

FROM FOOT TO KNEE

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Sore—Her Story of the Case, and Her Cure.

"For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but some would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Some one sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I told my husband I would like to try this medicine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." MRS. ANSA E. EAKEN, Whittlesy, Ohio.

You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla of all druggists. Be sure to get only Hood's.

OBITUARY.

Died—At his home in Heppner, Oregon, at 7 p. m., Nov. 22, 1897, William J. Lezer, aged 51 years, 8 months and 1 day.

William J. Lezer was born in Rushville, Schuyler county, Ill., March 21, 1846. His youth was spent at home, and while yet a boy he was apprenticed to the tinner's trade, which he learned in a comparatively short time. After working at his trade a time in his home town, he went to the state of Nebraska where he spent a year, and while there he was taken down with bilious fever, laying very sick for a number of days. Being by nature a very strong and robust young man, full of ambition, he soon recovered sufficiently, as he thought, to get up, but he had over-estimated his strength and in consequence suffered a very severe relapse. After a continued illness of several weeks, during which time he was very near death's door, Mr. Lezer finally recovered sufficiently to return to his home in Illinois, which he did, remaining there until his decision to come West in 1870. This hard spell of fever was followed by an attack of dumb ague and his constitution was left badly undermined.

Shortly after Christmas, 1870, Mr. Lezer left his boyhood home for the far West, coming directly to what was then known as Umatilla City, Umatilla county, Oregon, where he accepted a position as tinner in a hardware store, working there for several years. The move to this country proved beneficial to him and in a short time his health was greatly improved. However, he never gained his former strength.

On December 25, 1873, Mr. Lezer was united in marriage to Miss Lauretta A. Wilson, at Umatilla.

They continued their residence there until the winter of 1881, when they moved to Heppner where Mr. Lezer entered into business for himself, and where the family have continued to reside. His recent illness dates from Jan. 15, 1895, when he was taken with a severe attack of la grippe which compelled him to remain at home and sacrifice his business interests. For the two years past he has been a constant sufferer, his ailment taking on the form of consumption, and though he battled bravely against the ravages of the dread disease, he was not able to overcome it and at last had to succumb to the grim destroyer. He leaves, besides a loving and affectionate wife, three children: Emery J., aged 22; Mabel A., aged 20; and Willetta, aged 14.

Since moving to Morrow county Mr. Lezer had held the important office of county treasurer for three terms. On the formation of this county he received the appointment to this office and at the election following he was chosen for another term, and again in 1892 he was honored by the people of the county with the same position. He also served the city of Heppner a number of times as city treasurer, and the people learned to trust his business to him; he always proved, by his faithful and honest performance of duty, that he was a man worthy the public trust and confidence.

William J. Lezer was a man among men. He made friends and kept them. Always honorable and upright in all his dealings, he would not stoop to mean things. To know him and be his friend was a pleasure never to be forgotten. He may have had some enemies; any man of principle and character has, but they were few. He was prepared to pass over to the other side and while he suffered much in this life all appeared to be bright before him. He leaves loved ones behind who are now deeply wrapped in a cloud of grief, but we ask them to take cheer and look up to Him who healeth the wounds of the broken-hearted, and remember there is a day coming when loved ones who have parted here may meet again.

On Dec. 18, 1896, Mr. Lezer was confirmed in the Episcopal church, and the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. E. Potwine, rector of the Church of the Redeemer at Pendleton, assisted by the members of Heppner lodge No. 69, A. F. & A. M., of which order he was a member. The remains were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Died—At his home on Willow creek, 9 miles south of Heppner, at 11:25 o'clock, Tuesday, Nov. 23, 1897, Albert B. Florence, aged 36 years, 1 month and 23 days.

Grandpa Florence was a native of the state of Virginia, having been born in Prince William county, that state, on September 26th, 1811. In the year 1835, the 14th of July, he was united in marriage to Catherine L. Saiter, and moved to Oregon in 1839, settling near Portland on the Columbia river, and after living there a short time he moved to Lane county, where he resided until 1864, afterwards going to Marion county. In 1877 he moved to Eastern Oregon and settled on the place on Willow creek where he died. There were born to Grandpa and Grandma Florence 12 children, four of whom are dead. Of those living, two sons, Price and Albert live in Morrow county; two, John and Ernest, live in the state of Washington; one daughter, Mrs. A. Mathis, resides at Walla Walla; another daughter, Mrs. Alice Leck, lives at La Grande, and two daughters, Mrs. Wehrum and Mrs. Lewis, reside in the Willamette valley.

Grandpa Florence, from his long residence in this community, was well-known to everybody and was universally respected. He was a pioneer of the state and one among the earliest settlers of Morrow county and he will be missed from among our people. While he was very aged, yet he was not infirm for one of his years; his form was erect, his step had much of the elasticity of youth and his intellectual powers were well retained. But being old, he was not able to stand the ravages of a severe spell of sickness and his taking away was sudden when attacked by pneumonia. He was a member of the Masonic order since 1848, and was buried by them on Thursday at 1 p. m., from the M. E. church, South, Rev. C. E. Howard presiding the funeral discourse to a large audience who afterwards followed all that was mortal of Albert B. Florence to the cemetery on the hill where the remains were laid at rest, the Masons performing the last rites in an impressive manner.
