

Almost Blind

Scrofula Affects the Eyes—Little Boy Treated by an Oculist Without Relief—But Now He is Well.

"When my little boy was three months old his eyes became very sore and he was almost blind. I took him to an oculist who treated him for six months, and left him as bad as he was at the beginning. Finally Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I began giving it to him. In less than three weeks he was able to go into the sun without covering his eyes, and today his eyes are perfectly well, and his ears and nose, which were badly affected, are also well. Hood's Sarsaparilla has certainly done wonders for my boy." Mrs. JAMES H. PAINTER, Amador, California.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists. $1.50 for 50¢ Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Take Notice.

1. The sum of five cents per line will be charged for "cards of thanks," "resolutions of respect," "letters of condolence," "obituary notices," (other than those the editor or shall himself give as a matter of course) and notices of special meetings or whatever purpose. 2. Notices of church and society and all other entertainments from which revenue is to be derived, shall be charged for at the rate of five cents a line. These rules will be strictly adhered to in every instance. Advertising rates reasonable and made known upon application.

A GOOD CLUBBING LIST.

Now that the great political campaign is over and the winter season again with us, all will want an adequate supply of fresh and varied reading matter for the long evenings. ONE MORE EFFORT.

Sport Takes in the Races and Has Some Fun—A General Week of Hilarity.

Sport wants to say one more word on the "cow" question. Only yesterday one resident of Heppner spent several hours patching up a shade tree that had been denuded of its top by a villainous old fiend. The tree was sufficiently protected from the attacks of an ordinary beast, but this one made a ladder out of the "box" around the tree. This is an imposition. It is a disgrace. No decent community should permit these deceptions. Let the cows climb a church spire if they wish to do so, but save our trees.

Sport has interviewed both marshal and councilmen—that is, a few of the latter—and all seem to agree that the nuisance should be abated. But one says that there is no "ponnd" to hold cows; the others say that cows would not be put in the corral if one is provided. Now the facts are that this is not sufficient reason why pesecible citizens should be annoyed to death by cows. Sport thinks that a reasonable enforcement of the cow ordinance would be of great benefit to all concerned.

Marshall Roberts has the thanks of M. D. Hayman for driving down the nails that have been protruding from the sidewalk for some time. Hayman can now travel without taking any chances on snagging the seat of his pants.

Billy Ross, the old-time "Josher Bill," is here. Billy does not complain that he is over-burdened with prosperity, but says that he still wears his joshing suit.

A resident of Hamilton is said to have made an important scientific discovery. He enquired the other day as to the size of the hole in the telephone wire and 'lowed that if it was bigger, talking over the line would be a whole lot better. He deserves a medal as big as a dajpuck.

Any person desiring the professional services of a gentleman who is an adept at removing the caudal appendage of a canine, should call on Les Matlock. No surgical instruments used.

One young man who is here temporarily can thank his stars that he is alive. While "under the influence" he made undue advances towards a little girl, for which the father went after him like a cyclone. Later on he attempted to embrace a respectable married lady in a restaurant in town. Why, Sport thinks that this boy is too lucky to live.

It is said that the prizefighter, Dudley, is none other than the noted, Alex Greengans, of fame in the ring. Sport cannot vouch for this, however.

Charley Weatherford, the jock, came up from Schuttler Flat and took in the recent festivities.

Young Dempsey, who secured the decision at the Monday night contest, left yesterday for Deer Lodge, Montana, where he will "shear" the remainder of the season. Dempsey is a cousin and a pupil of the world-renowned Jack Dempsey, the deceased.

THE RACES.

The Meeting Ended Yesterday With a Match Race and a Half-Mile Handicap.

Yesterday ended the race meeting. It was fairly successful and ought to have been one of the best meetings ever held in Heppner. It would have been all of this but for some unfortunate occurrences—but it is not necessary to recall these matters. It is understood that this is the last meeting on the old "kite" track. Jas. Jones, the owner, will plow it up, sow it down in alfalfa and remove the grand stand and other buildings. At some future date a track may be constructed below town, but it looks now that Heppner will not soon have another race meeting. These race meetings give the people a chance to relieve the monotony incident to living so far from the metropolis; they encourage the raising of better horses; but there is no big money in them for the town. Yet we all like to have them, enjoy them.

The races Tuesday were inaugurated by a half-mile dash. Entries, Sinner, Lady Meacham and Col. T. Col. T. first; Lady Meacham, second; time, 0:54 1/4. Sinner got hung up on the fence at the turn and was badly distanced. However, it is believed that he can make the best of them run.

The next was 600 yards. Entries, Sinner, Red S. and I Don't Know. Red S. won; I Don't Know, second. Time, 0:34. This time was very fast for the track.

The races Tuesday were looked upon with suspicion as being "jobs." However, the winners got the money and all bets were paid.

The entries were Easter Lilly, Saw-buck, Belle Collins and Mamie S. Easter Lilly won, Saw-buck second, but Starter Aikee claimed that he did not intend to trip the gate at that time and tried to call them back. However, they ran on through, but the judges declared the race off and asked the owners to run it over. This plan was finally abandoned and the race set for yesterday, but for some reason it was not called.

The half mile dash was a "horse race," entries Swamp, De Schutes and Cora J. Swamp winning in 0:53 1/2. The betting on this race was light.

