

Scrofula Swelling

On the Neck and Great Weakness Caused by Impure Blood—Was Constantly Growing Worse.

"When my son was 5 years old he was in very poor health and we could get nothing to relieve him. At the age of 7 years he began to complain of soreness on both sides of his neck and soon lumps began to gather on one side and grew to half the size of an egg. We then became more uneasy and began to doctor him for scrofula. He gradually grew worse, however, until at the age of twelve years we had lost all hope of his recovery. He became so weak he could sit up but a few minutes at a time. My wife saw Hood's Sarsaparilla recommended as a great blood purifier and we sent and got a bottle. We began giving our boy the medicine according to directions and it was not long before we saw he was improving. He continued taking it until he was in very good health. He is now 13 years old and is well. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for all troubles caused by impure blood." S. M. SILVER, Grouse, Oregon.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Get only Hood's.

FISH STORIES.

Some Whoppers That Nearly Choked Down the Long Distance—The Line All Right Again.

A few days ago Tom Williams dropped in from Long Creek for two purposes, viz: Firstly, a long winter had depleted Tom's stock of "wet" goods and there was danger of a famine wherein "Ticky" Wilson, Dan Morrow and other relics of bygone days would suffer intensely, consequently an early reprieve became not only desirable, but absolutely necessary. Secondly, Tom wanted to take in the races. But the Gazette doesn't think that any of these important missions gave the unquestioned right to tell a whopping fish story. It was like this: He and some other notable of Long Creek had gone out to Magoon lake and in 3 hours, 3 minutes and 23 seconds by the watch had caught 75 pounds of fish. This was a good, strong story.

But this morning the "long distance telephone" fairly "busted" itself transmitting the information from Long Creek that Chas. Lee and Dr. Miracle had outdone Williams by several pounds of fish, clipping a good half hour off the record. Then O. L. Patterson, of the Eagle, called up No. 2—the G-zette "phone—and without regard for his relative at this end of the line said he actually caught 100 pounds of fish at Magoon's lake in just 1 hour and 49 minutes, and that he had no one to help him but Walter Keeny, Geo. Ward and Billy Lee. If the new "long distance" can handle such stuff as this, lightning won't hurt it.

The telephone line has reached Long Creek and works well.

THE FIGHT.

It Was a Pretty Spirited Contest but There Were Complaints of a "Lay Down."

The fight last night was pretty interesting and everybody got a dollar's worth—and some, a great deal more, notably one fat newspaper man.

The entertainment was begun with a four-round bout between two jockeys, Jake Howell and Julius Paul. The boys went at it hammer and tongs, but did not hurt each other to any great extent. Howell had the best of the contest.

"Kid" Dudley, as he calls himself, was the first of the principals to enter the ring for the main event. He was followed by Tom Allen and "Kid" Duffy. In a few moments "Young" Dempsey came into the ring and received an ovation, showing the feeling of the crowd. He was seconded by Billy Carroll and Billy Ross. Neither man appeared to be in good condition, though Dempsey had the better of it in this respect, but was 42 pounds lighter than Dudley. Dave McAtee acted as referee, Fred Patton Jack Parker, timekeepers. After the preliminaries were arranged, the men shook hands and went at it.

First round—Kid feinted with right, but Dempsey. Sharp interchange of blows. Kid leading, Dempsey cautious. Knocks Dempsey down with right-hander in stomach. Hits Dempsey in mouth. Dempsey took advantage of time twice. The honors were in favor of Kid, though Dempsey was not hurt.

Second round—Sharp interchange of blows. Dempsey shows his cleverness and gets away. Kid gets in two licks on Dempsey's breast. Dempsey falls to his knees and gets away. Both fought shy, Dempsey getting in some good punches. Both strong with honors even.

Round three—Sharp fighting. Big fellow missed a right and left for Dempsey's head. Dempsey rapped the Kid a sharp one on the jaw. Everytime Dempsey gets one in, the crowd cheer. Big fellow does most of the leading and hits hard, but misses. Honors even.

Fourth round—Kid hits Dempsey in mouth. Big fellow makes feint and misses. Dempsey hits Kid in mouth. Honors even.

Fifth round—Dempsey leads out and catches Kid in the jaw. Big fellow returns two raps in the same locality. First blood for Kid. Dempsey's nose bleeding. Dudley has the best of round. Neither hurt much, but both tired.

Seventh round—Sharp exchange of blows. Dempsey has the best of it. Dempsey's nose bleeding. Both tired. Both fight hard, Dempsey pushing the scrap. Both on floor or when time called, but neither hurt much.

Eighth round—Dempsey falls to floor to avoid punishment. Both come together and exchange blows. Time round.

Round nine—Kid gets one in on Dempsey's head. Dempsey nearly knocks Kid down with a good punch in return. Honors even, with Dempsey fighting gamely and with more skill than Kid. Kid striking the heavier blows.

Tenth and last round—Dempsey crowds big fellow. Latter tries to get in pivot blow and fails. Both scraping lively. Both fall on floor. Kid counted out within six seconds of the round, and Dempsey declared the winner.

The above is the contest as given by the Gazette reporter. Kid fouled Dempsey in one of the early rounds, but did no damage. He was cautioned, however, by the referee not to repeat it.

Most of the crowd thought that Dudley "laid down" in the tenth and it looked that way to the writer. Dempsey, who is known as a decent, square fellow, says that if Dudley laid down he knew nothing of it. The crowd got the worth of their money at any rate, but a few "jwinks" bet made on the result caused some comment, under the circumstances, and this agitation, added to a declaration from Dudley that he was on the warpath, all beautifully blended with red concoctions, caused one fat gentleman to deposit $7.50 this morning with Recorder Richardson. He got off light. He ought to have been fined $100 instead.

THE RACES.

First Day's Event Satisfactory—Good Betting and Nice Contests.

The races began Saturday with a four and one-half furlong dash, with Cal. T. Lath and Coxy entered, Cal. T. winning from Lath by a nose in 0:59. Walter Ross up.

The three-eighths dash was the next on the program, with Red S. Tom Tongue, Laly Mescham and Dutch entered. Red S won it in 0:37. Jake Howell up.

The betting was very good and attendance fair. The starting gates were used and worked splendidly.

The races are in progress this afternoon as we go to press.

Beware of Quackery for Catarrh that contains Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Bart by a Horse.

On last Friday, Henry, the little son of Phil Blahm, while playing with a colt down at his uncle, Mat Lichtenthal's place, had the misfortune to get his hand entangled in the rope, injuring the fingers badly. Dr. McSwoods was called immediately and believes that he can save all the fingers, although the forefinger is badly maimed, perhaps for life. The little fellow showed good pluck and while the hand was being dressed never showed the white feather.

The people generally regret that Greece has not made a better stand against her ancient enemy, the Turk, but there seems to be no regrets manifested that R. C. ACCIDENT TO BOY DURHAM.

Falls on a Broken Bottle Which Penetrates His Leg.

Roy Durham, a boy 13 years of age, met with an accident about 10 o'clock yesterday morning which may prove fatal. While attempting to mount a horse belonging to the Rowland boys, the animal jumped and he landed behind the saddle. He was springing into the saddle when the horse jumped the second time and threw him to the ground. The boy fell on a broken glass bottle which cut into the body below the arm pit, on the back and penetrated the lungs. There is an ugly gash where the broken glass entered the boy and doubts are entertained of his recovery. —Pendleton Tribune.

This boy is a son of John Durham, at present working for Geo. Armstrong, of the Matlock corner. Mr. Durham has received word that the boy is getting better and that he will likely recover.
