CUBA is to have a new governor, Blanco. Weyler, the butcher, is to be recalled.

The Georgeites, of New York City, are having a falling out over the county ticket.

The State Fair was a grand success in every particular this year. Better times had its effect on the fair, as it is having on every other enterprise. It is a good one.

The world seems to have decided upon the gold standard. Peru and Hayti have both decided to join the majority. However, silver will always be used as money.

The Oregonian is opposing Platt, the New York boss, and obeying the behests of Simon, a worse boss. The Oregonian is the catspaw of Simon; it cannot get away from him, but it is free to express itself on matters removed from Oregon.

The Oregonian says that Low should be elected in New York City, but it admits that Tracy is the candidate of the regular republican organization. Facts are that the Oregonian sustains the organization when it can run it along Simon lines. When it cannot, it bolts.

The Gazette cannot understand why so many democratic papers are so much disturbed over Mr. Geer's failure to secure the endorsement of the delegation. It is "borrowed" trouble. It is feigned. No skin has been removed from any portion of their anatomies in this contest.

The Portland Chronicle is still having spasms over the seating of Corbett. Mr. Corbett might succeed in securing his coveted seat—there is always a possibility of success in any reasonable venture—but it is not likely that he will be helped very much by Senator McBride whom Corbett has assisted to discredit in the eyes of the people of Oregon. In the face of McBride's protest he will have a hard fight. And this is not the only stumbling block in the way of Mr. Corbett buying a seat in the senate.

If THE commissioners sent abroad in the interest of silver do not succeed in their mission, the day of silver, as a money of ultimate redemption, is past. It matters not what one thinks might have been done. It is of little concern, if as a proof that legislation has been one of the principal reasons why silver has declined, one can point to its fall every time adverse action is taken by this or that government. The facts are plain that it is no longer anywhere the equal of gold, and the world is set against it. Now if the increase of the yellow metal is sufficient for all demands none will be the loser. Silver is convenient for subsidiary coins and will be thus used, in any event, but if the chance for an international agreement is let pass by our people, that is the only use that it can have in the world of finance.

The best result that could be had in New York would be the election of Low. After Low, the Tammany candidate, Van Wyck, would be preferable. The worst result would be the election of Henry George. Yet it may be a question whether Platt's man should be preferred to him, says the Oregonian. This is the kind of a republican the Oregonian is. It fights bossism—outside of Oregon.

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE.

Hon. J. S. McCarthy Completely Cured by Paine's Celery Compound.

Department of Agriculture, Division of Statistics, Washington, D. C., July 9, 1897. Wells, Richardson & Co:

Gentlemen—Something over a year ago I was suffering with nervousness, loss of appetite and insomnia. I was all run down, and nothing did me any good, until a friend advised me to try Paine's celery compound. I took four bottles of the compound, and I am more than proud to testify that it completely cured me. I haven't had an unwell day since. I eat hearty and sleep like a healthy baby. I consider Paine's celery compound the best remedy manufactured, and I most heartily recommend it to suffering humanity the world over. Sincerely yours, James S. McCarthy.

Sleeplessness is the most common, as well as the most alarming, ailment among those who toil with their brains. Patient after patient repeats the same story. He goes to bed at the usual hour, falls off to sleep very much as usual, but, instead of sleeping through the whole night, wakes about three or four hours after he has fallen asleep, and gets "no more sleep after that time."

Carry home a bottle of Paine's celery compound and see how soon insomnia gives way to sound, refreshing sleep.

The best remedy in the world is not too much for any one to insist on getting. Every one, whether sick or well, must know the immense good Paine's celery compound has done and is doing, tired, half-sick, sleepless men and women all over the country.

The vague, half-hearted attempt so many people make to get rid of poor health is pitiable. Rheumatism, headaches, neuralgia, kidney troubles, skin diseases and dyspepsia may be wholly exterminated from the system, never to bother one again, if one will but cleanse the blood and regulate the nerves with Paine's celery compound.

Get out of despondency, the "blues," or whatever name you give to these attacks of nervous depression. Don't mope around half sick. Persons who think that they are fairly well and "only a little tired" need just the toning up and refreshing that Paine's celery compound undoubtedly gives. Nothing could be more suicidal than for sickly men and women to shut their eyes to the great opportunities offered by Paine's celery compound. No remedy ever called forth such vigorous testimonials and decided opinions from every class of men and women.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

He Returns With Father—Will Leave Soon for Honolulu.

John G. English, of Danville, Ill., who formerly resided at Hardman and was connected with Ed. S. Cox in the sheep business a number of years ago, is in town, having arrived on last Sunday from a tour of the upper country, accompanied by his father, Mr. John T. English, a wealthy capitalist of Danville. The son is a member of a wholesale grocery house of Danville and is prospering.

Both visited Rossland and other points in B. C. during their sojourn in the west. They have large interests in the Le Roi mine, holding stock that is worth nearly a half a million dollars. Before returning home the party will likely visit the Sandwich Islands.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For the past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as he has done so much for him and also for others in his community. It is now Fannie Poppas' Turn. The woman named Fannie Poppas who figured in the case it was expected would be established against Joe Lachapelle has been arraigned on the charge of unlawful conduct and will be given a hearing before Justice Parker today. She broke down when she became aware that a jail sentence was probably in store for her, says the Pendleton Tribune.

The whiskey that old Jim Crow made, that Henry Clay drank, that Andrew Jackson loved, that William Henry Harrison went into ecstasies over, can be found at Low Tilghard's. It is "de rige of 'o'n Juice."
