On the Neck and Great Weakness Caused by Impure Blood—Was Constantly Growing Worse.

"When my son was 5 years old he was in very poor health and we could get nothing to relieve him. At the age of 7 years he began to complain of soreness on both sides of his neck and soon lumps began to gather on one side and grew to half the size of an egg. We then became more uneasy and began to doctor him for scrofula. He gradually grew worse, however, until at the age of twelve years we had lost all hope of his recovery. He became so weak he could sit up but a few minutes at a time. My wife saw Hood's Sarsaparilla recommended as a great blood purifier and we sent for a bottle. We began giving our boy the medicine according to directions and it was not long before we saw he was improving. He continued taking it until he was in very good health. He is now 13 years old and is well. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for all troubles caused by impure blood." S. M. STIVER, Grouse, Oregon.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Get only Hood's.

HELD IN LEXINGTON.

Session of Association of Congregational Churches—An Enthusiastic Meeting.

The fifth annual session of the mid-Columbia Association of the Congregational churches convened at Lexington early this month. An organization was effected by the election of the Rev. A. R. Olds, of Weston, moderator, and August Bude, of Fairview, scribe. In the absence of the Rev. Wallace Harbart, the Rev. J. E. Walker, of Foo Chow, Ohio, who is taking a year's leave of absence in America, preached the associational sermon.

The following churches were represented:

Weston, Rev. A. R. Olds, pastor; delegates, Mrs. A. R. Olds and Earl Olds; Fairview, A. F. Bude and Daniel Boone, delegates; Condon, Mrs. Hendricks and Miss Lulu Fitzwater, delegates; Ione, Mrs. Alice Kellar and Miss Lena Jourdon, delegates; The Dalles, Rev. W. G. Curtis, pastor; Hood River, Rev. U. S. Hershuber, pastor; Lexington, Rev. U. S. Drake, pastor; delegates, J. S. Boothby, Edward Tibbitts, Mrs. E. Beymer, Mrs. Gemmill and Mrs. C. Hill.

The churches at Oatario, Huntington, Freewater, Ingles Chapel and Pendleton were represented by neither pastors nor delegates.

Interesting and helpful papers were read as follows:

A. Bude, "The Relation of the Christian Endeavor Society to the Church"; Mrs. Kellar, "A Review of Missionary Work"; Mrs. A. R. Olds, "Home Missionary Work"; Rev. C. F. Clapp, of Forest Grove, Rev. J. E. Walker, of Foo Chow, Ohio, Rev. H. H. Wikoff, of Berkeley, Cal., were received as corresponding members, and frequently enquired the services by their timely remarks. A woman's missionary society was organized in the Lexington Congregational church, with the following officers: President, Mrs. C. Hill; vice-president, Mrs. U. S. Drake; secretary, Mrs. L. R. Beach; treasurer, Mrs. Tibbitts.

An evening session was devoted to missionary work in a beautiful service by the children and in an address by the Rev. C. F. Clapp, Rev. J. E. Walker sang two songs in the Chinese language, dressed in Chinese costume. This was highly appreciated especially by the younger children.

The next association will be held at Freewater, Yamhill county, Or. Rev. F. M. Parker was chosen to preach the associational sermon.

The following standing committees were appointed:

On programs, Rev. A. R. Olds, Rev. J. L. Hershuber and Rev. Wallace Harbart; temperance Mrs. Jackson Hill, Mrs. E. R. Beach and Mrs. W. W. Simsbauer; missions, J. L. Hershuber, A. R. Olds and Mrs. S. A. Bonell; Sunday school, Rev. U. S. Drake, Rev. E. R. Beach and Superintendent C. F. Clapp.

The Rev. A. B. Olds was re-elected registrar of the association, and the Rev. David Lepphart was received as a member of this association.

Rev. A. R. Olds read a paper on "How to Get Church Members at Work," Rev. W. C. Curtis on "What is Congregationism?" and Rev. J. L. Hershuber on "The Mission of Congregationalism to the Community."

On the subject, "When is a Church at Work?" remarks were made by Rev. C. F. Clapp, Rev. H. H. Wikoff, Rev. W. C. Curtis and others. Rev. H. H. Wikoff presented the claims of the Congregational Building Society, showing that many churches and parsonages have been aided by this benevolent society. Rev. J. E. Walker delivered a very interesting lecture on China, singing a religious hymn in the Chinese language.

SPORTING NEWS.

Horsemen Beginning to Arrive for the Races—Facts Material and Unmaterial.

