

Scrofula Swelling

On the Neck and Great Weakness Caused by Impure Blood—Was Constantly Growing Worse.

"When my son was 5 years old he was in very poor health and we could get nothing to relieve him. At the age of 7 years he began to complain of soreness on both sides of his neck and soon lumps began to gather on one side and grew to half the size of an egg. We then became more uneasy and began to doctor him for scrofula. He gradually grew worse, however, until at the age of twelve years, he had lost all hope of his recovery. He became so weak he could sit up but a few minutes at a time. My wife saw Hood's Sarsaparilla recommended as a great blood purifier and we sent and got a bottle. We began giving our boy the medicine according to directions and it was not long before we saw he was improving. He continued taking it until he was in very good health. He is now 13 years old and is well. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for all troubles caused by impure blood." S. M. SILVER, Grouse, Oregon.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1.50 for $5. Get only Hood's."

Take Notice.

2. Notices of church and society and all other entertainments from which revenue is to be derived, shall be charged for at the rate of five cents a line. These rules will be strictly adhered to in every instance.

ARRESTED FOR ADULTERY.

Jane Ellis arrested at the instance of Her Husband, Charging Her With Adultery.

Yesterday Sheriff Matlock went out to the mountains and arrested Mrs. Jane Ellis, on complaint of her husband that she had committed adultery with one, Bob Beach, now a minus quantity, so far as this neighborhood is concerned. The witnesses against Mrs. Ellis are said to be Nye and his wife who had one Hayes arrested not long ago, charged with an attempt to commit rape on the person of Mrs. Nye.

Mr. Matlock arrived with his prisoner last night, too late to catch the excursion train to Pendleton, on which he had contemplated going to hear Mr. Bryan. Mrs. Ellis is in custody of the sheriff. Her examination will occur tomorrow.

THE EWING-SUMMERS CASE.

Ewing Threshed by Otto Summers With a Rawhide Rope.

Recently W. H. Ewing, who lives near Rhea's Siding, on Willow creek, brought complaint against Otto Summers, charging him with assault with a larist. The examination brought out the fact that Ewing was a little obnoxious to Summers and the latter chased him about a mile, striking him at every step with a rawhide rope. Summers was arrested and bound over in the sum of $300 bonds to appear before the next grand jury at Coondo.

During the trial Ewing was discovered to have a weapon on his person for which indiscretion he paid $50 and costs.

Dr. J. W. Hill, of Bishop Scott Academy, was in Heppner over Sunday, leaving last night for Pendleton. The doctor has been at the head of the academy for twenty years, and its general prosperity and success stand as a fitting tribute to his ability as an educator and to his good business management.

Rev. J. H. Miller will leave tomorrow night for The Dalles where he has been called to preach. His removal will be permanent, and Heppner loses an excellent citizen thereby. On tomorrow evening Rev. Miller will preach his farewell sermon in the Baptist church. All should come out.

Antelope Herald: Married, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shutt at this place, on Monday evening, July 5, Mr. John M. McLennan and Miss Dolly M. Glisan, Rev. Leach performing the ceremony. The Herald joins their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous future.

Logic That Won.

The Doctor—Here's the bill for your husband's treatment. I'll be glad to allow you 20 per cent. off for cash.

The Widow—But you said that you would not charge anything if you didn't relieve him!

"So I did. Have you heard him complain lately?"—Cleveland Leader.

Hoping for the Best.

She—You know, dear, we won't get any of father's money while he lives.

He—I know, but he's going to reside with us and you're going to do the cooking. Let's hope for the best.—Cleveland World.

Some Other Mornings.

"We have had a dispute," said the boarding-house proprietor, as Strapely took his seat at the breakfast table.

"Indeed," said Strapely, corralling the butter.

"Yes; I said you were six weeks behind in your board, and Mr. Bean says you're ahead. Will you settle it?"

"Not this morning," replied Strapely. —Yonkers Statesman.

It's Different Then.

"They say," he said, "that talk is cheap."

"I've heard such statements made."

"But I venture to say," and the speaker grew very earnest, "that the man who made it never had occasion to consult a lawyer professionally."

They were all agreed upon the proposition.—Chicago Post.

It Was Settled.

"By the way," asked the former resident of the village, "did Jones and Smith ever get that dispute settled as to which one owned that strip of land?"

"O, yes; that was settled some time ago."

