

On last Wednesday the tariff bill passed the senate by a vote of 39 to 28.

SUNSTROKE and 4th of July accidents killed some of the population back East on the national birthday.

PROF. THOMAS M. GATCH, late of the state university of Washington, was chosen president of the agricultural college and director of the experiment station at Corvallis last week.

The democrats took advantage of the agreement of the republican senators to shorten the tariff debate as much as possible by not making speeches or taking part in controversies, to make a number of statements concerning the sugar schedule which has been adopted by the senate, that they must have known were untrue.

A GREAT injustice is being done the job printers of this country by the government. The Gazette refers to the matter of printing envelopes. Thousands of dollars are being diverted yearly from the pockets of the printing fraternity into the governmental treasury.

The attempts of some of the democratic senators to explain that they are not protectionists, although they have voted for protection for the products of their state, have been more or less ludicrous.

consistent with revenue necessities. This, also, I believe, is the doctrine of the republican party. Call it what you will, protection, revenue duty with incidental protection, or anything else, large amounts must be raised, and there is no reason why the industries of the South should not be protected.

THE object of the democratic senators in talking to delay progress on the tariff bill is obvious. It is estimated that every day the bill is delayed means a loss to the government of at least $100,000 in duties, and the more that is lost in that way, the better prepared will be democratic stump speakers to charge the new tariff with not producing enough revenue during its first nine months or a year.

Mr. Henry W. Corbett is still no nearer to being seated by the United States senate than he was when he received his appointment last March. It is understood now that he will not press the matter during the remainder of the session but allow it to go over until fall.

The appointment of Dr. George Lilly, of this city, to the chair of mathematics in the state university, is one that will reflect great credit upon that institution. Dr. Lilly is a mathematician of more than ordinary merit and has secured recognition of his abilities from the leading institutions of learning both East and West.

Another Oregon man who has been successful in "knocking the persimmon" from off the political tree is J. W. Ivey, of Portland, who has been appointed collector of customs for the district of Alaska.

Mr. W. H. Corbett, the gentleman who has been in Washington, D. C., for four months waiting to be asked to take a seat, will now return to Oregon very tired and minus some more of his wealth. In December, however, another opportunity will be offered him to stand a while longer and unload some more cash.

Governor Lord came up from Salem Saturday evening to review the troops at Hood River. The boys were turned out in marching order, with knapsacks, haversacks, blankets—everything necessary to go into a campaign.

The Statesman would not for the world discourage any person from going to see Bryan. Where he got the biggest crowds during the November campaign he received the smallest vote.

MORROW COUNTY'S SHOWING. Shipments and Drives of Livestock During This Season. Heppner, July 6.—By request, a prominent stockman today gave me a somewhat elaborate and complete statement of matters pertaining to sales of sheep and livestock and receipts of wool at this point during the present season.

The Season's Prices. Cattle—Yearlings started at $13 and sold up to $15 before all the cattle had been moved off in the spring sales. Two-year-olds—Started at $18; sold up to $22.

Three-year-olds—Started at $24; sold up to $27.50. Cows and calves—Started at $17; sold up to $21. Dry cows—Started at $16; sold up to $17.50.

Sheep—Yearlings, $1.50 to $1.60; two-year-olds, $1.85 to $2.10. Wool—Up to Saturday night, July 3, and for a couple of weeks preceding, wool market has seen some choice lots go at 9 to 9 1/2 cents, and a few have brought 10.

Morrow county this year has sold about 2000 head of cattle which were shipped mostly from Arlington, only one-half being loaded here. Arlington, by the way, shipped over 7000 head of cattle at an average valuation of $20 or a total of about $140,000.

These cattle, as also in the case of the sheep which were shipped and driven, went to Nebraska, Wyoming and Montana, with a few scattering bands to Washington and some to the Dakotas.

The cattle were all shipped, but the sheep were mostly driven over the trail and are yet on the way. From the records of sales and the drafts drawn in payment, are taken these figures showing the sheep actually sent out by drive and train from this county:

Sam Palmer, 18,000 from Morrow county to Colorado and Nebraska. The same man drove 15,000 from Salt Lake. Mr. Carson, 12,000 from Morrow county to Wyoming.

Other parties to Washington and other points, 4,500 sheep. This makes a total of 100,000 sheep. A few of these 100,000 came from Gilliam. But Mr. Yates, for Knowlton & Co., sent over the trail 85,000 sheep from Morrow, Grant, Crook and Gilliam counties, of which at least 12,000 were Morrow county sheep, which will more than make good the full 100,000 claimed as sent from Morrow county.

Excursion to Pendleton. On Monday, July 12th, the O. R. & N. will sell round trip tickets from Heppner to Pendleton, to hear W. J. Bryan speak, at a rate of $3.00 for the round trip. This does not include a half fare rate for children. Tickets expire on July 14th.

Any person who is interested in British Columbia should write to W. H. Harburt, general passenger agent of the O. R. & N., for a copy of Pat Donnan's little "booklet," "The New Bonastrand." It is well worth the trouble. 60-1t.

In order that they may obtain funds to fight the carrying out of the death sentence of their son, the parents of Theodore Durrant will place his photographs on sale in San Francisco and the East. The father says the great expense of continuing the fight lies in the sale of the photographs, and he also desires to correct the unflattering estimate of his son's character produced by newspaper portraits.

Come to the Gazette office and get a decent lot of envelopes printed. Government envelopes look cheap, and besides you cannot get your business card printed thereon.

Minor & Co. the leaders in fine foot wear, are closing out their spring and summer line to make room for the fall stock. Don't fail to call before the stock is broken. 500-61

IONE ITEMS. Wind for the last five days which has delayed laying. Heading barley and oats has commenced. Several threshers and header combined will run this season.

Mr. T. Walker intends to move to Ione and build a residence. Mat Halverson will build a large addition to his store building. One of E. G. Sperry's mules was run over by the train and had several legs broken.

The Cong. church is ready to be painted inside. The Fourth was celebrated at Ione this year. The program consisting of oration, reading, recitation and songs was given at Pettys' grove and after a hearty lunch all left for the afternoon races and bull fight at Ione.

AN UNUSUAL THING. Something That Should Invite the Attention of Every Housewife. A. Schilling & Co. are doing quite an unusual thing. First, by giving the thousand-dollar missing word contest, which is an original and interesting method of advertising; but they are also managing it with such generosity as to win the respect and admiration of most critical observers.

For example: they agreed, (besides giving a thousand dollars to those who found the missing word) to give $100.00 to each of the two persons, who sent in the largest number of yellow tickets before a certain time.

Now it appears that these prizes were won by two grocers in San Francisco (T. Salomon and Ring Bros.), who sent in a very large number of tickets. But A. Schilling & Co. did not think this fair to the consumer, because they had no chance whatever against the grocers whose opportunity for collecting tickets is so great; so besides paying this $200.00 to those grocers, they paid $200.00 more to Mrs. L. Dur