Heppner has been stirred from stem to stern. It was noted that a "moral wave" has come down upon us, but this has blown over. People are expected to behave themselves as usual, but the town will not try to do something that it cannot do.

Saloons and the demi monde violate the laws. So does every business man in Heppner. It's boss and boss.

Sport isn't jealous because some other person succeeds. Prosperity strikes all alike, effort and opportunities considered.

Heppner is a hot old town—some times.

"Yak," Hatt's jock, has blossomed out into a full fledged dude. "Reddy," the belle of the D#town stables, can be on the lookout if he wants to head off "Yak."

Frank Reed is expected in shortly from North Yakima with 1 D-n't Know, American Boy, Tom Tongue and Col. T. I Don't Know is an excellent horse, but was ruled off at San Francisco in 1903. If he has been restated there will be some sport for the fan-loving people. Otherwise it is not likely that he will start.

The footrace Saturday between Frank Matthews, or Neel, and one Smith or Foster, 100 yards for $50 a side, failed to materialize. Neel is a pretty good man but having herded sheep all spring was not in condition to run a hard race. He was advised that his opponent was a workman. He doubted this but met the challenge, leaving a little loop hole out of which to crawl—that the race should be run between 3 and 5 p. m. Neel saw that the stranger was a "ringer" and kept him at the starting point till 5 o'clock and then refused to run.

It was a smart trick which saved himself and friends, for the race was declared off. The stranger is a foot-racer without doubt, is light complexioned, smooth shaven, rather tall and slender, slightly stooped, has some India ink trails on his right arm. He was backed by Wes Cavanaugh and son, and others of Pendleton. Heppner used to be a good town for foot races, but it has had experience before.

Light Howard and his son, Frank, got in Sunday from Burns with the famous running horse, the Red S. To beat him will bestow upon the lucky man both laurels and cash.

"Snapper" Garrison, a jock with nerve and a reputation, is here for the races.

The jocks, Tom Allen and Tom Foster, are on the ground ready for business.

Tom Kane, a well known jock, showed one of our reporters a pair of colts, the other day, sired by Swamp, Geo. Aiken's horse. They are good ones, but if Tom hasn't any more luck than Sport he had better give them to Sam Kinsman for horse sausage.

Sport would like to see Geo Aiken get off and win some good money. He is one of the boys that takes his medicine and comes back again.

Jake Howell has come in from the Matlock stables to work for the Red S. people.

E. W. Rhea & Co., pay the highest price for hides and pelts. 11

Water company instructed to clean out water pipes and city hydrants.

In the matter of moving privies off of the creek, it was decided not to move them as long as they are not obnoxious and there is running water in creek, reconsidering motion of last meeting.

CONCERT A SUCCESS.

The Ladies Do Well and the Spectacles Were Immense—A Fair Attendance.

The attendance at the musical concert, given by the Ladies' Cornet Band, of Heppner, on last Friday evening was not as large as was expected, though the receipts footed up about $44, leaving a balance to assist the ladies in the payment of tuition and other band expenses. The band is a Heppner enterprise and is deserving of more encouragement than it is receiving. The entire band is composed of novices in the business and no one could be so unreasonable as to expect a finished musical entertainment.

However, the Gazette will say that the concert last Friday was very successful. This paper has not the time to give special mention of any individual effort, but will say that the members rendered their selections much better than our representative anticipated. The accordion solos of Mr. Frank Lee were excellent and were repeatedly encored, as were the vocal solos of Miss Elsie Ayers, Heppner's young soprano. Miss Ayers is only 15 years of age and with instruction, the Gazette ventures to predict, will make her mark as a vocalist.

The ladies contemplate giving other entertainments in the near future. Show your patriotism and chivalry by attending.

THE ENDOWMENT BANK.

A Feature of the Knights of Pythias That Gives a Member Good Insurance.

No member of the Knights of Pythias need join another fraternal insurance order for the sole purpose of obtaining insurance, inasmuch as the order has a well-established insurance feature known as the Endowment Bank.

The bank is 20 years old and during its existence has paid to beneficiaries $11,041,000. It is no longer an experiment—it has been successfully tried and all Knights of Pythias endorse it.

In order to be able to take advantage of the Endowment Bank you must be a Knight of Pythias in good standing. This system of insurance is based upon the actual cost of same. There is no costly machinery to keep up, no extra expense.

For further information, members of the order and others interested, should apply to Elmer G. Slocum, secretary of the Heppner section.