"And who got it?"

"I forget the lawyer's name."—Up-to-Date.

Future Will Bring Revenge.

"Papa is a jeweler, you know," she said, petulantly, "and he tells me that the engagement ring you gave me is filled."

"I presume so, for I bought it at his store. But you can depend on me to get even in time, darling."—Detroit Free Press.

Absent-Minded.

... (after having been absorbed for hours in a pile of rare manuscripts)—Let me see. I was going to do something—what the deuce was I going to do, anyway? (After thinking half an hour.) Oh, yes, now I remember. I wanted to go to bed.—Pittsburgh Courier.

Taking Orders.

Mrs. Brown—Did you know that Mr. Vestment is going into the military?

Mrs. Greene—No. You surprise me. I thought he was going to be a waiter in an eating house. His mother told me he was going to take orders, you know.—Boston Transcript.

SPORTS NOTES.

The Anaconda Races and a Number of Other Things.

The cow ordinance is being enforced, to all intents and purposes, at least. Cows are kept up at nights and once more abridgment has a chance to grow. A cow is a good thing if properly taken care of. Some of the beasts in Heppner have eaten enough green timber during the past two years to be going shoe pegs instead of milk. These are cattle that are well cared for—by the neighbors.

The Bryan delegation to Pendleton last night was large and enthusiastic. Boy Willie draws better than Walter L. Main's circus.

Did you ever notice that the big, thirty man these hot days takes a schooner of beer to quench his thirst, and puts in a little salt to create a thirst for another one. Queer world, this.

The Anaconda boys, formerly of Heppner, are not getting rich racing their own stock. The weary sojourners will return when the leaves begin to fall.

The racing at Anaconda was good on June 29th, the 31 day. On that occasion Red S. took second money in a three-furlongs' dash, Tommy Tucker coming out first in 0:35, pretty good time considering the track. Harry N. was third. Red S. and Rattler were favorites in the pools.

Heppner was silent in the fourth day's work. Also failed to show up on the fifth.

On the sixth day, July 2, Latah started in the seven furlongs and took the third money; Jim Boseman, first; Lena, second. Time, 1:34 1/4. Latah did well, for there were thirteen horses on the track.

On July 3rd, Heppner was silent. It was Marcus Daly's races, winning every running race except the hurdle.

July 5th Col. T. was second in a five-eighths' dash, Dora Wood being first in 1:02 1/4; Quicksilver third. On the same day Red S. ran second to Tommy Tucker in 0:34 1/2, and Harry N. third.

On the 6th inst, no Heppner horses started, or at least if they did, failed to get inside of the money.

On July 7th, I-Don't-Know was second to Bill Howard in a half mile dash, in the time of 0:49 1/2, with Tommy Tucker third.

None of the Heppner sports made an appearance on the 8th inst.

On July 9th Red S. was third in three-furlongs, won by Leora in 0:34 1/2, with Harry N. second.

On the 10th inst, Dora Wood won the four and a half furlongs in 0:55; I-Don't-Know, second and May W. third.

Rural Spirit: The Oregon horses have not won fame, fortune or glory in Montana so far.

A number of young people prepared to have a good time last Friday night over at T. A. Rhea's. However, when it came time to partake of refreshments they were found to be missing. The lemonade had gathered into it a chicken—feathers and all. All at once remembered that Art Minor was yet in town.

But the girls got back at him. One evening not long ago Art was surprised in his tent, where he sleeps during the heated term, with a large bucket of ice water. Art is a hard man to head off though, and he can rest assured that the girls are still after him.

From a Washington Man.

"I was troubled with headache and biliousness and was very weak. One day I saw testimonials from people who had been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla and I decided to try it. When I had taken three bottles the headache and stomach trouble had all disappeared." Edward Melland, Brookfield, Washington.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills; assist digestion, cure headache, 25 cents.

Agent Hart reports that the entire sale of excursion tickets yesterday on the branch would indicate that 71 persons went to hear Bryan. Quite a number of Heppner people went over, among them Dr. and Mrs. McSwartz, Mrs. A. A. Roberts and son, Chris Dorebera, Geo. and Jake Wells, Herb Bartholomew, B. B. Wills, and many others that he could not name. The Morrow county crowd includes many republicans.

Minor & Co. are slaughtering ladies' and gents' low shoes. 590-61
