

Poor and Weak

Catarrh and Bronchial Trouble— Had no Appetite— Now Better in Every Way— A Delicate Child.
"Some time since I took a sudden cold and could not get rid of it. Being subject to catarrh and bronchial trouble I coughed terribly. I lost my appetite and grew poor and weak and I did not feel like work. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time the cough disappeared, I slept well, had a good appetite and I was better in every way. Last spring I was not feeling well, I had no appetite and no strength. I resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon felt more like work. My little nephew was a delicate child and had a humor which troubled him so he could not rest at night. He has taken a few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and now he has a good appetite and is able to sleep." Miss Annie J. FARRMAN, South Duxbury, Mass.

Come to the Gazette office and get a decent lot of envelopes printed. Government envelopes look cheap, and besides you cannot get your business card printed thereon. if
C. P. Marshall and Frank L. Shurtz arrived from the Mitchell section, where they had been looking after the interests of The Mutual Life, on last Friday night about 9 o'clock. They broke their rig on top of the hill between Heppner and Rhea creek, and had to walk some four miles.
Herbert Blakley, of Sumnerfield, Marshall county, Kansas, near Kansas City, a nephew of Gov. Res, is visiting here. Herbert "took in" Salt Lake, San Francisco, and other Western towns before coming to Heppner. At present he is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrow, of this place.
E. D. Fitzsimmons, and wife, of Victoria, B. C., are here temporarily. Mr. Fitzsimmons coming here for the purpose of prospecting the Willow creek district. He was here some eight years ago and left with a good impression of it, though at that time he took no claim. Mr. Fitzsimmons is an uncle of Robert Fitzsimmons, the pugilist.

Quite a lively contest is going on out at Hardman over the postoffice. Mrs. Blackman, the present incumbent, has a petition out which is receiving numerous signatures, and Miss Maxwell, also, is being strongly and numerously endorsed for the same place. Either party would no doubt give satisfaction as they are both well qualified for the position.
T.M.: A decision of the supreme court in the case of the Dayton Hardware Co. is a serious set back to the state board of equalization, and in fact invalidates the acts of that body. If the board is not clothed with authority to raise assessments where contrary authorities have neglected to comply with the law, it is deprived of all power that could be beneficial to the state at large.

A FEW REMARKS.

From the Pen of Sport Who is Yet Wielding the Faber.
The cow nuisance, so earnestly objected to by all who do not own cows, has broken out afresh in the shape of a couple of coyotes that stand around on the sidewalks all night and disturb weary denizens who want to sleep. These "varments" ought to be corralled and sold to the Linton sausage works before they get $20 worth of front yard inside of their worthless $2.50 carcasses.

Sport hears that the town council will take action regarding fire protection and will endeavor to get things in good shape to fight a good blaze.
Our good old friend, "Whispering" Farnsworth, like many others of our sheepmen, is busy looking after his bands. It is necessary, for the weather is quite severe.

John Cooper, who stops on Ed. Matlock's old corner, lost his hat at our excellent masquerade Thanksgiving. Come to think over the matter he was not the only participant who had to go home bareheaded. This petty pilfering must cease.
Low Tillard, who owned Sinner until he ate his head off devouring Montana hay, has changed stories with E. C. Willis' raspberry joint. Mr. Tillard will continue selling "Tom & Jerry" and other merchandise, fully warranted, the same as usual. Mr. Willis proposes to combine his candy and grocery stock with his goods in the Heppner brick, using the old Tillard stand for that purpose. Willis thinks that he will have the best store in Heppner, to its inches.

Judge Bartholomew thinks that he has a sure shot rule that will pick an Oregonian out anywhere. He says that an Oregonian will burn up every stick of wood in sight and never provide for the cold mornings, while a Missourian, or any of his Eastern cousins, will fetch in a fine pile of nice kindling, some dry wood and the ever necessary back-log, all ready for the next day. The Oregonian will then hustle out early and profit by the thoughtfulness of his yankee by turning the outfit to good account. These Oregonians are rather improvident but they are great managers.

