

Marvelous Effects

System Broken Down and Hope Almost Abandoned—Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"For fifteen years I have suffered with catarrh and indigestion and my whole system was broken down. I had almost abandoned any hope of recovery. I purchased six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and its effects have been marvelous. It has made me feel like a new man. I am able to sleep well, have a good appetite, and I have gained several pounds in weight." JAMES WILSON, Oroville, Wash.

"I had a scrofula swelling on one side of my neck and ulcerated sores in my nostrils, caused by catarrh. I also had small, itching sores on my limbs. I bought three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and began taking it and the sores soon healed. My blood is purified, and the scrofula has disappeared." O. D. McMANUS, Mission, Washington.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

SPORTING NOTES.

A Few Brief Thoughts Picked Up Along the Line.

The evidences of better times cropped out very materially in Heppner last Saturday. Everybody seemed to have money, and the sounds of revelry heard 'way along in the dead watches of the night, proved conclusively that some of it was being spent. There was a steady demand for all kinds of merchandises all day, the saloons coming in for their portion.

Most of the farmers of our country have raised good crops and having a good market for it can't help having money. Wheat today is 72 cents per bushel at Heppner. The market is good and strong and may go a great deal higher.

The Spokane Review publishes the following in its column of race notes:

Chehalis, after a preliminary warm-up, was sent a mile in 2:12 with ease, his owner and driver, Mr. Frazer, easing him up during the last part of the mile.

It was the general opinion of the horsemen that had he been driven he could have made the mile in 2:04. During the week this horse will go for the world's two-mile record. Chehalis is a coal-black, and his exceptional beauty wins the admiration of horsemen wherever he appears. His owner, Mr. Frazer, drives him and looks after him as carefully as if he were a baby.

Frank Howard has the celebrated Red S, who holds the world's record for three-eighths of a mile in 34 seconds.

Frank Reed has 1-Don't-Know. This horse holds the Montana record for five-eighths of a mile, made this year in 1:31 1/2. Mr. Reed also has American Boy, another celebrated goer.

D. C. Reynolds has four horses. Do tell, Aquora, University and Joe Cotton. Joe Cotton, one of the horses at the track, has raced from Washington to New York and has never failed to win pieces of money. This horse beat everything in San Francisco at the races three years ago last winter at five-eighths of a mile. He was then taken east and showed his heels to the best sprinters at Gravesend.

D. McAttee has Latab and General Coxy.

At Rhea & Co.'s you can get silverware for nothing. Come and see if you can't, 9-21.

Messrs. Meadows & Hatten have been making extensive changes in their blacksmith shop.

Green Mathews handles home grown fruits, clean and fresh. Consignments received daily, 78-11.

Five new lines just opened up by E. W. Rhea & Co. No old, shabby worn goods to work off, 9-21.

John T. McAllister and family will move to Lexington for the winter to school the children.

John Bennett arrived from The Dalles this morning and will take his brother, Say, below for treatment.

Rev. W. E. Potwine arrived this morning from Pendleton and will hold services this evening in the M. E. church.

The Gazette acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Spokane races, in progress this week.

Those cloaks and capes at Rhea & Co.'s are going fast. You should come early before the best are all gone, 9-2.

Rhea & Co. are offering special inducements to cash trade. It will be to your interest to trade with them, 9-21.

E. W. Rhea & Co. are second to none when it comes to a display of boots and shoes. No better stock in the city, 9-2.

Remember that you can get 10 per cent rebate on all dry goods you buy for cash at the store of E. W. Rhea & Co., 9-21.

A beautiful line of cloaks, capes and wraps on display at E. W. Rhea & Co's. The prices will suit your pocketbook, 9-21.

Royal Spirit: Chehalis, the Oregon pacer, has set a mark in Montana that will likely be shot at some time to come.

Cross & Blackwell's fancy pickles and canned goods, reduced prices, Orange Front, opp. City Hotel, Cor. Main and Willow streets, 53-11.

