

Marvelous Effects

System Broken Down and Hope Almost Abandoned—Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla. "For fifteen years I have suffered with catarrh and indigestion and my whole system was broken down. I had almost abandoned any hope of recovery. I purchased six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and its effects have been marvelous. It has made me feel like a new man. I am able to sleep well, have a good appetite, and I have gained several pounds in weight." JAMES WILDER, Oroville, Wash.

"I had a scrofula swelling on one side of my neck and ulcerated sores in my nostrils, caused by catarrh. I also had small, itching sores on my limbs. I bought three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and began taking it and the sores soon healed. My blood is purified, and the scrofula has disappeared." O. D. MCMANUS, Mission, Washington.

SPORTING BRIEVITIES.

A Few Hard Facts From Old Sport's Note Book.
The proud possessor of the flea-bitten canine has not as yet received the much prayed for relief at the hands of the council. He might as well dig up the necessary. But it is awful steep and will result disastrously to the dog enterprise in Heppner.

Eli Keeney has one of the $5 sort. He was bound to make some money this summer till the tax matter came up. Now he thinks that he will go out of business.
Every dog that doesn't belong to you is a worthless cur. Your dog is as splendid dog, "smart as a whip" and if he had been trained would have been a very, very valuable dog.

Dogs as regards ownership are like children. Your neighbor's child is a naughty brat, hasn't any manners, shows up "bad blood," ought to be cowhided till he couldn't see and will surely end in prison. Our child is a dear darling, is full of good, wholesome mischief, harmless as a lamb, intelligent beyond one of his years and takes after mamma's father who was a justice of the peace in Posey county and followed horse doctoring the rest of the time.

Sport is very particular about starting any scandalous rumors, but we fear that Fred Bartholomew will have to straighten matters a little with his wife on her return from Trout lake. Judge Bartholomew knows more about the circumstances, next to Sport, than any other living person, and it may be that the judge will keep the matter quiet and thereby prevent any family disturbances.

It is naughty for Dick Neville to fix up his tables so that one of the liberal dimensions and ample form of the Gazette's editor can't rest a moment while he discusses the important issues of the day with a friend.

Sport saw the editor try to make a reserved seat out of one of Dick's tables Sunday afternoon. Aside from spoiling an excellent thought, Dick's device was the instrument that proved to the satisfaction and general edification of the gathered class that the editor had a good, bass voice that would prove immensely valuable to a hog rancher. He jumped some distance into the air, said, "O-u-e-h; ————!" Then he caught on and did the sensible thing. He laughed too.

The summary of the races up in Montana, so far as the Oregon horses are concerned—those shipped from Heppner—are as follows, for the 15th inst.:
In the free-for-all pace, Kate Mediam won 2:13 1/2. Fellfare second and Chehalis, the Pendleton horse, third. The Oregon runners failed to appear.
On the 15th no Oregon horses participated, or, at any rate, won place.
On the 17th inst., I-Don't-Know won the five furlongs in 1:04, May second and Bill Howard third.

The seven furlongs was won by Alababad in 1:33 1/2, Close second, Latah third.
In the five and one-half furlongs, Cherry Leaf was first in 1:12 1/2, Gen. Coxe second and Chinook third.
The Eagle gives this account of the Burns races:

The races closed at Burns with the major portion of the laurels carried away by outsiders, which in this instance fortunately happened to be boys from Long Creek. Tom Williams was there with as two good animals as ever run on the interior tracks, Dutch and Gray Dick. Dutch won the quarter mile dash in 23 1/2 against Dick Hooten, Old Ben, Bill Nye and Butcher Boy. Gray Dick won the three-eighths mile dash against Dick Hooten, Bill Nye and Old Ben, in 38 1/2.
The half-mile dash failed to fill and the judges made a special quarter-mile dash and barred Dutch. Gray Dick was entered in this race against Dick Hooten and about the same horses as in the last race. This Dick won easily.
A consolation purse was hung for defeated horses. This of course barred both Dick and Dutch, and Clate Hinton mounted Oregon Chief, Sam Cross' Dayville animal, and won this race, leaving only the saddle horse race to be carried off by Harney county horses.

The boys at Burns are all good fellows and will do their best the next opportunity offered.
Rural Spirit: Senator Bland and I Don't-Know let the talent fall pretty hard last Tuesday at Anascondo.

LATE DEVELOPMENTS.

On last evening the town dads met and after due and deliberate consideration, proceeded to lessen the burdens of the citizens who own dogs by passing a resolution making the tax $1 and $3 for males and females, respectively. This is something like it. Now everybody can own a yellow cur with fourteen cords of bark in him, if he wants to—providing he possesses the dollar, of which he must become dispossessed at the same moment that he seeks Treasurer Briggs for a receipt. Sport returns thanks for favors received in the name of 400 Heppner dogs and suffering an over-taxed humanity.

Those who have paid their dog tax can get a "draw-down." It is handy to have a little loose change this warm weather.
The council put aside $500 last night with which to redeem outstanding warrants. Heppner has a lot of smart ducks on the town council. Interest saved is money made.

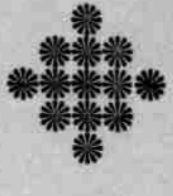

Geo. French came over late last week to sell his wool but found on arrival that this had been done, and at a satisfactory price.

Get your clothes made by the New York tailor. He carries a fine selection of foreign and domestic woolsens. Can fit you up in the latest styles. 681f

Wm. Douglass informs the Gazette that he intends to go to Canada on a visit, but will not locate there. He will probably go into business in some Eastern state.

EAGLETS.

