LIVELY SCENES.

Two Prisoners Give Marshal Hager Leg and Get Away—Not Recaptured. Out of an effort to keep minors out of the Belvedere saloon Tuesday evening, trouble arose which culminated in the arrest of Chas. Manning and Chas. Van Duyn.

Wednesday morning he was taken out for trial and asked to go home to get his hat. Marshal Hager accompanied him to the stairway, over the Garrigues May street store building.

The following is a list of the names of all those pupils who have been neither absent or tardy from school during the month of September: Room 1, Miss Jones; Lulu Campbell, Anna Friedrich, Sybil Hager, Rutha Hager, Zylpha Hager, Geola Hornor, Mary Krug, Alma Marlett, Juanita Matlock, Ida McAtee, Bessie Oeman, Silvia Shipley, Lorna Meadows, Amy McHaley, Albert Adkins, Kollo Casey, Earnest Clark, Harold Dunn, Joyce Flesher, Earl Gilman, Bernice Hughes, Clarence Hughes, Glenn Jones, Alva Jones, Victor McFarland, Guy Mathews, Cash Mallory, Allen Strickland, Roy Yeager and Charlie Osmun.

The Manning boy has never been looked upon as a bad boy. His parents reside near town, his father being at present in very poor health. His conduct, however, is inexcusable and, while the sympathy of the community is with his relative, none will be wasted upon him for his part in this scrape.

These boys, as well as other young men of our town, should not participate in such difficulties. "This human to err," but no one can make a success of resisting officers. If mistakes are made, the easiest way out of them is the best.

The Gazette learns today that an effort will be made to settle Chas. Van Duyn's part in the affair by the payment of a fine. It is likely that this will be done and the young man given a chance to do better.

NEW MINING ENTERPRISE.

The Fever Unabated—New Claims Being Developed—A Promising Camp. Since the first discovery of gold quartz in the Blue mountains, near the head of Willow creek, numerous claims have been taken, all on ledges apparently as rich as the first on which assays have been made as high as $16 per ton.

The Gazette notes the organization of a new mining concern, The Comstock Mining and Milling Co., owning the claims, Colorado, White Fir, Eog Dollar and Auri Fino. These claims originally belonged to E. W. Rhea, M. B. Galloway and Frank McFarland.

Miss Altha Leach has just received a nice line of sample hats. She invites the ladies to see them and get prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Albert Lovagreen and Will Allison have returned from their placer mining operations on the North Fork. They report wages in their claim, but nothing big.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits."

Parties from Spokane report that Henry Blackman, collector of internal revenue, who has been attending the fruit fair, met with a most peculiar misfortune Wednesday morning. Mr. Blackman was eating breakfast in a restaurant, and feeling in his usual good health, when suddenly seized with an agonizing pain in the hip. He collapsed completely, and friends who were summoned placed him in a carriage and conveyed him to his hotel, where medical attention was at once obtained for the patient.

The physician diagnosed the trouble as sciatica, and did what they could for his relief, but for several hours his suffering was extreme. He grew better later in the day, and was able to depart on Wednesday night's train for home.
