Going East?
IF YOU ARE, DO NOT FORGET
Three Important Points.
FIRST—Go via St. Paul because the lines to that point will afford you the very best service.
SECOND—See that the coupon beyond St. Paul reads via the Wisconsin Central because that line makes close connections with all the trans-continental lines entering the Union Depot there, and its service is first-class in every particular.
THIRD—For information, call on your neighbor and friend—the nearest ticket agent—and ask for a ticket reading via the Wisconsin Central lines, or address

BORN
SEPTEMBER
18,
1841.
For more than fifty-six years it has never failed in its weekly visits to the homes of farmers and villagers throughout the U. S.

IT HAS faithfully labored for their prosperity and happiness, for the improvement of their business and home interests, for education, for the elevation of American manhood and true womanhood.
IT HAS told of the friends, interesting and instructive stories of the doings of the world, the nation and states.
IT HAS advised the farmer as to the most approved methods of cultivating and harvesting his crops, and the proper time to convert them into the largest possible amount of money.
IT HAS led in all matters pertaining to the welfare of farmers and villagers, and for over a half a century has held their confidence and esteem.

HOW TO FIND OUT.
Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.
WHAT TO DO.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kimer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and sealding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention the Heppner Gazette and send your address to Dr. Kimer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

VERY INTERESTING.
Some Little Reminders Dug Up by an Exchange.—It Makes a Difference Whose Ox Etc.
The Oregonian is fathering one of these "moral" spasms just now. But will appeal from Phillip drunk to Phillip sober—that is, from the Oregonian as a newspaper to the Oregonian as a mortgaged organ, says the Portland Tribune.
On June 16, 1891, after a city election in which the Oregonian's present boss, friend and political partner, Mr. Simon, was playing his little "sore thing" game, just the same as he is now, it said editorially:
It was not a call to arms, but a flood of bullets, and the result marks the end of municipal merriment and the defeat of bossism the sack, insolent policemen and hoodlum freemen.
Understand, this was when Mr. Simon had been complete and absolute "lord of the city," but when he had not yet "arranged" for the Oregonian to "stand in" with him. The same editorial in the Oregonian continues:
It was a contest of decency and honesty against boodles and the slums; and honesty and decency won.
This is literally and historically true. The present friends, agents, supporters and political allies and partners of the Oregonian were beaten on that occasion. Since that the Oregonian has sold out to them; they have had too strong a "pull"; it wants its chief proprietor and silent partner to be sealed in the senate. But we will proceed to convict this newspaper villain out of its own mouth. It continues:
The consolidation ticket had to contest against the republican ring, which has summoned to its aid all the disreputable elements of the city.
Now this is the same old republican ring that now cries "reform"; and the Oregonian, on its own testimony, is the mouthpiece today of thieves, liars, and hoodwinkers.
The Oregonian, when it had the honest—or blackmailing—spasm, continued:
The ring stronghold was the sack, which contained about $15,000, and was distributed with a liberal hand. Votes were bought right and left, not by the manipulators of the machine, but by the hirlings and in-born gamblers, vagrants and lovers of prostitutes, upon whom the police levy blackmail 364 days in the year, and utilize the polls the other day.
This was the virtuous Oregonian, characterizing the very same, identical exact "crowd" which it is now so zealously and virtuously supporting, and trying to foist upon a patient public. They are its pets and political friends and partners as "reformers!"
Out of your own mouth; thus whitened sepulcher, will we show the public thy heart!

THE SAME MAN.
Some Leaves From the History of the Past Discovered by an Exchange.
The last number of the Long Creek Eagle tells of a brutal assault committed recently, near Monument, Grant county, by a sheepherder, whom the Eagle names Jack Donald, on a Chinaman who was herding on an adjoining range. Donald, who has been arrested to await the result of the Chinaman's injuries, is described by the Eagle as a man of vicious, brutal appearance, about 50 years of age, of Irish descent and one who had served a term in the penitentiary for shooting a man in Prineville. Nobody here remembers a man who answers the Eagle's description in full, says the Prineville Journal. But Prineville, several years ago had the distinction of being acquainted with one Jack McDonald, whose age and personal appearance answers the Eagle's description very well. But he was not sent from here to the penitentiary, although he probably should have been. He fired a pistol at the city marshal, O. M. Charlton, as that officer was conducting him a prisoner to the cooler. No damage was done and Jack's claim that the pistol went off by accident was allowed. But Ireland has enough sense to answer for without that of giving birth to Jack McDonald. For, alas, that it should be said, Jack drew his first breath in the Land o' Cakes, and his social standing in Crook county will be understood when it is said that he was a member of the "Four Hundred" of which the late, departed, defuncted Sandy Findlayson was the Ward McAlister. There is no doubt that the Jack McDonald who shot the Prineville marshal is the Jack McDonald who has half-killed the Grant county Chinaman. Since the above was written we learn that McDonald has been bound over in the sum of $2,000 and failing to secure bonds is confined in the Canyon City jail. The doctor says the Chinaman cannot live.