The match race yesterday at the track, between Col. T and Sinner for $100 a side, was won by Sinner under a strong pull. The latter is a good horse.

The entries in the half mile handicap were: Dutch, 117 pounds; Lala Rizeg, 119 pounds; Ogoret, 110 pounds. Dutch won, Lala, second. Time, 0:56.

This ended the races. The association had enough money to pay up purses in full, and some debts that were left over from last season.

The Buchanan Comedy Co. come very highly spoken of. Don't fail to hear them next week at the opera house. Prices 15, 25 and 50.

CROWNED.

Mrs. Achaah Hurd, the estimable wife of Mr. Charles W. Drew, passed triumphantly through the veil that ends terrestrial life into the powers of an indescribable life of heaven at 10 a. m., Friday, May 28, 1897, from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Gilman.

Born and reared in a Christian home at Stanstead, province of Quebec, 1834; embraced and enjoyed the truth of Christianity from the fifteenth year of her girlhood, uniting with the church of the Lord Jesus, for which she loved, toiled and prayed; whose doctrine she adorned with all the beauty of Christian womanhood until her life was crowned with immortality. When life and thought departed side by side, they went so unexpectedly that we could only lift our eyes heavenward to see her precious, purified spirit pass through the gate into eternal joy.

An exemplary member of the Methodist Episcopal church; diligent in every good word and work; planning, working, praying, teaching, living; not only the beauty of Christian doctrine, but all that pertain to civic righteousness, political, social and educational. Some times president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union; an officer and teacher in the Sunday school; a class leader of the young people.

Christianity to her was divinity in Christ-like expression, and the entire community saw its transparency in the beauty of her work and character.

To her, eternal life was character moulded, fashioned, conformed to the grace of the Holy Spirit. She lived to bless, brighten, cheer and comfort; her character revealed the luster of the teaching she professed.

Beautiful and consecrated in life, fervent in prayer, earnest in faith, lovable, approachable, the friend of all, a gifted conversationalist, could entertain with a peculiar charm, wise in counsel reserved, lady-like, a mother whose memory is an eternal heritage.

The memorial service of the Grand Army of the Republic was withdrawn that they could pay tribute of respect, for she was beloved by all those who knew her. The services were conducted at the residence on Sunday at 10 a. m., by the Rev. J. W. Fleisher.

The bereaved are graciously sustained by the Divine Consoler, who said "I will not leave you comfortless." Kind hands laid her tenderly to rest in the cemetery on the hillside, whence the weeping cortege returned to imitate her blameless life and faith.

A Pleasant Affair.

On last evening, a number of Heppner people, under the gallant leadership of Miss Pauline Goldstone, stormed the home of Mrs. H. W. Bartholomew, completely surprising the lady. The intruders, however, were given a gracious welcome. They had thoughtfully provided refreshments for the occasion, and between and excellent lunch, music, cards and dancing a pleasant evening was spent.

To those now planning their summer vacations, the "Recreation Number" of The Outlook (its Magazine Number for June) offers special attractions, and is full of useful hints. Delightfully illustrated articles on possible vacations, lists of coming summer schools and meetings, remarkably full of information about summer resorts and routes of travel everywhere—all this and much more is included in the nearly or quite two hundred pages. This is the eighth—and best—of The Outlook's popular summer Recreation Numbers. [$3.00 a year. The Outlook Company, 13 Astor Place, New York.]

Major McNeill, president of the O. R. & N. Co., his brother and another gentleman whose name the Gazette did not learn, were in Long Creek early this week. They went on over to Canyon City to examine the places in that vicinity. The major expressed himself as highly gratified at the enterprise shown by Heppner, Long Creek and other points in constructing a telephone line.

National Appeal.

It is estimated that the government is losing three million dollars a week in revenue by the delay in the passage of the tariff bill. The people are losing ten times as much in work on account of the delay. We earnestly ask every one of our readers to immediately write a postal card to, at least, one member of the United States senate at Washington, urging and demanding the immediate passage of a protective tariff law and such a law as will give adequate protection to American labor and American industries. Address your postal card to Hon. Geo. W. McBride U. S. S., Washington, D. C.

Heppner to Pendleton via Heppner-Echo Stage Line. Persons desirous of visiting Pendleton can save time and money by taking this route. By acquainting the agent the previous evening the stage will make connection with 2 o'clock train at Echo for Pendleton. Office at City Drug Store. W. D. Lond, Proprietor.

The tariff bill will be passed and become a law about July 1st, unless people who ought to know are mistaken. But there are many things that should not be passed. It is not right or business-like to pass good bargains which you will always find at R. O. Willis' place. Mail orders solicited. Don't forget the place, Blackman's old store. 1ft

The Carnival of Madrid will be held in Portland, June 7th to 12th, inclusive. Agent Hart, of the O. R. & N., has been instructed to sell tickets as follows for the above-named occasion: One fare for the round trip to Portland and return, good for trains No's 1 and 3, arriving at Portland on Monday, June 7th. 9-1t

The dance on last Tuesday evening and that of last evening, at the opera house, given by Messrs. Ingraham & Wattenberger, were indeed pleasant affairs. The music on both occasions was excellent and all enjoyed themselves.

Walt Thompson runs stage between Heppner and Monument, arriving every day except Monday and leaving every day except Sunday. Shortest and cheapest route to the interior. E. J. Slocum, agent.

Emery Leazer will leave for The Dalles in the near future.
