Scaly eruptions on the head, chapped hands and lips, cuts, bruises, sores, burns are quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is at present the article most used for piles, and it always cures them. Conser & Brook.

Every business man in Heppner ought to advertise. It pays to do it.

For sale—A fine six-year-old Jack. Call on or write Ben Swaggart, Lexington, Or. 531 5

John Crisman and James Turner came in Sunday from Long Creek for merchandise.

A snow blockade in the Rocky mountains is interfering with trains on the Short Line.

Smith Burch says that last Saturday a lot of snow fell up at his place near "the Sadlle."

Allen McFerrin and J. H. Ridgeway are back from the valley. They prefer Eastern Oregon.

Rev. C. R. Howard and family will move into the new M. E. church parsonage to-morrow.

H. J. Strickfelen arrived from Pendleton this morning to take the position of foreman of the Gazette.

Mr. E. E. Hewitt and wife have moved into Mrs. Judy Mitchell's residence, corner of Canyon and Chase streets.

G. M. Clover, of San Francisco, representing the New Home Sewing Machine company, spent Saturday in this city.

Frank Holland's little girl, Mabel, was taken down to St. Vincent's hospital last week for treatment for some sort of hip disease.

Put a quarter in your pocket and don't spend it till you get down to Low Tillard's. Finest liquors and cigars. Near city hall.

A new invoice of the latest styles and patterns in spring and summer dress goods and trimmings just received by E. W. Rhea & Co.

The celebrated imported running stallion, Calphurnus, will stand the season in Heppner. For particulars call on W. O. Minor.

Roy Parsell, Dick Sheets and Paddy Ireland are down from Milton to shear the little lamblies, and perchance an old "pelter" now and then.

E. W. Rhea & Co. are awake and calling to do business. See their ad expecting attention to a fine display of boys' clothing in another column.

Orville Jones is the author of a very excellent school essay on "Cuba." It shows much hard study and research, and reflects credit upon the young man.

Dr. P. B. McSwords out his hand while performing an operation recently, and for some days suffered much therefrom. The injured member is now better.

The Gazette has interviewed a number of our sheepmen and all seem to be willing to meet the sheep-shearers in their demands for 6 cents per sheep. This is fair.

Gid Hatt and Charley Jones are associated together down at Charley's old place in the tonorial business. Call on them and get your whiskers pushed in.

Judge S. A. Lowell came in this morning from Pendleton to hold an adjourned session of court. The consideration of some equity matters was the occasion of this session.

The Gazette will take potatoes, apples, eggs or butter on subscription accounts. Any one owing this office can settle their accounts in this manner and can't do it too soon to suit us.

At Heppner's warehouse Phill Conn will pay the highest market price for full wool pelts, hides, furs, etc. Phill sells direct to Eastern buyers. See him before you sell your pelts.

Oregonian: A. L. Shulse, a student in the Portland university, will shortly go to San Francisco to attend the Cooper medical school. His father is the Rev. J. M. Shulse, of Jacksonville.

Hick Mathews and V. Gearty, under the firm name of Mathews & Gearty, are associated together in the barber business in the new stand, two doors south of the postoffice. They solicit a call.

The old lady was right when she said, the child might die if they waited for the doctor. She saved the little one's life with a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. She had used it for croup before. Conser & Brook.

Fred Rood, son of L. A. Rood, of Hillsboro, and nephews of Ed and Andy Rood, arrived Saturday from below. He will probably cross the trail with sheep.

Any reader of the Gazette who has copies of the issues of March 2nd and 5th will confer a great favor by leaving them at the Gazette office.

J. H. Bollenrook took charge recently of the Heppner Lone Rock stage line, and has procured a brand new wagon for it, something that was very badly needed.

Have you a baby? If you have, we are interested in you as we have a fine line of infant's footwear. Bring the little ones to E. W. Rhea & Co., and have them fitted out.

In last issue of the Gazette appears a political speech, two columns of which were on page two, and the remainder on page four, which fact should have been stated in that issue.

T. M.: Ed Wingate and Fred Wilson, our wanderers, arrived safely at San Francisco on their return from Honolulu, and expected to leave San Francisco on to night's train for home.

T. M.: The Portland Tribune will merge into a morning paper on April 15 and will take the press reports. The Tribune Publishing Co. has recently been reorganized, and has incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000.