Green Mathews has everything in the grocery line—flour, vegetables, staple and fancy groceries. At the new stand, City hotel building, 78-11.

Miss Altha Leach has received her fall and winter stock of millinery. She invites the ladies to call and examine her stock of sample hats, 9-21.

J. L. Gibson has taken the Jones' barber stand and does good work at popular prices, 15 cents shaving and 25 cents haircutting, 78-11.

Every new subscriber of the Gazette from this date, May 25, 1897, will receive as a premium a book worth alone the price of the subscription, 11.

If you can't abide by statistics, you can skip this. With the exception of five light vehicles, Minor & Co. sold one full car of wagons last week, 578-79.

"cases" discussed. Thursday afternoon a lecture will be delivered to the ladies, commencing at 3:30. Other announcements will be made by the doctor from time to time.

Markets rising and everything is looking fair once more. You can now get your wife a brand new cloak. The finest line in Heppner now on sale at the leaders, Minor & Co., 578-79.

Dr. J. E. Adkins, the dentist, will be here about Oct. 1. Those wishing anything in the line of dentistry should call on him as soon as he arrives, for his stay will be a brief one, 79-82.

By the way, have you a boy or two in the family? Bring them down to Rhea & Co.'s and fit them out. They have the finest line of boys' clothing ever brought to Heppner, 9-21.

No man or woman can enjoy life or accomplish much in this world while suffering from a torpid liver. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, it soothes, strengthens and heals. It is the great cure. For sale by Conser & Brock, 77-11.

A POPULAR LECTURER.

Dr. Del MacClair's Series of Lectures Well Attended—The Dr. an Interesting Talker.

In connection with the visit of Dr. Del MacClair, representing the Oriental Syndicate, of San Francisco, the Gazette is reminded of a very complimentary notice which appeared in a recent issue of the Astorian concerning the doctor and which in the judgment of the Gazette scribe seems to give him no more credit than he justly deserves. It is as follows:

The popularity of Dr. Del MacClair, the learned scientist, increases with the increased attendance of the best classes of citizens of Astoria. It is seldom that the people have opportunity to get so much valuable information relating to the preservation and development of physical and mental health and strength, imparted in such a pleasing and convincing manner. The gentlemanly conducting of Dr. MacClair during his sojourn in the city, as well as the unimpeachable testimonials he carries from eminent citizens in other places visited by him during his long and useful career as a public lecturer, is a sufficient guaranty that all who have dealings with him will carry away the satisfaction of having met a gentleman of scholastic attainments.

Those who have met Dr. MacClair have found him to be very much of a gentleman, and certainly his lectures have been profitable as well as enjoyable. The attendance was excellent on Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights. This afternoon a lecture was delivered to the ladies, and tonight the doctor will talk to the men. Tomorrow night both sexes will have the privilege of hearing the subject, "Brains and Nervous Dis-

Expect his Commission Soon.

Sheriff Zoe Houser does not expect his commission before next Friday, but thinks by that time he will be United States marshal of Oregon. Zoe is not in the least concerned about Mr. Grady's reappointment, which he does not view as a political dodge but as a matter of necessity. It will not take long to find a new sheriff when Mr. Houser leaves, as there are several active aspirants.—E. O.

George Hufford has some fine half-breed Cotswell bucks, out of Merion ewes which he wishes to sell at reasonable figures. He will be at E. L. Matlock's corral on about Sept. 20. Call on him, 79-11.

Moments are useless if trifled away; and they are dangerously wasted if consumed by delay in cases where One Minute Cough Cure would bring immediate relief. For sale by Conser & Brock.

On last Saturday night, while playing "black man" at a spelling school out at "House Log" school house, on Balm Fork of Rhea creek, John Medsker suffered a broken right clavicle. Dr. McSwor's patched him up.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

R. C. Willis Has Decided to Close Out His Large Stock of Merchandise at Cost.

The Gazette is informed that Mr. R. C. Willis, the merchant, has decided to go out of business at Heppner and now proposes to sell everything at cost for spot cash. This sale will continue till the whole stock is disposed of.

