

Almost Blind

Scrofula Affects the Eyes—Little Boy Treated by an Oculist Without Relief—But Now He Is Well.

"When my little boy was three months old his eyes became very sore and he was almost blind. I took him to an oculist who treated him for six months, and left him as bad as he was at the beginning. Finally Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I began giving it to him. In less than three weeks he was able to go into the sun without covering his eyes, and today his eyes are perfectly well, and his ears and nose, which were badly affected, are also well. Hood's Sarsaparilla has certainly done wonders for my boy." Mrs. JAMES H. PAINTER, Amador, California. Remember

SPORT, "OLD SON."

Grave Subjects Seriously Considered—The Canines in Trouble.

The town canines are now in serious trouble, the city fathers of Heppner having declared that the old ordinance on dogs is in effect and that you must pungle up $3 or $5, as the case may be, or lose your dog. Sport has a cur that never misses a meal and consequently this last overt act of our honorable council strikes right home; shem!

Seriously, this tariff is a little steep. It is not of the protective order; it is prohibitive. It should be reduced to the old schedule, as prescribed in the resolution passed by the city a few years ago. Then common people as well as millionaires can indulge in that privilege, usually accorded an American citizen, and never refused a Siwash, that of owning a dog.

We know that Heppner has been slandered by jealous outsiders who call it a big sheepcamp. We resent the insult. We know that the blat of the ewe or the lamb, the sonorous bellow of the buck and the woezy squeak of the old "pelter" on her last legs, are often heard in the neighborhood of Heppner. But this don't make it a sheepcamp any more than clothes make the man. Heppner puts on some city airs occasionally.

It may be that some of the population think that the stain on our fair city can be eternally and everlastingly wiped out by running on all the sheep dogs. It can't be "did." Give the dogs an equal chance and stand by our colors. Heppner is all right.

Mrs. Herbert Bartholomew can give the ladies of Heppner some points in scrubbing kitchen floors. Add to the warm water a certain amount of plain grease instead of lye. Scrub vigorously. The effect is said to have been pleasing in the extreme—on the boys who invented this.

Bowling is now the rage, ladies as well as gentlemen participating. It has always been popular with some Heppner gentlemen, but the "cooked hat" part of it, in the degree of intensity, was generally indicated by the number of "bowls" participated in.

Racing still goes on up at Anaconda but our boys don't seem to be doing better than just getting inside of the money. This is not always the way to get outside of the money.

The following is the result of the races on last Monday: Three furlongs—Leora won, Harry N. second, Red S. third; time, 0:34 1/2.

On the 13th inst. in the five and one-half furlong, Bootblack won in 1:10 1/2, Sable second and I-Don't-Know third. On the same day Gen. Coxe took third money in a five and one-half furlong, Queen "Lil" first, in 1:11; Zauns second.

On the 14th the Oregon horses failed to show up.

Sport desires to say that Heppner's own ordinance is being enforced and that the cows are now doing no damage.

THE BRYAN EXCURSION.

Heppner and Morrow County People Visit Pendleton and Return With a Report of a Delightful Trip.

The large and enthusiastic Heppner delegation, about 80 strong, who went over to Pendleton Monday to hear the free silver orator, returned on Wednesday's train. They express themselves as being delighted with Bryan's address and are loud in their praises at the unbounded hospitality accorded them by the people of Pendleton during their brief visit to that bustling little metropolis. In commenting on the occasion of their visit, the E. O. of Wednesday contains the following:

One of the most enthusiastic delegations in town during the day was from Heppner and other Morrow county points. The Heppner vice-presidents, Dr. P. B. McWord, Sheriff E. L. Matlock and Al Binns, president of the Heppner Bryan club, procured a special car and by giving personal attention to the matter succeeded in bringing about 80 people from that place. Dr. McWord was the only one of the three vice-presidents who came over on the excursion. He was accompanied by Mrs. McWord and Miss Mary McWord, and they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Ayers, Jr., during the day.

In addition to the company that came in the special car, quite a number came from Morrow county by team. The number who came by private conveyance cannot be estimated with any accuracy, but there were representations from every part of the county.

Those who came by train returned home in the evening, their car being attached to the regular passenger west bound. The Heppner visitors were pleased with the day's proceedings. It had been expected at first they would remain over and go home this evening, but this was found to be impracticable, so they returned Tuesday evening.

A Vegetable Freak.

A peculiar freak in the radish family was left at the Gazette office one day this week by John C. Brown who resides on Black horse near town. The radish, so far as its general appearance is concerned, resembles a human being, having two legs, two arms and body. This human vegetable freak was found sitting astride of another healthy radish when drawn from the ground, and the combination presents a somewhat ludicrous spectacle, having the appearance of two school boys trying to decide the championship of a wrestling match. The naughty things may be seen on exhibition at the Gazette office.

To Trout Lake.

Tonight a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dunn and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bartholomew and children, Mrs. F. K. Bartholomew and little daughter, Fay, will leave for Trout Lake, north the cool shades of Mount Adams, Wash., where they will sojourn one month. They will be joined later on by Mrs. S. W. Spencer and G. D. Fall and wife, who will drive across the country. The party will doubtless enjoy the pleasant retreats of that section.

Mr. Theo. Anderson and wife took in the Bryan doing at Pendleton.

Johany Gates came over from Wagner for his wife and baby on Tuesday of this week.

Jas. Sevey has sold out his Morrow county possessions and moved to the Walls-Walla country.

The live business man of Heppner is the one from whom to buy your goods. See his ad. in the Gazette and patronize him.

F. M. Conter and wife were in from Eight Mile Wednesday. Mr. Conter is happy over his crop which is an excellent one.

The people who advertise are doing the business in Heppner. The others don't know they are alive—neither does the customer.