From our Grant County Exchange.
Clate Hinton returned from Burns Sunday with Gray Dick and Dutch.
Tom Williams got in Tuesday from the Burns races. Long Creek horses were strictly "in it" at the late meet in Burns.
Thornton Williams and wife passed through the city yesterday en route to their home at Canyon City from a trip to Portland.

The John Day Sentinel has again suspended publication. The Eagle is sorry to learn of any brother's misfortune, but it takes money to run a newspaper, and no small amount of it either.
Uncle Jack Morrow came over from the McDuffee hot springs last Friday en route to his home at Heppner, after a six weeks' stay at Grant county's famous resort. He goes home much improved in health.

The Heppner telephone line was completed to John Day yesterday and no doubt by this time it is connected with Canyon City. Burns is to have the line extended on from Canyon City, and it is possible that this will be done yet this fall by a local company in Harney county if the Heppner company does not care to take hold of the proposition.

Messrs. T. R. and John Lyons came in this morning from Walls Walla. Mr. John Lyons will remain a few days before going to his home at Condon.

Chas. E. Miller is hauling in O. E. Farasworth's Rhea creek clip.

HEPPNER, OREGON.

A GOOD RECORD.

Sells a Large Number of Instruments at Heppner—Seeks Other Fields.
The public at large were aware that Joseph Mueller was doing an immense business in this section for the Wiley B. Allen Co., but will not be prepared for the large list that the Gazette herewith presents. He has sold instruments to the following parties:
Henry Blahm, C. O. Sargent, J. R. Lake, Wm. Dunn, Fred K. Bartholomew, E. G. Sperry, W. F. Dutton, Judge Bartholomew, Christian Church, Jas. P. Rhea, Joe Mason, Joe Woolery, E. W. Rhea, T. A. Driskell, D. E. Gilman, J. W. Vaughan, Chas. Beymer, I. O. O. F. lodge at Lone, Gene Campbell, A. T. McNay, and several county sales of which this paper has no special knowledge except that the instruments were sold.
Mr. Mueller was in Golendale two weeks this summer and made the record of ten instruments, all to the leading families of the place. Aside from giving every customer full value received, Mr. Mueller was very kind to the Heppner lodges last winter, assisting them in their entertainments. They have not forgotten this.
Mr. Mueller will be accompanied on his proposed trip to Northern California by Walter Bartholomew who, by the way, is a rattling good fellow and worthy of the confidence reposed in him by his employer. The Gazette expects to hear reports of big business from the travellers.

Notice to the Public.
Jong You, of the Dalles, has bought out the Wing Lee laundry on Court street. All obligations of Wing Lee will be settled by Wing. Jong You will continue the laundry business at the same old stand and solicits the patronage of the Heppner people. Everything done in first class shape.
Jong You, Heppner, Or.
Dated, Heppner, Or., July 19, 1897. 63-64

Wright Saling, of Eight Mile, feels like "a four-time winner" this spring—so he said to a reporter of this sheet last Saturday. He has a good crop.
T. W. Ayers insists that the Gazette got the distance a little too long in the "neighbor" story in last issue. It should have been 25 miles instead of 45.

WOOL NOTES.

Hon. John O. Luce is over from the John Day looking after his wool.
The John Day wools are among the best, if not the finest, that come to Heppner.
Bradstreet's last report shows a decided advance in the price of wool. This is cheering news to the producer.
F. H. Johnson, the Chicago wool-buyer, has gone to Montana and probably will not return again this season.
The wool business is a little quiet now, owing to the fact that the buyers have all been "called off" by their respective firms. This is owing mainly to the delay in the house and senate getting together on the tariff bill. However, as an agreement has been reached and the passage of the bill is decided upon by the conferees is assured and will soon become a law, buyers will again go into the markets in the very near future. According to Eastern reports wool is slowly advancing in price, despite the large amount of wool that has been imported this year.
Elegant clips from the John Day still continue to arrive. These should attract buyers.

A FOOT RACE ON.

Two Men Who are Said to be Fast Sprinters to Try Conclusions.
Some time ago a foot race was arranged between Bert Haynes, of Pendleton, and Frank Matthews, of this place, but the boys failed to get off the start in the allotted two hours, and the race was declared off. However, these men have been anxious ever since to run this off. Both have admirers and backers, and Sunday matters reached a climax by Haynes arriving from Pendleton, accompanied by Bronham Thompson, of Johnson, Whitman Co., W. W. Caviness and S. L. Morse, of Pendleton. Matthews has some Heppner backing, besides a lot of "valley" money behind him. A Mr. Minto is here from below, and it is said that he is willing to show his confidence in Matthews by backing him with a lot of hard cash. Let this be as it may, if reports are true the Heppner people will see a splendid contest.
The main stakes are for $300 a side, and the race will be run off between the hours of 10 a. m. and 12 o'clock tomorrow, at the race track. Come out and see the fun.

Dave Ackerman, the traveling man, visited his Wagner sheep ranch last week, getting back to Heppner on Saturday.

Hile Corbis was down from "the reservation," as Free Green calls it, on Saturday. He says that there will be an immense potato crop up that way.

Mrs. Thos. Pullen died at Lone Rock at 2 p. m. Monday, of cancer of the breast. The remains were interred in the Lone Rock cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

C. W. Fuller, who used to be located in Morrow county over on Rhea creek, but who has been absent for the past three years, living in Southern Oregon, is back to bunchgrass again.

D. F. Campbell, the Portland contractor, was here last week, the guest of William Hughes. Mr. Campbell built the Portland hotel and numerous other large structures in Portland.

R. H. Robinson, a young business man of Arlington, was here last week, "looking round." Mr. Robinson has sold his Arlington store and is "winding up" the old business.