Geo. Conser, in the course of a walk through the north part of town last week, found a small boy unmercifully beating a dog. George, ever sympathetic, tried to get the little fellow to cease thumping the poor canine but to no purpose, till finally the boy had to stop for want of breath. Then George had a chance to make himself heard.
"Aren't you ashamed of yourself for thumping your poor dog that way?"
"Nope."
"Well, you ought to be."
"I ain't anyway. That dog needs it."
"I'd like to know why?"
"That dog's a darn populist!"
"Well, that's funny. I never heard of a dog having any politics. Say, how do you know that this dog is a populist?"
"Well, that's easy. He don't do nothin' all day but set on his posterior and howl!"
George saw the point at once, and he can tell the story a great deal better than the little boy. For the latest version of the "yarn," see George.

John Geinger and Pat Spillane were in from adjacent districts on last Saturday, preparing for wintry weather.
Fred W. Bentley, of Pendleton, has a record of 28 as a "cooked hat" bowler. This places him the third best bowler in Oregon.
A brief write-up of Heppner and Morrow county, from the pen of an "unknown," appeared recently in the Telegram. It was brief, but to the point.

R. H. Akers brought in his parsons, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Akers, this morning from their Gooseberry home, the latter to leave this evening for their old home in Iowa.
Joe Gibson has purchased an elegant barber chair of the latest pattern. It is an elegant piece of furniture and the Gazette does not blame Joe for feeling proud of it.
Tom Perceval is back from the head of the Grande Ronde valley. He brought in a fine elk tooth, taken from an old fellow who had what the hunters call, a six-prong horn.

Judge Lowell is over holding a brief term of court, at which session a number of land and equity cases, not requiring juries, will be disposed of. The judge leaves for Pendleton tonight.
Sheriff E. L. Matlock left last Saturday night for Pendleton, having in charge Miss Little Henderson whom he was directed to place in charge of the Boys and Girls Aid Society authorities.
Dr. Hunlock picked up $5 in cash and a deposit check for $25 on the street Saturday last. C. N. Peck was the owner of the money and check and they were turned over to him by the doctor.

Don't have a tooth pulled if you can help it. It usually hurts, and it is better to save them if you can, but if it becomes necessary call on Dr. Vaughan, who has a painless plan of extracting teeth. What a boon to mankind!
C. S. Van Dusen departed last evening for Buxley, Wis., to look out a location. If he does not find a suitable opening at that place he will go to North Yakima. We wish Van success wherever he may decide to locate.
L. A. Smith, who went to Cheyenne last spring with a band of sheep, returned to Heppner Saturday. He had charge of the Yates sheep and reports a good trip, with the exception of being caught in a blizzard in Wyoming which left him with badly frozen feet before he could get out.

A. W. Patterson, who was so long connected with the Gazette as business manager, but who is now attending a law school in Washington, D. C., writes that he is progressing nicely with his studies and expects to return to Heppner next summer to spend his vacation. After finishing his law course he will return to Oregon to take up the practice of his profession.
Sam Palmer is located at Bennett, Colo., this winter. He does not know just whether he will come to Heppner in the spring or not to buy sheep. It will depend somewhat on prices and the inducements offered. Palmer has made regular visits to Heppner for the past 12 or 15 years and with the exception of one season has always bought his sheep for the drive in this locality.
D. W. Horner has just recently received word of the death of his mother which occurred at Burlington, Iowa, on the 19th inst., and mention of which was made in these columns last week. The letter bearing the sad news to Dan was carried and he failed to receive the word as soon as he should. Mrs. Horner was 96 years of age and at the time of her death was visiting a daughter, Mrs. Wm. Briggs, at Burlington. The same was taken to her home at Buxley, Colo., Iowa, where the interment took place. Mrs. Horner visited Heppner a few years ago.

Elmer Beaman was in town Saturday.
Mart Smith visited our city Saturday.
Tom Davidson, of Davidson, is in town today.
J. T. McAlister, was up from Lexington Monday.
W. C. Laey and family visited Heppner Saturday.
Peter Borg visited his ranch below town on Sunday.

James Brown was in from the Caldwell grade Saturday.
Ed Ashbaugh and Wm. Allison, two of Eight Mile's successful farmers, were in town Friday.
Jas. Raney, a cousin of A. E. Biens, has returned to town after an absence of several months.
Tilt Warren was in from Gooseberry a few days this week enjoying a social time among the boys.

