The head wind and the damp streets had proved an unfortunate combination. I gave, however, little thought to it, supposing it would wear off in a few hours, and the first flush of sunlight saw me speeding out the splendid road that leads toward Napanee.

"Night overtook me at a little village near Port Hope, but found me still lame. I rested the next day, and the next, but it was too late; the mischief was done. I rode a good many miles during the rest of the season, but never a day and seldom a mile without pain. "The winter comes and I put away my wheel, saying 'now I shall get well,' but to my disappointment I grew worse. Some days my knees almost forbade walking and my ankles would not permit me to wear shoes. At times I suffered severe pain, so severe as to make study a practical impossibility, yet it must be understood that I concealed the condition of affairs as far as possible. "From being local the trouble began to spread slightly and my anxiety increased. I consulted two physicians and followed their excellent advice, but without result. So the winter passed. One day in March I happened to take in my hand a newspaper of the people of the state.—La Grande Gazette.

One is constrained to conclude that the Oregonian is animated by its old-time personal animosity toward Mr. Mitchell, rather than by any fear of his aiding free silver's cause.—Corvallis Gazette.

The democratic and populist members of the lower house who have been absenting themselves in order to prevent organization will find when they come to look for popular approval of their course that they will get the worst of it. Who will have to carry the blame? Those who are in their seats ready for business or those who are playing hide-and-seek? Besides this there is a growing suspicion that the matter of "wages or no wages" is being amply provided for from the elongated sacks of Corbett and Bonaire. Another matter that cannot be explained away is the fact that U'Lea, the populist leader of the house, is hob-nobbing with Joe Simon. This of itself is enough to condemn the course that the populists have taken.—LaGrande Chronicle.

Hood's Pills

Costs nothing to find out whether Schilling's Best are good enough for you.

Every woman has natural curiosity to see how other women furnish their homes. To satisfy this The Ladies' Home Journal will publish during the year interior photographs views of a hundred of the most artistic, cheerful and comfortable homes in America. These will show in detail the construction, fitting and furnishing of parlors, drawing-rooms, halls, reception, music, sitting, dining, bed and bath rooms, kitchen, porches, piazzas, etc. This unique series will be full of excellent ideas for every housekeeper or home-maker. It will present views of the interiors of houses of moderate cost, which are fitted and furnished with comparatively small expense.

Pills! Pills! Looking Pills.

Symptoms: Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by touching. It allowed to continue from one form which often bleed and alternate becoming very sore. Swayer's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals abrasion, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayer & Son, Philadelphia.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN WHITESBORO, OF WHICH REV. WM. FERGUSON IS PASTOR.

"No, that is not the only disease they cure. I personally know of a number of cures from other troubles, but I have needed them only for that, though it would be but fair to add that my general health has been better this summer than ever before in my life."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are sold in boxes (never in loose form, by the dozen or hundred) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 and may be had of all druggists or directly by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

McClure's Magazine for February will contain a new poem by Riald Kipling, illustrated by Oliver Herford. Since the publication of Kipling's new book of poems, "The Seven Seas," there is a special interest in him as a poet, and particularly at the post of his sea.

McClure's Magazine for February will have a paper by H. J. W. Dam, on "The Making of the Bible," giving a popular account of the principal manuscripts (with facsimiles) from which the Bible as we now have it is derived, and a description (with numerous illustrations) of the famous Oxford University Press, where Bibles are produced by the million, with the finest art ever achieved in book-making, and in every known tongue.
