It appeared in the form of red pimples which would tester, break open and run and then soab over. After disappearing they would break out again. They caused intense tiching and the little sufferer had to be watched continually to keep him from scratching the sores. We became greatly alarmed at his condition. My wife's mother had had scrofuls and the only medicine which had helpd her was Hood's Sarsaparilla. Wo decided to give it to our-boy and we noted an improv-ment in his case very soon. After giving him four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla the humor had all been driven out of his blood and it has never since returned." WILLIAM BART, 416 South Williams St., South Bend, indiana.