Any lady desiring to purchase a sewing machine should call on J. W. Vaughan and examine his latest improved White machines. A happy combination of a writing desk and machine combined. Light, rapid and easy running.

The O. R. & N. Co. ought to look after the condition of the Heppner branch. The ties are fast becoming so rotten that travel over the line is attended with much danger. This is no "fairy story" for any employee of the road will verify what the Gazette says, if he cares to say anything at all about it.

Joe Luckman comes to the front with an ewe that is responsible for an increase of five perfect lambs, all living, or were at time of lambing. Joe vouches for the truth of his statement, and his well known reputation for truth and veracity makes it entirely unnecessary for further proofs. This is the most remarkable case on record.

Miss Anna Balsager, the efficient assistant principal of the Heppner school, is conducting a private school for the sixth grade only, and at the end of two months will have them prepared for the tenth grade next year. Miss Helen Myers and Mrs. Oney are each conducting a private school this spring, commencing their work yesterday.

H. V. Gates will present a proposition to the Commercial Club tomorrow night to establish a local telephone system here, says the Baker City correspondent of the Oregonian, charging $2 for stores and $150 for residences, provided 50 subscribers are guaranteed for the first year. The proposition is favorably looked upon by the business community.

A representative of the Gazette in company with Low Tillard, E. L. Freeland and J. J. Harris visited the Matlock farm last Sunday and were shown the horses now being trained for the season's races. Among them were Sinner, the four-year-old, belonging to Low Tillard, and Morrow, Henrietta and Nora, belonging to the Matlock brothers. All were looking well, especially Morrow and Sinner. After enjoying a bachelor's dinner, prepared by T. J. Matlock, the boys returned home.

The People Are Convinced
When they read the testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. They are written by honest men and women, and are plain, straightforward statements of facts. The people have confidence in Hood's Sarsaparilla because they know it actually and permanently cures, even when other medicines fail.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Easy and yet efficient.

"Ergone me" observed the man in spectacles "but I am a surgeon, and that is not where the liver is." Never you mind where the liver is," retorted the other. "If it was in his big toe or his left ear DeWitt's Little Early Risers would reach it and shake it for him. On that you can bet your six-lamps." Conser & Brook.

The old way of delivering messages by postboys compared with the modern telephone, illustrates the old tedious methods of "breaking" clogs compared with their almost instantaneous cure by One Minute Cough Cure. Conser & Brook.

The officers and directors of the Heppner Speed Association are hereby notified to meet at E. G. Sperry's club rooms on Saturday evening, April 3, for the purpose of making arrangements for a spring meet. Election of officers will also be in order at this time.

Mrs. John Jenkins has lately purchased one of the celebrated Newcomb Fly-Shuttle looms and is now prepared to do all kinds of carpet and rug weaving. Any one desiring first class work should call on her at her home on lower Main street. Low prices and all work guaranteed. 9-37

Americans are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oaktown, Ky., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and find it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels. "MOTHER GOOSE" PARTY.

Miss Fay Bartholomew Entertains a Number of Her Young Friends Last Saturday—Occasion of Her Eleventh Birthday.

On last Saturday Miss Fay Bartholomew provided an excellent entertainment for her many young friends, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Bartholomew, in this city, in the shape of a "Mother Goose" party, this being the eleventh anniversary of her birth. It is not necessary for the Gazette to say that they all had a good time. Miss Fay was assisted in her entertainment by the following, the respective characters appearing after each name:

Anna Hale, Bess; Essie Leezer, Elisabeth; Leola Campbell, Betsy; Nora Matlock, Elizabeth; Oscar Borg, Jack Sprat; Eva Bartholomew, Mrs. Jack Sprat; Zoe Patterson, Cinderella; Elsie Blackman, Simple Simon; Hattie Bartholomew, Fairy Godmother; Earl McFarland, King of Hearts; Gertrude Bishop, Queen of Hearts; Blanche Bedford, Little Miss Muffet; Mary McSwords, Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary; Leah Minor, Red Riding Hood; Willis Minor, Old Mother Hubbard; Willis Herrin, Bessie Brooks; Fannie Kirk, Old Woman in the Shoe; Rena Meadows, Daffy-Down-Dilly; Olin Hays, Little Tea-Wee; Elmer Wills, Old King Cole; Reuben Wills, Little Jack Horner; Etta Rogers and Nelson Bartholomew, Jack and Jill; Mamie Dunn, Carl Rhea, Bo-Peep and Boy Blue; Harold Dunn, Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son.