"This is not a bogus 'closing out sale,' and Mr. Willis desires the public to know it. When he says 'cost' he means 'cost.' Come in and look over his immense stock of goods and pick out your winter outfit, 79-11.

Are Ready for Business.

After about 8 weeks of labor in building and enlarging their store E. W. Rhea & Co. have at last got ready for the fall trade and have opened up the most extensive stock of goods displayed in Heppner for many a year. Their store has been completely arranged and now presents a very tasty and attractive appearance. In the next issue of the Gazette will be presented to our readers a large display ad. that will call your attention to a few of the special lines this store has to offer to the public. Look out for it, 11.

Frank McFarland has been appointed special agent of The Equitable Life Assurance Co. of New York, the strongest in the world. Cash surplus to policy holders of over $3 million; dollars. Don't take insurance without seeing the new plans of the Equitable. Insures both sexes at same rates, 77-11.

THE CITY OF CANEA.

The Capital of Crete and Scene of Recent Trouble.

Canea, or Khandia, since 1841 the capital of Crete, and its principal seaport, is situated on the northern coast of the island, and about 25 miles from its western extremity on the isthmus of the Akrotiri peninsula, which lies between the Bay of Canea and the Bay of Suda. It is on the site of the ancient Cydonia, the principal commercial town of the island, with a population of about 15,000. It is closely built, irregular and overcrowded, and surrounded by a massive Venetian wall. Of late years a few of the streets have been widened.

The ordinary buildings are of wood, though a few of the more important are of more solid materials. There are some Greek churches, a number of Turkish mosques, a Jewish synagogue, a military hospital in an old Venetian building, and a substantially constructed prison. The town is laid out in gardens; public gardens have been constructed outside the walls and artesian wells have been bored by the government. The harbor is 1,200 feet long, formed by an ancient transverse mole, indicated by a lighthouse and protected by a fort. The harbor is shallow, but affords safe anchorage for vessels of 300 tons.

Oil, soap and wax are the principal exports; shipping on a small scale is carried on in the port, and there is considerable manufacture of leather.

The town is the seat of the Greek bishop, suffragan to the metropolitan of Candia. It is also the official residence of the European consuls. In 1856 the town suffered severely from an earthquake.—Toledo Blade.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—Thieves borrowed a wheelbarrow to cart away a stolen stove at Toronto and were arrested just as they reached a second-hand dealer's shop.

—More eyes must be damaged each year than most people suppose. Two million glass eyes are manufactured every year in Germany and Switzerland.

—A religious sect in the Bengal presidency worships Queen Victoria as their chief divinity. She is also an object of worship in one of the temples of Tibet.

—William H. Manson, the sailor who carried Farragut ashore on his back at the siege of New Orleans, died at his home in York, Me., the last of January.

—A Chinaman advertises in newspapers of the City of Mexico a first-class American restaurant where fresh oysters will be supplied whenever called for.

—On statistics furnished by the pharmacists it is estimated that there are in Paris alone at least 50,000 victims of the morphia habit, among them 30,000 women.

—Many persons fall into the error of supposing that all fish is alike wholesome. Mackerel is one of the most oily of fish and the most difficult to digest, and should be entirely abstained from except by persons in the best of health. Whiting is the most wholesome and digestible fish, and next to that comes sole.

—New York's surplus of vagrants might find a more congenial field in Lincoln, Neb., where out of 50 tickets given out by the Theosophical society for free supper, the holders of only four presented them for meals, and in the first hour of a free dinner served by Ballington Booth's volunteers only four persons came to partake of it.

—The owner of a granite quarry in Frankfort, Me., testifies that he sells stumpage for granite at eight cents a cubic yard for dimension stone and at six cents for gravel. Grout granite is of irregular shape, and all sizes from a paving stone up. Cost, 60 cents a cubic yard, including stumpage, to get dimension granite from quarry to wharf; 60 to 65 cents a yard for grook.
