OLD SPORT.

A Few News Notes and Happenings—Facts and No Fictions.

Sport is back again. The season of the "sere and yellow leaf" stimulates him to make a few random remarks.

The most wonderful piece of wind machinery is reported from the sand, by J. O. Warmoth. Now even Mark Twain would say that Warmoth is truthful. Recently an emigrant passed through Warmoth's place, on the old emigrant road, in the old-fashioned prairie schooner, rigged with sails, the wagon being steered by a pair of oxen that can be bought anywhere for $1.50 a piece. The outfit looked like a Chinese pirate ship, with its big, square sail, but it took the wagon along and the horses had to trot to keep out of the way of the "schooner." The owner said he couldn't "tack" very well, but as he was going through lanes most of the time in an easterly direction, with the wind at his back, he wasn't very particular. He will blow over into Idaho and it things don't suit may catch a Wyoming spherix and drop in about Rawlins.

Pat Minor says that up about Fairhaven it is all "Baker." Klondike doesn't shine there. He is responsible for the story that even the frogs have caught up the refrain.

Sounds of revelry by night have been heard of late. It is a sign of better times. "Strange that when people grow richer they fall to grow wiser and better."

A card was picked up in the mountains recently on which a loving swain had written burning words about his true love, and said he thought something of going out on the "bouncing willows." If he don't mind he will get his feet wet.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

The Gazette is informed that Mr. R. C. Willis, the merchant, has decided to go out of business at Heppner and now proposes to sell everything at cost for spot cash. This sale will continue till the whole stock is disposed of.

This is not a bogus "closing out sale," and Mr. Willis desires the public to know it. When he says "cost" he means "cost." Come in and look over his immense stock: I goods and pick out your winter outfit. 79if

HOW TO FIND 'OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention the Heppner Gazette and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

ON THE ALLEY.

The following scores were made on C. S. Van Duren's alley, at some time during the week ending Sept. 30th: Hal Minor, 42; C. S. Van Duren, 47; Orville Jones, 41; Jas. Wallace, 44; Ed. Saling, 40; C. E. Redfield, 43; J. McFerrin, 41; Frank Raaman, 45; C. Reppe, 35; Walter Van Duren, 45; Green Matthews, 40; Will Spencer, 43; Ed. Matlock, 41; Dan Henshaw, 40; Frank Rogers, 15.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

A notice has been placed at the entrance to the long walk at Windsor park, in London, prohibiting motor cars from passing either up or down the royal avenue.

A well-known London horse dealer not long ago died from worry caused by bad debts. There is a likelihood of something like £14,000 out of £17,000—being paid to the widow.

Baroness de Hirsch has signified her intention to erect and endow a home for Jewish consumptives. She has, with that object, placed under the control of her relative, Mrs. Bischoffheim, Sir Edward Sassoon and Frank Lucas a sum between £40,000 and £50,000.

The office of librarian at the English house of lords will become vacant in a few weeks by the retirement of Mr. Pulman, who has held this post for 35 years. The salary is £150 a year, with an excellent official residence. The post is in the gift of the lord chancellor.

Mrs. Irving, of Shild Bunnfoot, near Langholm, England, visited that town to discharge some business. She had just left the shop of a cabinetmaker when a varicose vein in her leg burst, and, though medical aid was at once sent for, she died to death in a few minutes.

At Bloomers county court in England before his honor Judge Bacon there were two plaintiffs in an action—husband and wife. When they got into the box it was found that the wife could not talk and the husband was deaf. Judge Bacon's only comment was: "Dear me!"

The West-Australian gold fields show little difference from the Victorian fields of the '50s in their extravagance and prodigality. At the banquet recently given in Kalgoorlie to celebrate the opening of the railway "champagne flowed in miniature torrents," 1,600 bottles being consumed.
