

FROM FOOT TO KNEE

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Sore—Her Story of the Case, and Her Cure.

"For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but some would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Some one sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I told my husband I would like to try this medicine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." Mrs. ANNA E. EAKEN, Whiteside, Ohio.

You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla of all druggists. Be sure to get only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic. Price 25c.

Here and There.

See M. Lichtenhal for shoes. S. W. Spencer returned yesterday from a short visit to Portland. Submit your plans to Reason before giving out your contract. Mrs. Joe Hayes and children have returned from a visit to the valley. The Orange Front is now prepared to serve fresh oysters in any style. Fine home-made taffy at the Orange Front. A clean, fresh stock of goods—leave your orders. E. C. Warren, the Portland Cracker Co. representative, was doing business in Heppner yesterday. Girl wanted to do housework. Good wages. None but the best need apply. Call at Gazette office. Any one desiring to build either a house or barn will make money by calling on the Gazette office. For sale—residence property. Barn and good outhouses. Will sell cheap on easy terms. Call at office. Best accommodation and courteous treatment at the Imperial Hotel, Seventh and Wash. Sts., Portland, Oregon. Jas. Hayes and family are in from Wyoming to visit relatives here. Jim disposed of his sheep in Wyoming at $2.00 per head. T. W. Marshall, representing a Portland candy company, was in Heppner yesterday. It has been some time since Tom "made" Heppner. There is a nice lot of Cunningham Merino bucks for sale at Thompson & Binns' stable. Inquire of W. C. Brown, 590 ft. J. L. Gibson has taken the Jones' barber stand and does good work at popular prices, 15 cents shaving and 25 cents haircutting. Moments are useless if trifled away; and they are dangerously wasted if consumed by delay in cases where One Minute Cough Cure would bring immediate relief. For sale by Conser & Brock. Mrs. John Wright, of La Grande, who has been visiting her relatives here for some time, departed for her home at La Grande on last Saturday evening, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Abigail Wallace. Hick Mathews and V. Gentry, under the firm name of Mathews & Gentry, are associated together in the barber business in the new stand, two doors south of the postoffice. They solicit a call. Shaving, 15 cents. George Hufford has some fine half-breed Cotswell bucks, out of Merino ewes which he wishes to sell at reasonable figures. He will be at E. L. Matlock's corral on about Sept. 20. Call on him. Frank McFarland has been appointed special agent of The Equitable Life Assurance Co., of New York, the strongest in the world. Cash surplus to policy holders of over $3 million dollars. Don't take insurance without seeing the new plans of the Equitable. Insures both sexes at same rates. Dr. John W. Rasmus, of the "Red-light," ever on the alert for something new, can furnish you the finest cocktails in the land—Manhattan, Jersey, Vermont or Gin—made by an artist in the business. Drop in and take the taste out of your mouth.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

Twas Well Attended and Enjoyed—Miss Ayers' Singing Superb. The elocutionary entertainment, given at the opera house last evening by Miss Lottie L. Tillotson, of St. Paul, assisted by the pupils of the High school and others in vocal and instrumental musical selections, was well attended, and, the Gazette believes, generally appreciated. Miss Tillotson's selections showed excellent training and complete mastery of self. She made the mistake, however, of standing too far back on the stage and at times it was difficult to hear, even near the front of the opera house. The entire program was good and the Gazette has naught but praise for all who participated. The singing of Miss Elsie Ayers captured the audience and she was loudly cheered. As a student of Delisarte, or of Lis system, Miss Tillotson gave a lecture which proved highly interesting.

Something to Depend on. Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ills., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Conser & Brock's Drug Store.

A "Cat" Party.

Three of Heppner's young lady teachers, who reside in the Hallock territory, near the Christian church, in what their admiring friends have denominated "The Angels' Rest," were the recipient of a "cat party" on last Wednesday evening. The idea of giving them this party arose over a request made their friends to bring them a fine house cat in order to rid the "ranch" of those deadly enemies of female kind, the mice. By a prearranged plan some fifteen friends, young ladies and gentlemen, met at M. B. Galloway's gallery on the evening mentioned, each with a precious tabby. There were old cats, young cats; gray cats and black cats; cats with color and some none at all, all destined for "The Angels' Rest." It was a unique party, somewhat of a surprise one may guess, but thoroughly enjoyed.

Regarded as a Duty.

