HENRY GEORGE DEAD.

Special to the Heppner Gazette.
 New York, Oct. 29.—Henry George, candidate for mayor of New York City, died of apoplexy at Union Square hotel, at 4:40 this morning.

AN UNEXPECTED ENCOUNTER.

A. A. Roberts Comes Face to Face With an Escaped Prisoner.
 A. A. Roberts, of Heppner, who at times has acted in the capacity of deputy sheriff in Morrow county, says the Pendleton Tribune, while in this city yesterday came face to face with a young fellow known in Heppner by the nickname of "Irish" who some time ago fled from Heppner when he was permitted to leave the custody of the sheriff to secure bonds for his appearance before the justice on a charge of disorderly conduct. "Irish" had a quantity of bologna sausage, half enveloped in paper, under his arm when he met Mr. Roberts and the parcel almost slipped from his hold as the recognition became complete. Mr. Roberts noticed the man's nervous condition and promptly assured him that he had nothing to fear as he did not want him.
 This same man "Irish" begged for work in Mr. Carl's barber shop and was given a chair yesterday but at the noon hour Mr. Carl was obliged to let him go.

A Superb Entertainment.

The Edison Projectoscope Entertainment given at the opera house last night was attended by a large number of our people, and was pronounced one of the finest exhibitions of its kind ever given in Heppner. The moving life pictures could not have been more real had the actual scenes at the time they occurred been enacted before you. The Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight for the world's championship was as real as if you had seen it in reality. The "fast mail" train which sped across the plains (and the audience) with the swiftness of an arrow was simply grand, and the Spanish bull fight was as natural as life itself. Performances will be given tonight and tomorrow night and those who have not attended will find them a rare treat. The price of admission has been reduced to 25 cents general admission and 35 cents for reserved seats. Those who attend this popular entertainment will never regret it.

The New "Long Distance."

Construction on the new "long distance" telephone line between Heppner and Arlington has begun and a large force of men will push the work to completion in a very short time. When this line will have been completed, Heppner, the metropolis, will be in connection with the outside world in almost every direction. Now for a line leading into the southwestern portion of the interior via Condon and other inland points and the system will be completed.

Quite a large number of Heppnerites went up to the Willow creek mines Sunday and staked off claims. Thus far everyone who has investigated the newly discovered mines have an abiding faith in them, and if every claim which has been staked off turns out as rich as the rock already tested, there will be such a boom in mining circles in this county that had never been seen in Oregon before. The chances thus far are favorable for extraordinarily good results in that direction.

Clarence Johnson, of the firm of W. H. Johnson & Sons, sheep commission merchants, of John Day, says they have just delivered to Dan Murphy, for Smythe, of Arlington, 3400 head of lambs, and to Sigst Bros. and F. M. Templeton, 2500 head, which they brought out of the mountains this fall, with 7900 head of lambs. Mr. Johnson says their sheep are healthy and in fine condition.

Joe LaChappelle and Fannie Poppin who were indicted at Pendleton last week on a charge of lewd cohabitation and were given one day in which to get married before sentence was passed, refused to enter into a matrimonial contract, and each was fined $50. In default they are to serve one day in jail for each $2 of the fine.

Linn Matteson, who was arrested here last week and taken to Baker City, charged with the theft of sheep from Andy Tillard and Asa Thompson, has had a preliminary hearing and was bound over in the sum of $500. Several of the witnesses were also required to give bond for their appearance when the trial comes off.

The "Bicyclist's Best Friend" is a familiar name for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, always ready for emergencies. While a specific for piles, it also instantly relieves and cures cuts, bruises, salt rheum, eczema and all affections of the skin. It never fails. For Sale by Conser & Brock.

A recently returned Klondiker says that the length of the polar night is one hundred and forty-two days. What a heavenly place that would be in which to tell a man with a bill to call around day after tomorrow and get his money.

Mr. Frank Halston, of Lone Rock, was in town a few days this week getting a stock of goods for his Lone Rock store. He has but recently opened up for business at that burg, but reports a good trade. He departed for home yesterday.

Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood. Clears the complexion. Easy to make and pleasant to take. 25 cts. Sold by Conser & Brock. 7

PENITENTIARY POPULATION.

There are 319 prisoners in the Oregon Pen at the Present Time.
 There are 319 prisoners in the Oregon penitentiary. Of these nine are United States prisoners, 124 from Multnomah county, 24 from Marion, 16 each from Douglas, Baker and Union counties, 10 from Clatsop, 11 from Washington, 9 from Jackson, 8 each from Umatilla and Wasco, 7 from Josephine, 6 each from Crook, Grant and Malheur, 5 each from Clackamas, Willamette and Yamhill, 4 each from Harney, Lane and Polk, 3 each from Gilliam, Klamath and Linn, 2 each from Coos and Lake, 1 each from Curry, Columbia and Morrow counties and one from Benton, Lincoln, Sherman and Tillamook. About two-thirds of these prisoners are regularly employed, 150 of them being under contract in the store works in the prison yard; forty-one doing trusty service in fields and barns; ten are doing house service as cooks, messengers and gardeners; five are at work on the wood piles in the yard; 20 others are grading the low spots in the yard along Mill creek's banks, and two, who were indisposed, are in the hospital ward.

The balance are exercised regularly at the circle gang walk in the prison yard, under the keen surveillance of Yard Guard John Stapleton. There are also small crews of men in fairly continuous service in the tin shop, blacksmith shop, carpentry and laundry, and at present not a few are assigned to various sorts of labor under Contractor E. D. Holman, on the big, new pumping station.

The editor of the Gazette arrived home on this morning's train and the fellow who has been playing the "devil" with the paper makes his exit. Ta, ta!

Arlington Record: A gentleman from down the road was in town last Wednesday in quest of his wife, whose frailties led her to elope with a traveling man. No doubt the traveling man will bring her or send her back within a few weeks, and the husband can have her back if he wants her.

Arlington Record: C. A. Rhea, a prominent sheep man of Morrow county, and vice president of the Heppner bank, was an Arlington visitor Friday. Mr. Rhea informs us that Heppner is not only doing a good business at present, but that it is improving.

Notice to Shepherds!
 Don't overlook those fine Cunningham bucks at Thompson & Binns' stable. Inquire of W. C. Brown, at Palace hotel, or Ed. Bishop. 590-4f.

A Nebraska man who had a car or two of horses to sell wrote to a friend in Washington, D. C., asking if it would be advisable to try to sell them there. His friend replied, "The people of Washington ride bicycles, the street cars run by electricity, and the government is run by jackasses. No need of horses here."

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Elder J. W. Jenkins, of Hood River, will be in Heppner on Sunday, Oct. 31, and will preach at the Christian church both morning and evening. You are invited to these services.

Beginning on Tuesday evening, Nov. 2nd, at the Christian church, Elder J. W. Jenkins will preach a series of sermons, continuing over the following Sunday. It is especially desired that the members of the congregation be present to assist in conducting these services and the invitation is extended to all others. The following subjects will be taken up and discussed, which will prove to be of special interest to church goers:
 "The Basis of Christian Conduct."
 "Camping on the Edge of Forsaken Sin."
 "Walking Worthy of our Vocation."
 "Oregon for Christ."
 "Good Citizenship."
 "The Liquor Power."
 "The Bible and Children."
 "Something About Lying."
 "The Dimensions of Christian Character."

The True Remedy.
 W. M. Repine, editor Takilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experienced with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Conser & Brock's drug store.

Wash Thompson, who has opened a new meat market, has reserved a space in the Gazette, so he can tell the people what kind of a market he is going to run.
