LOCAL SQUIRES

See new ad. for E. J. Slocum. Geo. Gray is out receiving sheep this week.

Otto Frederick's little girl is on the sick list.

Tom Stannage is up from California to shear.

Charley Barnett, of Lexington, was in town on Friday last.

Mrs. C. Cate was in from her home in Sand Hollow Saturday.

Sidney Blumenthal went down to his Portland home Saturday.

Mrs. Eugene Matteson is suffering from an abscess on the neck.

L. Blumenthal arrived home from Portland on Wednesday of last week.

Book beer, book beer, book beer, at J. B. Natter's and E. G. Sperry's 38 41

Special sale of pocket knives and pipes at half price at the Orange Front.

Grandma Hagewood recently returned from California where she visited relatives.

Jas. Carly, John Kilkenny and Ed. McDavid were up from the "Sand" Friday last.

C. A. Rea has finished shearing for this season. His clip amounts to 95,000 pounds.

Grandpa Florence was down from his home on Willow creek Saturday last. He is 86 years of age.

Born—To the wife of I. L. Howard, on Little Butter creek, Friday, April 30th, an 8 pound girl.

An incipient blaze was discovered in T. B. Howard's, Sunday eve, just in time to prevent a serious fire.

Mrs. Dubois, sister of Mrs. John Jenkins, is very low at the latter's home. She will soon return to her home in Wisconsin.

Greens and vegetables, arriving daily at the Orange Front opposite City hotel corner Main and Willow streets. Prompt delivery to all parts of the city.

Ed. Bartlett's sorrel horse, recently purchased from Ben Swaggart, ran Jos. Jones' mare a quarter dash today at the track, Bartlett's horse winning.

If you want a good glass of genuine Book beer, call for the Hop Gold Book, made only by the Star brewers, Portland, Or. On draught at J. B. Natter's and E. G. Sperry's. 38-41

Geo. Swaggart made an assignment of his property on last Saturday, with Ed. B. Bishop as assignee. The liabilities are $12,000 and there seems to be enough property to pay that amount.

Antone Abrahamson, son of A. Abrahamson, of this place, was kicked in the month by a colt with which he was playing on last Saturday, losing most of his teeth. Antone has plenty of bad luck.

Mrs. Eva Brians, daughter of Mrs. B. F. Vaughan, has been selected as the valedictorian of the graduating class at Monmouth this year. It is an honor to be coveted, as it is the reward of merit and ability. Miss Brians stood the highest of twelve.

Through inadvertency, many local advertisers who pay only a weekly rate have been getting the benefit of the semi-weekly service. The Gazette must insist upon business principles and those who pay for a weekly ad, must expect that it will appear only once a week.

The Gazette does not question the honesty of any person, but it is compelled to insist upon the cash-in-advance plan of subscription, whether the subscriber be Cornelius Vanderbilt or the man who earns his bread by honest toil. We cannot run the paper on any other plan.

Mrs. John Jenkins has lately purchased one of the celebrated Newcomb Fly-Shuttle looms and is now prepared to do all kinds of carpet and rug weaving. Any one desiring first class work should call on her at her home on lower Main street. Low prices and all work guaranteed. 9-37

The all absorbing topic, the Cuban question, is agitating congress, but in Heppner the citizens are striving to ascertain how R. C. Wills, in Blackman's old stand, can offer such bargains in shoes, spring and summer dress goods.

Mr. Wills is making a specialty of these lines, but he will give you bargains in thousands of other articles. It will pay you to see R. C. Wills before placing your order. Mail orders a specialty. Don't forget the place.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old resident of that place: "Frank McAvoy, for many years in the employ of the L. N. & O. Ry. here, says: 'I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer—and never without it in my family. I consider it the best remedy of the kind manufactured. I take pleasure in recommending it.' It is a specific for all bowel disorders. For sale by Conser & Brock.

Smiles Irradiate the Countenance.

