CATARRH

is a LOCAL DISEASE and is the result of colds and sudden climatic changes.
It can be cured by a pleasant remedy which is applied directly into the nostrils. Being quickly absorbed it gives relief at once.
Ely's Cream Balm is acknowledged to be the most thorough cure for Nasal Catarrh, Cold in Head and Hay Fever of all kinds. It opens and cleanses the nasal passage, relieves pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the sense of taste and smell. Price 50c. At Druggists or by mail, ELY BROTHERS, 26 Warren Street, New York

THE
NEW YORK WORLD
THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.
18 Pages a Week. 156 Pages a Year.

It stands first among "weekly" papers in size, frequency of publication and freshness, variety and reliability of contents. It is practically a daily at the low price of a weekly; and its vast list of subscribers, extending to every state and territory of the Union and foreign countries will vouch for the accuracy and fairness of its news columns.

It is splendidly illustrated and among its special features are a fine home page, exhaustive market reports, all the latest fashions for women and a long series of stories by the greatest living American and English authors.

CHICAGO
Milwaukee & St. Paul R'y Of Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway and its connections with all transcontinental lines and St. Paul and notes, and remember that its trains are lighted with electricity and heated by steam. Its equipment is superb. Elegant Buffet, Library, smoking and sleeping cars, with free reclining chairs. Each sleeping car berth has an electric reading lamp, and its dining cars are the best in the world.
Other lines are longer than this, but none are shorter, and no other offers the above luxurious accommodations. These are sufficient reasons for the popularity of "The Milwaukee." Compact ticket agents in every railroad office will give you further information, or address

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY.

A report showing the average wages of women servants in London is interesting to American housekeepers.
The general housework girl in London gets $20 a month, a cook about $20, a nurse $20 and a laundress $25.

—Dr. Chapman shows that the bob-links which nest west of the Rocky mountains do not migrate southward with the birds of that region, but retrace their steps and leave the United States by way of Florida, thus furnishing evidence of the gradual extension of range westward and of the stability of the routes of migration.
—Philadelphia's harbor is to be improved by the city of Philadelphia by the removal of certain rocks and other obstructions in the Delaware and Schuylkill rivers. The work will be done under the direction of the director of public works, and two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars is available for this purpose.

—That a plant appreciated by the cultivator in one country is but a weed in another, is exemplified by the sensitive plant. In our gardens few are more welcome. In India it is such a pest that it is regarded with as much disgust as the Canada thistle, horse nettle, or other notorious plants are by the American cultivator. It is considered one of the vilest weeds in India.

—At the Victoria Institute, London, it was stated that all naturalists now admit that evolution as a working hypothesis has, as yet, proved insufficient to account for man's place in nature. As regards the question of the "missing link" between man and the ape, it has been scientifically demonstrated that in no case had a so-called missing link proved to be other than a human being, with a lesser developed brain than usual.

A GIDDY PRINCESS.

The Slater of Italy's King Out a Caper on Wheels.

In Consequence of Which the Prolesome Lady is Placed Under the Ban of Royal Displeasure and Sent to Coventry.

Bicycles caused no end of bad blood —more senses than one, it is to be feared—before finally obtaining the right of citizenship among orthodox vehicles of the road; and, universal though they have now become among ordinary mortals, they have still a deal of up-hill work to accomplish before acquiring a status among the surroundings of royalty. Of course, a prince or king may bestride a "wheel," and do anything but break a record or his neck; but were a princess so far to forget what she owed to her house, her dignity and her long line of ancestors as to patronize this democratic means of locomotion, the whole civilized world would be expected to stand aghast at the desecration of royalty implied by the act. And this is the horrible deed that has just been announced by the telegraph, and has thrown Italian court circles into ceremonial convulsions.

The catastrophe, says a Rome correspondent of the London Telegraph, occurred in Turin, and the heroine and victim—the lady is both—is the pretty, accomplished young widow, the duchess of Stupinigi, who is staying at the castle of Stupinigi. Princess Maria Loizola is a sister-in-law of the present king of Italy, she having married in 1888 his brother, Prince Amadeo, duke of Aosta, who died in 1890. This lady, who is a Bonaparte, is not merely accomplished and pretty, but is brimful of life and fun, and takes a positive delight in tramping upon the right of way, and is, perhaps, the most popular of the royal party. The last of her frolics was executed on a bicycle made for her.

WALKING ONE THOUSAND MILES TO CHURCH.

The history of Canada, especially its early history, preserves the story of many a deed of heroism and devotion on the part of Christian missionaries who worked and perished among the Indians, but there are few stories which reflect so much credit on Indian piety as that published from Quebec. Montagnais and Eskimos came from the southern shore of Hudson straits to worship in the province of Quebec. This involved a tramp on foot of 1,000 miles.
No pilgrimage in the middle ages was ever made in circumstances of greater hardship. The citizen who is loath to walk a block to church along a smooth, dry pavement ought to think of these Indians plodding 1,000 miles through an inhospitable country, through forests, across rivers, mountains and lakes, to render a duty they owe to their religion.

From the Sands.
And apropos of sea bathing, an amusing incident happened on the beach one morning. The girls were drying their bathing suits while sitting in a Turquo on the sand, and one who was hatless and stockinged was holding a parasol over her to keep the sun from burning her bare legs and freezing her nose. With hardly a moment's warning it commenced to rain, and there was a gathering up of wraps and scampering for the bathhouses from all except the maid with the parasol. She danced out into the breakers, parasol and all, and was going to finish her bath in spite of the rain, but she wasn't going to get her "hair out of curl."

Sealy eruptions on the head, chapped hands and lips, cuts, bruises, scalds burns are quickly cured by DuWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is at present the article most used for cuts and it always cures them. Conser Brook.

THE CHRONICLE BUILDS WITH THE GREATEST PRACTICE IN THE UNITED STATES.
THE CHRONICLE has an equal on the Pacific Coast. It leads all in steady circulation and news.
THE CHRONICLE'S Telegraphic Reports are the latest and most reliable. Its Local News the fullest and aptest, and its Editorial from the best pens in the country.
THE CHRONICLE has always been, and always will be, the friend and champion of the people as against combinations, oligarchy, corporation, or oppression of any kind. It will be independent in everything—neutral in nothing.

The Atmosphere in Art.
Artists know, if others do not, that there are states of the atmosphere which soften outlines when they do not conceal them. That is one reason why they like the moist, silvery air of Holland and the gray effects so common in France. The air in this country, even on the coast, is brighter and drier, but occasionally, at this time of year, the air and sun seem to play tricks with the eye. On a recent day when the sun was overcast and the air chill and humid, giving an impression of thickness that would make objects invisible at a distance of two miles, it was noticed that from the upper windows of the tall office buildings the hills about Paterson and Navesink Highlands were as plainly to be seen as in the clearest October sunlight. But all detail was blurred, and the hills appeared as masses of gray-blue, as the painter likes to see them.

The old lady was right when she said, the child might die if they waited for the doctor. She saved the little one's life with a few drops of One Minute Cough Cure. She had to send it for every cough.