"I lost my appetite and became weak. At last I was taken very sick. My attention was called to Hood's Sarsaparilla and I took a bottle and it made me feel better. I have taken five bottles and am now well. I feel it my duty to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done." Mrs. A. Everson, Wedderburn, Oregon.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic. Easy to take, easy to operate. 25 cents.

Round Over.

The examination of Clyde Sperry, charged with the seduction of Miss Ida Ritchie, of Ione, occurred yesterday at the court house before Judge Richardson, Prosecutor Bean representing the state and Ellis & Phelps the defense. Only two witnesses were examined—Mrs. Ritchie and her daughter for the state—the defense offering no testimony. A motion to dismiss was argued on the testimony presented by the state. The justice overruled the same, holding Sperry in the sum of $250 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Backen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles or no pay required. A Boy's Letter.

The fortnightly vouchers for the greatness of the following extract from "A Boy's Letter to His Mother:" "I am glad I have a new sister, but wish she had been a boy. Seems to me if the Lord couldn't have sent a boy he might at least sent a pony. Can't I have griddle cakes the days I don't have salad? You always used to let me. There is lots of game here. There are mice in the house and rats in the barn, and chipmunks in the woods. I am going to bring home one. Is a boy a pig if he is related three times? I mean if they are small helpings and they insist?"

Cure that cough with Shiloh's Cure. The best cough cure. Relieves croup promptly. One million bottles sold last year. 40 doses for 25c. Sold by Conser & Brock.

Gilliam & Bisbee expect to have on display soon the finest line of useful and ornamental holiday goods ever brought to Heppner. Due notice will appear later.

Call on Tom Howard for gloves. No better line in the city. He keeps both lined and unlined goods and his stock is large. You can get just what you want.

Misses Cora Hart and Bertha Cate entertained a few friends, at the home of the former, on last Saturday evening. It was an enjoyable occasion.

To heal the broken and diseased tissues, to soothe the irritated surfaces, to instantly relieve and to permanently cure is the mission of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. For Sale by Conser & Brock.

BRIEF MENTION.

Eli Keeney visited Arlington this week. What is Hop Gold? Best beer on earth. See ad elsewhere. A good shower yesterday laid the dust nicely. It will do much good. Gill Jones and Moses Ashbaugh were in from Eight Mile yesterday. Mrs. Annie Williams and children have moved to town for the winter. Baths down at the Jones' barber shop, 25 cents. Orville Jones manager. Wheat is worth 65 cents today. It does not look like it will reach a higher figure this year. We print "Simple Account File" statements, with your name and business thereon. Call at office. If you need something for your system call at the "Phone—The Telephone saloon, City hotel building. The Episcopal ladies of Heppner will hold a fair in the near future. Further notice will be given by the Gazette. Low Tillard has changed the name of his saloon to "The Telephone," as it is the only saloon in town that has an instrument. Remember $2.00, cash down, sets the Semi-Weekly Gazette one year. Step in and subscribe and be posted on the home news. Our old friend, "Sport," writes that he is thinking of coming back to Heppner to winter. If he does, he will make things lively for awhile. The spirit of '76 was "for liberty or for death." That old brand of Cyrus Noble at Chris Borchers' is the spirit that touches the spot these times. Arlington Record: Otis Patterson, editor of the Heppner Gazette, was in town Thursday night. Mr. Patterson had taken a trip to the country. A quarter mile race occurred at Ione Wednesday between Dutch and Pat Murphy for $20 a side, Dutch winning. Considerable money change hands. E. O.: Gov. Bea, the Heppner attorney, is in the city on his return home from a business visit to Baker City. He stopped over to visit his daughter, Mrs. M. P. John. Dr. B. F. Vaughan has returned to his Heppner office and will remain this winter. The doctor is prepared to do all kinds of tooth work. Office, Thompson building. E. O.: Reports from Heppner are that there is but little change in the condition of W. J. Leazer, brother of J. M. Leazer. He seems to be gradually sinking. W. S. Byers, the Pendleton mill man, has received all but $7,500 of the $50,000 insurance on his property recently destroyed by fire. He will doubtless get all he is insured for. E. O.: E. H. Clarke, who returned this morning from his Heppner visit, says that thriving Morrow county is doing a fine business. Its people all feel encouraged, and are full of energy and bustle. Arlington Record: The Inland Telephone Company are pushing the new line from Arlington to Heppner, to an early completion. When this is completed we understand that a line will be built to Fossil via Condon. Arlington Record: Homer Kirby started for Heppner Monday night, where he has been employed for the winter as concert violinist in Eli Keeney's saloon. Homer has played the leading violin part in the Arion club since its organization. Dalles Chronicle: Mr. Henry Blackman passed down on the delayed train yesterday on his way from Pendleton to Portland. Mrs. Blackman was to have met him at the Heppner junction, but as Henry said, Mrs. Blackman knew more than he did, and did not wait for the late train, but took the first one that came along. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shutt arrived from Antelope this week and will locate here. Mr. Shutt having decided to embark in the newspaper business. His paper will be called the Heppner Times. This section has never been able to give two papers decent support, though now it may have arrived at that stage. The Gazette sincerely hopes so.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old People find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at Conser & Brock's Drug Store.

