It is being suggested that a reunion of Oregon Elks be held in Portland in the pear future, and, should it take place, it will prove a great success. Such an event will bring hundreds of visitors to Portland, and when they come the local Elks will see that all are well cared for. Whether such reunion will take place before the Minneapolis convention next July, has not been definitely settled, but, come when it may, it will prove a success.-Oregonian.

Heppner has beenin the possession of s band of jolly Elks today, and the pos ession will be undisputed throughout tonight and tomorrow, ending with the departure on the evening train of the delegation which came up from Portland.
