Sunday last was a great day for the First Christian church of Heppner, it being the time appointed for the dedicahouses of worship in the morning, their members attending the dedicatory services at the new church and their pastors, Rev E. P. Greene and Rev. C. R. Howard, assisting in conducting the ceremonies of the hour. Elder Wm. F. Cowden, of Tacoma, Wash., preached the discourse and it was a masterly effort. After this the church clerk made a statement of the cost of the new building, what had been paid in to the showing that in order to dedicate the house properly an indebtedness of $675 had to be provided for and this the congregation present was asked to make good by eash or time subscriptions.
