WEEKLY The MONTHLY SEVEN

Published Every Saturday

13 Astor Place New York

The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and mdustrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things: and, in short, sime to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty flifth volume the paper will assume the regular maga sine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturdayfifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issues, together with a large number of pictures.

The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.

His Hand Shattered

From Arlington Record. A terrible accident befell Bert Vining, a fourteen year old boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Vining, of this place, Monday morning. In company with several sportsmen, Bert had climbed the bill around the hills in plentiful uumbers. The gun be carried, which was a muzzle loader, and heavily loaded, exploded the first shot, shattering both barrels of the gun, and mangling the boy's right hand so fearfully that amputation was found necessary. The unfortunate boy was carried to Dr. Ruedy's office, where the operation was performed, and the patient made as comfortable as possible. It is not believed that his life is in any danger.