When those atrocious bodily troubles, chills and fever, dyspepsia, kidney or rheumatic disorders, yield, as they invariably do, to the benign action of Chamberlain's Stomach Bitters, a remedy of comprehensive use, pure in composition, unobjectionable to a delicate palate, and thorough in effects. Sick headaches, loss of appetite, flesh and sleep, nausea, heartburn, are among the physical annoyances obviated by the Bitters. They are in the nature of signals of distress displayed by a disordered stomach, liver and bowels, and disappear with the cause that produced them. But these signals should be heeded at once. Then the woe-begone look of chronic ill health will speedily disappear, and vigor and comfort restore a cheerful aspect to the face. That faithful index to the condition of the system never fails to wear a look of sunshine when the Bitters be used to dispel the cloud.

ONE NEW-YEAR'S.

Reception of a President that Wasn't Held in the White House.

"There was one New Year's reception held by the president in the city," said a local historian, "which was not held in the white house. Though the event is seldom referred to, it is a fact all the same. The reception I speak of, though the function then generally went by the name of levee, was given by President Madison on New Year's day, 1815, in the Octagon, at the corner of Eighth street and New York avenue. The British in 1814 having burned the white house, President Madison moved over to the Octagon house, which was owned by Col. John Tayloe. He spent over five months there. All who attended the levee have long since passed away, but it has been my good fortune in past years to have talked to several gentlemen who were present. They describe it as a very elegant affair. All the expenses of the levee were paid out of Col. Tayloe's pocket, that gentleman being enormously wealthy and liberal as well. His income was said to be at that time $75,000."

GREAT GIRL.

She Fleeces the Men at the Boarding House.

"Greatest girl at our boarding-house you ever saw," declared Quirkly, with a giggle, according to the Detroit Free Press. "Never says what you expect her to say, and you'd be disappointed if she did, after hearing her."

"Dry goods clerk sits opposite her and asked the other day if she really thought there were bargains in the matrimonial lottery. 'Of course there are,' she answered, with a laugh. 'I myself have been marked down from 35 to 25.'"

"Old bachelor that sits next to her at the table spilled his ice cream in her lap. She never screamed nor ran away, but effusively took him by the hand and congratulated him on the coolness of the entire proceeding."

"Dude boarder had the nerve to propose to her and she took half an hour explaining to him how it was all she could possibly do to support her mother and herself. When she thought of taking on any more obligations she would certainly have another talk with him. The chump went another telling it, proud as a turkey gobbler."

"Real estate fiend wanted to sell her a lot for twice what it was worth. She closed the deal by offering to take half his commission and give him a quit claim to the lot. He still scratches his head and looks at her from the corners of his eyes."

"Think of laying my own fortune at her feet. Haven't the slightest idea that she will accept and for that very reason am inclined to think that she will."

DOWN ON TOBACCO NOW.

He Went Up with It, However, When the Stock Rose.

"Nicotine," said the moralist, according to the Washington Star, "is a terrible drug."

"I sometimes think that it doesn't hurt a person who indulges in moderation," responded the Star reporter, who was smoking a cigar.

"That's the danger of it. It is the more pernicious because of its many insidious phases. If I had my way I'd abolish every leaf of tobacco from the markets. It's a constant temptation to waste, and I am thankful that I never squandered my resources in any such way."

"You never smoked?"

"Never."

"Nor chewed?"

"Certainly not."

"Nor used snuff?"

"The idea is preposterous!"

"I suppose you must have saved a great deal of money, then? These small expenses count up very rapidly. But, of course, a man must invest his money to get as comfortable an income as you appear to enjoy. A friend of mine was telling me about how you laid the foundation for your fortune. It was a small speculation, was it not?"

"Um—yes, it was."

"Would you mind telling me just how you managed it?"

"Why, you see, a friend of mine who knows all about the market gave me a tip and I bought some stock in the tobacco trust."

ON SLIPPERY STREETS.

The Only Way to Walk to Keep from Falling.

There are right and wrong ways to do most things, and walking on icy sidewalks is no exception to the rule, says the New York World. Many people follow the wrong method, and as a result they often make exhibitions of themselves more pleasing to the spectators than to the exhibitors. Falls are frequent in New York city during the winter. Some of them are absolutely dangerous and many are painful.

The dangers of slippery and icy pavements may be reduced to a minimum by using caution when walking. By going on tiptoe and keeping the heel of the shoe from striking the pavement until the foot is firmly in position slipping is avoided. If, on the contrary, you start with the heel and toe gait popular with pedestrians your heel will slip from under you
