JUDICIAL PLEASANTRIES.

What the County Judge of Morrow Wrote to the County Judge of Umatilla.

Fannie Poppin, alias Mrs. Dickens was shipped to Morrow county, where she formerly lived, by Umatilla county authorities, who wanted to get rid of her. Shortly after she arrived at Heppner she expressed a desire to return to Pendleton. Hon. A. G. Bartholomewcounty judge of Morrow, has written a humorous letter to Hon. Wm. Martin, county judge of Umatilla, requesting that funds be sent to the woman for the return journey. Among other things,

Judge Bartholomew says: "Mrs. Dickens, until about a year ago was a resident of our county; and alported today in Mrs. Zoeth Houser's though we are sorry to lose any of our population to the upbuilding of our big sister, Umatilla, still, when she departed. for their home in Grant county, on Sun- she kindly left three children, five, seven professional duty to suffering humanity every particular. and nine years of age, to the tender to donate a trial of his infallible cure, mercies of the world-which I took to thus our great sorrow was in a measure