Jane Ellis, who was arrested on last Monday charged with adultery, was discharged by Judge Richardson on Wednesday. Geo. Harrington can give the full particulars.

T.M.: This morning two car loads of horses passed through here, going to the canyons at Linnton. They were shipped from Heppner. A carload of cattle was also shipped to Troutdale.

A. McCorquodale, traveling freight and passenger agent of the "Burlington Route," with headquarters at Portland, was in Heppner yesterday looking after the interests of his road.

Mr. G. W. Phelps, a rising young lawyer of The Dalles, is here this week with the view of ascertaining the needs of the Heppner section as to attorneys. He may decide to locate in Heppner.

The Rev. Henry Rasmus, D. D., pastor Grace M. E. Church, Portland, Ore., will lecture on "Buttoned-Up Possibilities" at the Meth. Episc. church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission 25cts.

Estimates put on the wheat crop of Eastern Oregon are that there will be in the neighborhood of 15,500,000 bushels harvested this season, says The Dalles Times-Mountaineer. Unadilla county is put down for 5,000,000 bushels, Union for 3,000,000, Sherman for 3,500,000, Wasco for 1,000,000, Morrow and Gilliam for 1,500,000, while Baker, Walla and Crook will probably yield 1,500,000.

John Jordan, an old-timer of Willow creek, in conversation with one of our leading citizens a few days ago, called to mind when one of his neighbors was Tom Ayers, 45 miles away, and that they used to change work, just like neighbors will anywhere. Jordan used to ride over to Tom's, do a full day's work, go home and do the chores, and then get back ready for the next day. Our informant did not ask how much sleep was required in those days, but it shows what people can do when they will.

Wool and Sheep Notes.

W. P. Dutton sold his wool of 160 bags, aggregating 40,000 pounds, at 10 cents on last Wednesday. This is Willow creek wool and under the advent of F. H. Johnson in Heppner 95 cents was the best offer made. Mr. Johnson represents Silverman Bros., of Chicago. He is buying considerable wool in this locality.

The Gazette does not know that there is a combination here among woolbuyers, but it will say frankly that there is every appearance that one has existed. The Gazette does not blame any buyer for getting wool as cheaply as possible; but the grower cannot be censured either for doing the best he can. This paper is interested in the grower getting good prices for his product. At present wool is on the advance and the Heppner buyers are paying every dollar the article is worth.

Gen. French disposed of his clip on Wednesday at 9 cents. This is a raise of 1/4 of a cent on a former offer.

Word comes in that Bob Curtis's sheep have been fired into in the usual manner over in the John Day country. The Gazette is not informed as to the loss.

The woolgrowers of Morrow county had a secret meeting on last Saturday at the court house. Coming immediately after those outrages in Grant county one need not be a prophet to guess what was the purpose of the meeting.

J. A. Profit is over from Wagner.

Mat Mongrove, representing Fitchner, Mayer & Co., is in town.

Burn—To the wife of Will Wallbridge, on Sunday, July 13th, a daughter.

T. H. Hubert, representing R. F. Smith & Sons Co., of Chicago, was here on Wednesday last.

Burn—To the wife of Wm. Straight, on Butter creek, Wednesday, July 14th, an eight pound boy.

H. Beckwith, of the Pacific Express Co., with headquarters at Portland, was here Wednesday last.

Frank Egison, of Hartman, suffered a dislocation of the knee cap on last Sunday night. He was brought to Heppner and Dr. McWord repaired the damage.

I. S. Hughes of E. W. Ross & Co., is in receipt of a telegram today from Rev. J. E. Moore, now of Mountville, Ark., formerly of Heppner, that he will debate with B. F. Underwood, a believer in "free thought," if satisfactory arrangements can be made, the debate to occur at Wagner in the near future.

Sick headache can be quickly and completely overcome by using those famous little pills known as "Dewitt's Little Early Risers." For sale by Conser & Brock.

Emil Voruz, wife and baby arrived from Baker City overland on last Wednesday and will remain two weeks.

Dr. P. B. McWord, of this place, had the honor of being one of the guests at the Golden Rule banquet given in honor of Hon. W. J. Bryan.

Walt Bartholomew and Josef Mueller have returned from their tour of the interior, visiting Gilliam, Crook, Harney and Grant counties on the trip.

Ask Wilson Brook if advertising has sold any of his headache wafers and if the new customer comes back again? If you have a good thing advertise it.

Wm. Douglas and family, of Butter creek, intend to move to Canada in the near future. The Gazette regrets to lose them as residents of our county. We can ill afford to give up any of our good citizens.

Lee Cantwell writes down from the mines about a bear hunt in which there were much noise and waste of powder but no game killed. He concludes by saying that he will have bear meat before he comes home or "but a gallus" in the attempt, may be both.

Rev. Henry Rasmus is "billed" to lecture here in the M. E. church on the evening of July 21st. Subject "Buttoned-up Possibilities." Nearly everybody in Heppner knows Henry and he should have a good house. As an orator he stands in the front rank; as a minister and a man he is loved and respected by all.

Jim Johnson, the postmaster, snatched into the Golden Rule hotel last evening just in time to be one of the last men to meet Mr. Bryan, says the Pendleton Tribune. He did not go there for that purpose, but when Mr. Walter Pierce requested him to come forward and meet the famous silver advocate, Mr. Johnson graciously consented.

"This is Mr. Johnson, our McKinley sound money democratic postmaster," said Mr. Pierce. Grasping the hand of the postmaster Mr. Bryan said: "May the Lord have mercy on your poor soul."

When the roars of laughter that greeted this expression had subsided, Mr. Johnson replied, still holding Mr. Bryan's hand: "That's all right, old man. We didn't do a thing to you—and we got our president just the same." And then the crowd laughed some more.
