Father Cured of Scrofula.

HIS DAUGHTER OF ST. VITUS' DANCE

Facts Vouched for and Sworn to.
From the Tribune, Minneapolis, Minn.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have brought joy into the home of G. N. Bessel, 333 Hennepin Avenue, the well known Minneapolis decorator and painter. For over ten years Mr. Bessel was afflicted with scrofula in an aggravated form, causing running sores to continually form on the back of the neck and extend up into the hair. Today he is cured and happy—twice happy we might say; for his daughter who is now fourteen years of age had the terrible nervous affliction known as St. Vitus' dance, and has also been greatly improved by the use of these pills. In relating his experience to a Tribune reporter, he said:

"I have had the annoyance nearly twelve years, consisting chiefly of scrofulous tumors on the back of my head and neck. I tried many remedies without receiving the relief desired. It was after persistent efforts of a friend to induce me to use Pink Pills for Pale People, that I yielded, and the result is that now I cannot express my thanks fittingly to that friend for his persistency. I know these pills are a good thing for scrofula. You can see for yourself the dry marks and red spots left on my neck, where formerly were eruptions that emitted matter and the vilest odors of the blood. Now they don't even itch, and I believe I am practically cured."

"I want to tell you, about the great benefit my daughter, who is now fourteen years old, also received from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For two years she had St. Vitus' dance and we did everything we could hear of to relieve her, but have never found anything that equals these pills. She has used four boxes and is nearly cured. We have great faith in them, and will continue their use when afflicted."

This is to certify that I have had a very favorable experience with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I have suffered more or less for seven years with inflammatory rheumatism and neuralgic pains, sometimes unable to walk for three weeks at a time, and in one instance had such intense pain in the stomach and around the heart that I thought each hour for three days would be my last. Having seen articles in the papers about your pills, I concluded to give them a trial, and have used ten boxes with marvelous results. Have felt better the past month and more free from pain than for many years. I shall continue their use.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppression, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature. They are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., and sold by all druggists at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

Enlarged Joints from Rheumatism
Such a Condition Indicates a Chalky Deposit and is Seldom Cured—There is Hope in Some Cases, However, from an Enriching of the Blood.
From the Record and Union, Rochester, Minn.
Mrs. Elizabeth Pratt, wife of Mr. John Pratt, one of the oldest settlers in Olmsted county, Minnesota, for many years has been painfully afflicted with rheumatism in its most aggravating and inconvenient form. Mrs. Pratt is well known in the vicinity of Viola, having during one administration held the responsible position of postmistress. She tells the tale of her affliction and subsequent restoration to health, which is printed in order that others similarly suffering may read and adopt the same remedy she did.
VIOLA, Olmsted Co., Minn., August 24, '96.
"A little over ten years ago I discovered that the joints of my fingers were enlarging, and very sore. I consulted many physicians, with some slight relief at times from pain, but the joints grew larger and larger, and my neck, shoulders and limbs were so stiff that I could man power, no horses or donkey engines being employed. They expect to have it in this week.

The same night that our flood came Dyea had a flood far more severe. There were several hundred persons camped on the flat at Sheep Camp above Dyea. At two in the morning the water came down in a solid breast, washing men out of bed. Fifteen are missing. Five bodies have been recovered, including one woman. Several whole outfits were carried away, many men and a few women escaping in their night clothes, losing money, clothes, grub and all. Two of the men that came out each in a abbreviated garment came down here with me.
The steamer, Willamette, has just come in. Only brought a few passengers. The steamer, Detroit, sails at two. There are fifty tickets now sold. They will sail for Seattle, then to the west end of "Home." No more Klondike for them. There are many more that would willingly return if they had means to go on. Horses have depreciated seventy-five per cent. since I landed here. Supplies are getting cheaper every day—flour $3 per hundred, bacon 10 cents, potatoes $1 per sack, hay $10 per ton, oats half cent per pound, apples 75 cents per box, butter $1 per roll, fresh milk fifty cents per quart, scow at $1; whiskey, "Old Crow," selling price, $10 per gallon, buying price, fifty cents per drink.
Respectfully yours,

THE MORAVIAN VIEW OF DEATH.
A Beautiful and Impressive Custom of the Moravians.
Clifford Howard contributes to the Ladies' Home Journal an interesting article upon the Moravians of Bethlehem, Pa., and their religious customs:
"Upon the death of one of the congregation," he writes, "the event is announced, not by the monotonous, mournful tolling of the bell, but by deep-breathing, melodious music of trombones, played in the open balcony steeple of the church by the trombone choir; and as the deep, sweet tones of the familiar hymn are borne to the people below they reverently drop their work to listen. 'Hark! they whisper, the horns are blowing; some one has gone home!'—perhaps—perhaps nothing more beautifully exemplifies the perfect, unquestioning faith of these devout people than that expressive utterance, the sincerity of which is ever demonstrated by the lack of mourning at the passing away of a member of the household, however dearly beloved; so true and so heartfelt is the Moravian belief that death is but the entrance to a brighter, happier home. The trombones are also used at the touching funeral services held at the grave; and amid their sad, yet inspiring, strains the departed one is laid to his eternal rest. On all occasions, whether of death or joy, the trombones lend their sweet solemnity in fitting breath. From the steeple they herald the festival day of each of the choirs, and in all open-air services their melodious tones are ever present."
