Going East?

IF YOU ARE, DO NOT FORGET

Three Important Points.

FIRST—Go via St. Paul because the lines to that point will afford you the very best service.

SECOND—See that the coupon beyond St. Paul reads via the Wisconsin Central because that line makes close connections with all the trans-continental lines entering the Union Depot there, and its service is first-class in every particular.

THIRD—For information, call on your neighbor and friend—the nearest ticket agent—and ask for a ticket reading via the Wisconsin Central lines, or address J. C. Pond, Gen. Pas. Agt., Milwaukee, Wis. or Geo. S. Batty, General Agent, 246 Clark St., Portland, Or.

OF MANCHESTER, ENGLAND OTIS PATTERSON, AGENT. One of the Best in the World

McClure's Magazine

For 1897 SEVEN GREAT SERIALS

A New Life of Grant by HAMILTON GARLAND. The first authoritative and adequate Life of Grant ever published. (Begins in December.) Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begun in November.) Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still unpublished (Begins in May.) Charles A. Dana, "Recollections of War Times." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoln's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence. D. A. Greenwood has leased Vileco's stable and feed yard. Wheat hay, per span, 50 cents. Call on him. Handy to warehouses. Best of care taken of stock. 81-11

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS. IAN MACLAREN. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engaged from him long ago, will appear in McClure's Magazine. JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Timblenigger" stories. RUDYARD KIPLING. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McClure's all of the short stories he will write during the coming year. OCTAVE THURNEILL. Preparing for the Magazine a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself. Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr Frank R. Stockton Stanley Weyman Clark Russell

These are only a small fraction of the great and important features of McClure's Magazine for 1897, the subscription price of which is only

One Dollar a Year

The new volume begins with November. Subscriptions should start with this number. The S. S. McClure Co., New York.

WEEKLY THE MONTHLY Outlook

Published Every Saturday 13 Astor Place New York

The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things; and, in short, aims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty-fifth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturday—fifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issue, together with a large number of pictures.

The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.

They Are the "Mustard"

Meadows & Hatten, the pioneer blacksmiths, have made some elegant improvements in their establishment and added a large stock of iron, horseshoes and other materials essential to the happiness of those who need quick repairs on their wagons, buggies or any kind of machinery. They have extended their room so as to accommodate everybody in the country who is in need of repairs. When you want a horse shoe, machine repaired, tire set or anything else in their line, you will find Meadows & Hatten to be the boys that can do it—and do it right—in short order.

The Gazette does not question the honesty of any person, but it is compelled to insist upon the cash-in-advance plan of subscription, whether the subscriber be Cornelius Vanderbilt or the man who earns his bread by honest toil. We cannot run the paper on any other plan.