J. O. Keithly, one of the substantial ranchers of the Hardman section, was a visitor to Heppner on Friday.
Mrs. Norman Kelley returned Saturday morning from an extended visit with relatives in Vermont and Iowa.
Baker City is now connected with Portland and all outside points on long distance telephone via Heppner.

People who subscribe for and read the home papers are never behind the times. Many an item is worth twice the price of a paper.
Linn Matteson came clear on the charge of selling sheep not his own at Baker City the past week and returned to Heppner this morning.
Ten new subscribers were added to our list on Saturday. The Gazette is not claiming any boom, but its list has grown substantially this year.

H. D. Mikesell, of Heppner, an old soldier who was in the thickest of the fray in our late "unpleasantness," has been granted a pension by Uncle Sam.
Weston Leader: Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Lueallen, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Morrow county for several weeks returned home Sunday.
Frank Borg visited friends at Walls Walls on Thanksgiving. Frank might have had turkey at home, but doubtless enjoyed a better feast on his visit. How about this, Frank?

Theo. Anderson was in from Eight Mile Friday and states that the snow came a little too soon for most of the farmers who were very busy getting their fall plowing done.
Rev. O. R. Howard and wife left for Pendleton on last Thursday evening for a short visit to relatives and from there they go to Portland where Mrs. Howard will enter the hospital for treatment.
Oliver Snyder has taken charge of the Hotel Heppner feed barn and will furnish stall room, grain or hay at reasonable figures. Will also do dray work and hauling. 'Bus to end from trains. if

The Eiks of Heppner hold public memorial service at K. of P. hall on next Sunday at 2 p. m. These services are said to be very beautiful and impressive and the public are cordially invited to attend.
Elder R. L. Shelley, of Hillsboro, who has been preaching for the Christian church here the past two weeks, left for his home last night. The church at this place is contemplating hiring Mr. Shelley as pastor for a year.
Billy Morrow received from Judge Bennett, of The Dalles, a fine dog on Thanksgiving day which he prizes highly. Billy does not know to what particular family of dogs he belongs, but he is all dog just the same.

The long distance telephone is now in the connection having been completed at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Tom Ingram, of this city, who has been working on the Heppner extension, came in yesterday, having finished his labors.
R. C. Willis and Low Tillard this week exchanged rooms in the city hotel building. This change was made to accommodate Mr. Willis who was in need of a larger room for his stock of goods which he will soon have to remove from the Heppner brick.
Elder Barclay, who will be in Heppner about Dec. 19th, and who will deliver the dedicatory sermon at Galloway on that date, is a very well known minister and politician, holding at present the position of bishop of the U. B. church and is also a representative from Marion county, serving his second term.

Mrs. Katie Steeves, sister of the Tillard brothers, arrived Wednesday last from Umattils and will spend the winter with her relatives here. Her husband, Vernie Steeves, who is master mechanic at Umattils, has been quite sick of late with liver trouble, and has gone to San Francisco for treatment, and has hopes of speedy recovery.
Albert E. Raleigh, clerk at the office of the collector of customs, at Portland, and one of the best known politicians in the state, died at Portland Wednesday night, after an illness lasting a week. He was 42 years old, and was born at Portland. He was once deputy superintendent of streets of Portland.—Tribune.

T.M.: About nine o'clock last night Sheriff Driver went to the jail to see that everything was all right and discovered that the inmates had been tampering with the lock on the front door, which they could reach by reaching through the grates. The lock is a heavy one, and the key hole had been filled with wood no doubt in an attempt to unfasten it. Mr. Driver could not unlock it at the time, and did not succeed in getting the door open until late this afternoon. As a result he was not able to start three men in the penitentiary as he had expected to do.

GENTLEMEN—I was recently taken with a severe cold which made me very hoarse and rendered me unfit to attend to business. A friend of mine called my attention to your Dr. Bartholow's cough syrup and I bought a bottle, costing me 50 cents, which relieved me at once and completely cured me. I am subject to throat difficulty and I have found nothing that gave me so much relief as this cough cure.
I am informed that it is excellent for colds, bronchitis, whooping cough and all throat and lung troubles. I beg to remain, most truly yours,