Over in the Sound a new industry has sprung up which promises to grow into a large and profitable business. The rush to the Klondike created a demand for dried vegetables and fruits of all kinds, and a plant has been established for drying and packing potatoes and onions. This puts these articles in good shape for the Alaska trade and if the rush to the north is as large in the spring as anticipated, there will be a great demand for this class of goods. There may yet be a good market for your surplus onions and potatoes.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Notice to Shoppers! Don't overlook those fine Cunningham jackets at Thompson & Binns' stable. Inquire of W. C. Brown, at Palace hotel, or Ed. Bishop. 590 ft.

Now is the time to get the Weekly Oregonian, the greatest newspaper of the West. With the Gazette, both strictly in advance, one year, $3.00. No better combination of newspapers can be made in the state.

NO SOFT-HEARTED GOVERNORS.

Chinese Pirates Beheaded with Neatness and Dispatch. Capt. John Windrow, an old sailor of the Pacific, tells this to the Tacoma Ledger: "While I was in Shanghai along in 1858 or '59, the ruler of the city equipped two steam gunboats for the suppression of the piratical traffic. One of these he put in command of an American. The boats had been out on a cruise for several days, and early one afternoon they returned towing thirteen piratical junks which had been captured. I went aboard to see the prisoners the boats had brought in. An iron rail led around the gunwale of each of the boats, to which were shackled two hundred of the most villainous-looking Chinese I had ever seen. Justice to such fiendish wretches was swift in China in those days, and the next morning they were led out for execution. In spite of the horror of this wholesale beheading the executioner had a streak of the comic in it. Two Chinese assistants of the executioner carried a large bamboo pole. The condemned Chinese were in a kneeling posture and the assistants would clutch a Chinaman's queue and take a half-hitch around the bamboo pole. Then, each putting the pole on his shoulder, they both would suddenly rise up, stretching his neck away from the prisoner's shoulders. The executioner stood ready with a drawn sword and lopped off their heads with as much indifference as a farmer would have about cutting cornstalks. Little baskets were ready, into which a head was placed, and in this manner the heads were hung on the walls outside the city gates."

ANIMAL INTELLIGENCE.

An Instance of the "Joy-ribs" Canning on the Fox.

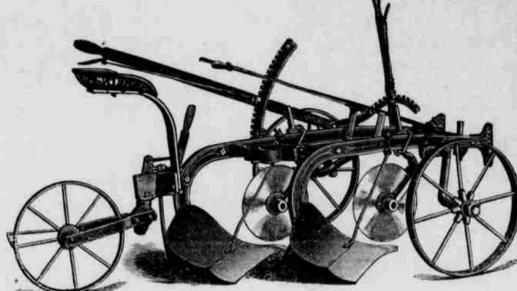

We have often heard that animals have intelligence, and have read many instances of what they know. Perhaps we have had some pet of our own that has done things which make us almost believe it had reason instead of instinct. The dog is generally thought to be the most intelligent of animals, and it is about him that we hear the greatest number of stories. Here is an illustration, however, in which Reynard's proverbial cunning was more than a match for canine sagacity. It is from "Le Petit Francois," translated for "The Voice" by Elveth Kirkwood: "In the courtyard of the Chateau de Montmelian, near Chambery, were a dog and a fox, attached to their respective kennels by chains of equal length. A bone was placed before each of these animals, but in such a way that it was just beyond their reach. The dog pulled stupidly on his chain, stretching his head as far as he could. The fox after some fruitless attempts turned his back to the tempting morsel, then with his hind leg drew it within reach of his teeth. The fabulists have not described us in describing Mast Reynard as a sly fellow."

Jinks' Joke.

Jinks—To-day I pleased a pretty woman by telling her that a certain red-faced, snub-nosed, baldheaded mortal looked like her. Winks—Get out! Jinks—The red-faced, snub-nosed, baldheaded mortal was her first baby.—N. Y. Weekly.
