

Marvelous Effects

System Broken Down and Hope Almost Abandoned—Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For fifteen years I have suffered with catarrh and indigestion and my whole system was broken down. I had almost abandoned any hope of recovery. I purchased six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and its effects have been marvelous. It has made me feel like a new man. I am able to sleep well, have a good appetite, and I have gained several pounds in weight." JAMES WILDER, Oroville, Wash.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills cure nausea, indigestion, biliousness. 25 cents.

Take Notice.

The sum of five cents per line will be charged for "cards of thanks," "resolutions of respect," "lists of wedding presents and donors, and obituary notices, (other than those the editor shall himself give as a matter of news,) and notices of special meetings for whatever purpose."

A GOOD CLUBBING LIST.

Now that the great political campaign is over and the winter season again with us, all will want an adequate supply of fresh and varied reading matter for the long evenings. Cognizant of this the Gazette has made clubbing arrangements with a number of periodicals and now offers the following to all new and renewal subscribers:

Table with 2 columns: Publication Name and Price. Includes The GAZETTE, Weekly Oregonian, S. F. Examiner, N. Y. Tribune, Inter-Ocean, S. F. Chronicle, Three-a-Week, Webbfoot Planter, Leslie's Weekly.

METH. EPISC. CHURCH.

Here and There.

Mrs. Dr. Hunlock is on the sick list. All low shoes at cost at Minor & Co's. T. L. Barnett, of Lexington, is in the city. Shorthorn dairy for best milk and cream. Mrs. E. J. Sloan has returned from Portland.

E. O.: Miss Myrtle Smith has returned from a visit with her parents at Lone, Morrow county. J. E. Natter has had electric lights put into the brewery. It's quite an improvement over the antideluvian system. Miss Joanie Noble, who has been visiting friends in The Dalles for several months past, returned home this morning.

Another important gold discovery was made the other day in New Orleans. A saloon keeper discovered that he had paid $7,000 for two "gold bricks" worth about 7 cents a pound. Ben Swagart wants to rent 600 acres of farming land to some good man for two years.

Mike Roberts who has been attending the races at Ansonds and Butte, Mont., arrived in Heppner Saturday. Dave McAtee and Geo. Swagart are expected some time during this week. A Missouri farmer figured one rainy day that he had walked 800 miles in cultivating one acre of corn.

Prof. J. H. Ackerman, of Portland, arrived in Heppner Sunday, and is occupying the position as one of the instructors of the Morrow county institute which is in session in Heppner this week. To heal the broken and diseased tissues, to soothe the irritated surfaces, to instantly relieve and to permanently cure is the mission of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

Many persons refuse credit now-a-days when offered to them, and resolve to live strictly within their means. This is a pleasant contrast with methods of business that were in vogue a few years ago. Moments are useless if trifled away; and they are dangerously wasted if consumed by delay in cases where One Minute Cough Cure would bring immediate relief.

Dr. A. L. Beattie, of Pendleton, has been at the Palace for the past three days, having been called over here to do dental work. He leaves this evening for his home very favorably impressed with our prosperous little city. No man or woman can enjoy life or accomplish much in this world while suffering from a torpid liver. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes, strengthens and heals. It is the great pile cure.

Miss Ada M. Jones, who has been teaching school in Hardman during the summer, arrived in Heppner Sunday. Miss Jones will have charge of the pupils of the primary department of the Heppner public school this coming session. Rev. Father Briody, of Condon, will hold services at the Catholic church in this city, on Sunday, Sept. 26. Father Briody informs the Gazette that some time during the fall he will move his headquarters from Condon to Heppner.

E. H. Fitch, a special agent of the government from Washington, D. C., passed through Heppner Saturday on his return from Grant county, where he had been sent to take testimony of parties who claim damages from the government for Indian depredations. The following is said to be the bill of fare at a fashionable Klondike restaurant: Horse sandwich, $10; broiled dog with gold dust, $10; barbecued bootlegs with straps, $5; stewed felt hat with trimmings, $4; fried mackintoshes, rain-soaked, $7; boiled wagon covers with axle grease, $2; pickled wagon tongues sliced, $1.

Fish and snake stories are not in it any more. A report comes from Grant county that a man down there went out in his garden the other day, planted a cucumber seed and started on a run for the house, but before he could get out of the garden, the cucumber vine overtook him, wound around his leg and threw him down; he ran his hand in his pocket to get his knife and pulled out a cucumber six inches long. The hero of this story is said to be a populist, which makes it all the more voluptuous and true. An exchange prints the following fervent prayer which a colored minister made in behalf of a fellow minister: "O, Lord, gib him de eye of an eagle, dat he spy out sin sfar off. Way his han's to de gospel plow. Tie his tongue to de line ob truth. Nail his ear to de gospel pole. Bow his head away down 'tween his knees, an his knees 'way down in some lonesome, dar' an' 'sarrer valley, whar prayer sin much wanted to be made. O, Lord, count him wid de kerensine ole ob salvation an' sot him 'an' free."

FOR YOU!

Now Prepared to do Any Kind of Printing—Don't Send Your Orders Away 'Till You Get the Gazette's Estimates Heretofore the Gazette's job department has tried to do no work other than plain printing. However, this shop is now prepared to tackle anything in any line and will meet prices of any person under the sun in the line of druggists' supplies, black books, bank work, county work, or any sort of book binding—work that you have heretofore sent away to get done.

The Gazette shop is not a charity concern but it will give you a chance we will see that you are satisfied in every particular. Buy your goods at home. Remember that Abe Lincoln said that when one bought goods away from home the foreigner got the money and we got the goods. But when the goods were bought at home we had both money and goods. This is good doctrine. We are willing to abide by it. When the printing drummer comes to town, remember it and call up 'phone No. 3. 500-14

MEMOIR

Ide E. Stevenson was born in Heppner, Oregon, Aug. 21, 1870, and died in the same place Aug. 26, 1897, aged 18 years and five days. Her death was sudden and unexpected and a great shock to her family. She was of a cheerful and affectionate disposition and beloved by a wide circle of young associates; the youngest of a family of grown children, who, with father and mother, mourn the early death of one who was especially dear to all. The funeral at the M. E. church, South, was a large gathering of friends and schoolmates to tender their tribute of sympathy and love. The schoolmates of the deceased furnished appropriate music. Rev. E. P. Green preached from Psalm 17-15, last clause. There was a profusion of floral offerings by the numerous friends of the family. E. P. G.

They Are the "Mustard"

Meadows & Hatten, the pioneer blacksmiths, have made some elegant improvements in their establishment and added a large stock of iron, horseshoes and other materials essential to the happiness of those who need quick repairs on their wagons, buggies or any kind of machinery. They have extended their room so as to accommodate everybody in the country who is in need of repairs. When you want a horse shed, machine repaired, tire set or anything else in their line, you will find Meadows & Hatten to be the boys that can do it—good do it right—in short order.
