Sargent returned from Portland yesterday. C. D. Robinson was in from Lone Rock Wednesday. Isa Jacobs called on his customers here Wednesday. J. M. Brown was over from Lone Rock Wednesday. J. W. Bristol visited the drug trade here Wednesday. Walter Keeney is over from Long Creek for merchandise. Miss Maggie Horner has returned from a visit to relatives at Sumpter. Miss Elsie Jones has returned from a visit to Independence, Or., and vicinity. John Carmichael reports a pretty fair crop down on his ranch near Lexington. Geo. B. Tedrowe returned on Wednesday from Sumpter. He thinks well of Baker county. Jake Carter and other residents of Grant county left today with merchandise for Monument. Mrs. W. E. Brock returned home from Sumpter, where she had been visiting relatives, on Sunday last. Ben Mitchell was among his friends Wednesday with the view of selling a few more "egg" goods. Jake Young was down yesterday from his Eight Mile ranch. He will pay everything he owes this year and have money left. S. M. Teed is in after a summer's experience as a mutton monarch. Sam says he needs rest and will not likely herd this winter. Farmers report but few grasshoppers left, except some very young ones and the cool weather and frosts are doing them up nicely. Smith Burch has heard from his uncle, Os Burch, who is now at Junction. He will certainly not try to reach Klondike this winter. Three cattle buyers from Nebraska passed through here the first of the week. They desire to purchase 500 head and left for the interior. Geo. Ely, who has been living in the valley for some months, was seen on our streets yesterday. Mr. Ely is stopping for a few weeks at Douglas. Rev. Thos. Bridy writes that he is sick and cannot be here to hold services on Sept. 30th. He hopes, however, to be here in the course of a few weeks. O. B. Loomis, representing the Portland Telegram, and C. E. Evans Bros. raised a fair crop on their hill ranch this year but the "creek" place below town did not pan out owing to the ravages of grasshoppers. The bunchgrass farmer is severely in it. F. Cohn, of Heppner & Co., informs a Gazette reporter that 40 bags of wool remain in their warehouse instead of 36, as reported by Sport elsewhere in this issue. In any event it beats the record of all former years. A. N. While the arm will not be "as good as new," yet it will come out a pretty fair arm and better than none. ### FROM SPORT'S NOTEBOOK.

A Few Facts With But Little Fiction—The Spokane Races. The races up at Spokane are in progress this week. They have not been essentially prosperous for our Morrow county boys. On last Monday I-Don't-Know took first money in a half mile race in 0:48 1/2. On Tuesday Chehalis made 2:07 1/2 against time and Red S. took second money in the quarter dash. On Thursday Joe Cotton won the five and one-half furlongs in 1:08 1/2 and Red S. took the three eights in 0:35 1/2. The town authorities have thirteen licensed dogs on record. There are thirteen hundred more that should be similarly recorded. For dogs that howl and make life scarcely worth living Heppner takes the cake. F. H. Johnson took Silas Wright's clip of wool on consignment and advanced 11 cents per pound on it. This is the best figure for Morrow county wool this year. It will net not less than 12 cents. You cannot convince Silas that we ought to have free raw material in these diagin's. Sam Wikenson bought the Corrigall clip. Sport thought Mr. Johnson got it. The path of life is mightily checkered by these little errors, and we hope to be forgiven. It's no article of anybody anyhow. Geo. Swagart is back from Montana. Geo. doesn't complain of having gotten rich up at the races. In fact he looks like a man who could enjoy the bounteous table of the home ranch. Sport has had some of the same sort of experience. S. M. Chase, better known as "U. P. Sam," dropped in on us Saturday and regaled the populace with some of his songs. He is an old-timer like the tune he sings, but he's an entertainer—no doubting that. A runaway team on Main street Monday in which the biggest one of the horses was a mule was stopped by some lusty hograiser who yelled "Whoa!" two hundred yards away. Geo. Rader sold two Long Creek clips Monday for 11 and 12 cents, respectively. This wool was stored in Heppner's warehouse, and leaves but 36 bags on-hand. This beats the record and Sport will gamble on it.

E. W. Rhea & Co. have a splendid line of boys, mens and ladies machinetoshes in the very latest style. Now is the time to buy these goods. 80-1

The last heard from Dr. Bestie, Jas. Jackson and Jack Lathrop was from Lake Bennett, at the head of the Yukon. This will be the last letter for the season.

Tea is "good" when you like it; not good when you don't.

If you don't like Schilling's Best, the grocer pays you back your money; we pay him to do so.

It is a good tea, well cured, and fired in San Francisco—not in Asia.

A Schilling & Company San Francisco 80-1

Wants to Sell. I want to sell on long time my Eight Mile ranch—400 acres in fallow, 1200 acres good grass, water plenty in three sections, all fenced in one body with three wires; 2 camps, sheds panels, water troughs outside for 2000 sheep. Title direct from government—no incumbrance. If not sold will lease on favorable terms. A few tons of hay on ranch. For particulars write me. Also, I will exchange miles for fence posts. See John Stanley, of Goshberry, or Thos. W. Ayers, of Heppner. C. E. FELL, Pendleton, Or. 80-3

Those who desire to build should not forget that C. E. Ranous, the contractor, is ready to make estimates at any time. 60-11

Did you know that E. W. Rhea & Co. are occupying five times as much floor space as formerly? It's a fact. And our stock fills this extra space, too. This is also a fact. 80-1