One of the features of the affair was an elegant lunch, participated in by all and relished as none but children can.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 720 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctorled for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Conser & Brook.

The length of life may be increased by lessening dangers. The majority of people die from lung troubles. These may be averted by promptly using One Minute Cough Cure. Conser & Brook.

W. AT OUR EXCHANGES SAY.

Hon. H. W. Corbett, our would-be senator, is still hanging on the ragged edge of a senatorial seat at Washington, but he is hanging on, that's all.—T. M.

Mr. Corbett's attorney is at Washington telling how that wicked minority in the Oregon legislature prevented the election of a United States senator, and now, on account of this outrage, our sovereignty is threatened to be deprived of its just and proper representation, vouchsafed to it by the federal constitution!!! The only way to prevent the consummation of this terrible injustice, threatened as the result of the awful work of that minority, is to elect this great and good man, who has kindly come to the front and cast himself into the breach to save the state he loves so well from the threatened interregnum, offering himself, pure and uncontaminated as a vestal virgin, and his services to keep the sacred fires of liberty burning on the altars of his commonwealth. This unselfish patriotism, this devotion to the cause of the people, of this great and good man, is enough to recall to earthly scenes the shades of the heroes of old. It is, in fact, enough to turn the heart of a grindstone, or to start tears, large as hens' eggs, trickling down the cheeks of a wooden Indian cigar sign. Let us weep, and, if we cannot pray, at least take up a collection.—Statesman.

Simon did not want Mitchell elected, U'Ren did not want to keep his pre-election pledges, so the actuator and the demagogue united their forces and held up the legislature. This is the reason in a nutshell why a union of the platoncrate and populists was brought about.—Oregon City Enterprise.

This is the way it looks down in Clackamas county, and it is correct as far as it goes. But it does not go far enough. There were wheels within wheels, motives open and within the sight of all men, and motives secret and hidden. It was a peculiar combination of circumstances and men, capable of a situation new to American states, not before experienced in all their history. It could not have been accomplished had any one of a dozen circumstances and things been wanting. The one of these of paramount importance was a man with plenty of money, and willing to furnish $50,000 to $100,000 of it.—Statesman.

And his name is H. W. Corbett.

Has it ever occurred to the editor of the Heppner Gazette that any fool can run a newspaper with money? It requires brains to run one without. Besides some folks, like the editor of the Gazette, sometimes imagine they are publishing a newspaper when they are simply turning the crank of an organ.—Portland Dispatch. [And this "do" settle it.—Ed.]

There are three men representing Oregon and the portion of the republican party belonging to this state back in Washington who will not ask for "moderate protection," who will never advocate an eight-cent duty on wool, when they have a prospect of getting a twelve-cent duty, and the maiden names of these men are McBride, Tongue and Ellis.—Salem Statesman.

After summarizing the result of the defeated attempted legislature, the Astoria Budget, fashionist, remarks: "Thus dies the nineteenth biennial session of the Oregon legislature, which will go down in history as a crowning disgrace to many who participated in it. The only members who escaped with honor are those who held to the Benson house and joint convention. The failure to carry the hold-up through with success will kill many political leaders. Joe Simon is seriously crippled and must give in to Senator Mitchell. Scott has played his last card with Simon as a partner. They must separate. Bourne, the wrecker, is dead as the leader of any party. Young, the arch traitor in the populist ditch, will be cast aside by his party. U'Ren who had an ambition to be Tom Tongue's successor, is irrevocably ruined, and he will be relegated to raising and growing prunes for the balance of life in Clackamas county. Holt and all the big populist guns have annihilated themselves by contamination with Simon republicans. In fact all the hold-ups are no more. It was a big fight stubbornly fought, expensive to the state."

A New Hampshire paper has recently published expressions of senators regarding their opinion of Hon. John H. Mitchell's ability as a man and senator. The great Simon-Bourne obstructionist sheet at Portland says they are only expressions of populists and democrats, and the "me too" organs throughout the state echo the cry. Yes sir! John Sherman, John M. Thurston, Oliver H. Platt, Wm. B. Allison, O. K. Davis, Eugene Hale, Wm. P. Frye, W. E. Chandler, M. S. Quay, and others of the list are all populists or democrats. It beats the deuce how these very truthful organs will prevaricate in order to cast odium upon a distinguished citizen of the state. But it is only in keeping with the course pursued by them for the past three months.—Transcript.