What Dr. A. E. Satter Says.
Buffalo, N. Y.—Gents:—From my personal knowledge, gained in observing the effect of your Shiloh's Cure in cases of advanced consumption, I am prepared to say it is the most remarkable remedy that has ever been brought to my attention. It has certainly saved many from consumption. Sold by Conser & Brook.

PRESS COMMENT.
For the first time in the history of the Oregon Press Association it will hold a meeting outside the boundaries of this state, when it will convene next year at Spokane, in connection with the Press Associations of Washington, Idaho and British Columbia. The Press Association embraces all classes and kinds of periodicals of reputable character, and we were much pleased when the decision was reached to go to Spokane. We hope that a large delegation will attend so that the members from all the states may get better acquainted with each other, have a good time, and speak softer, if after that event they should be called upon to abuse each other in print. The sentiment has not much in common with the association, except membership, but does possess a large fund of good wishes for the welfare, not only of the Oregon association, but also for all its sister bodies.—Medical Sentinel.

The Surprise of All.
Mr. James Jones of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with a grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into heavy consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Conser & Brook's drug store.
Jan. Curran, who is in the employ of Carly & Kilkenny, came in Saturday to meet his sister, Mrs. R. Farley, of Chicago, who had arrived on the train that morning. Mrs. Farley has been making her home for a brief period with her brother, a Catholic divine, of Iowa.

After bearing some friends continually praising Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Curtis Fleck, of Anaheim, Cal., purchased a bottle of it for his own use and is now an enthusiastic over its wonderful work as anyone can be. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Conser & Brook.
John Edwards came scripping into town Saturday, considerably the worse for wear. Inquiry revealed the fact that John had been hors de combat for the past three weeks, having fallen some thirteen feet off of John Barker's barn, on Butter creek, badly injuring his left foot in which he thinks some bones were broken. Saturday was his first trip out.
Shiloh's Consumption Cure starts where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it. Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot. Sold by Conser & Brook.

GRANT COUNTY MATTERS.
From the Eagle.
The Baker-Canyon Telephone company now has the long-distance line between Baker City and the Grant county towns in working order.
Mrs. Ida E. Peterson, of Susanville, became insane a week ago on last Saturday and walked into Long Creek almost barefooted, armed with a case knife and a rock. Her hallucination is that she is about to be killed by her husband.
Last Monday Bert Keeney, of this city, procured a license from County Clerk Powell to marry Miss Maggie Welch, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Hughes, of this place, and returned here Tuesday. Relatives of Miss Welch were notified of the procuring of the license, and being opposed to the marriage, on Mr. Keeney's arrival, he was induced by them to give up the license, but the following morning they were returned to him on the departure of Miss Welch for Baker City, accompanied by her brother and T. D. Williams. They went by way of Susanville, intending to spend the night at that place. Mr. Keeney left some time during the day for the same place, and whether or not he and Miss Welch will ancoed in getting married at that place, is a matter of conjecture here.

Hope Abandoned.
"For 15 years I suffered with catarrh and indigestion and my whole system was broken down. I almost abandoned hope of recovery. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and its effects were marvelous. I am now able to sleep well, have a good appetite and have gained in weight." James Wilder, Oroville, Washington.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit—Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneene, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by Conser & Brook.

Expressive of Thanks.
At a regular meeting of the Heppner Lodge, No. 358, B. P. O. E., held on last evening at their hall in Heppner, on motion a vote of thanks was extended to the ladies who assisted in the memorial service, to Bro. G. W. Phelps, of Cascade Lodge, of The Dalles, for his eloquent address, and to Rev. C. R. Howard for his offer of services which could not be rendered owing to unavoidable absence, and that same be published in Heppner Gazette.

Everybody Says So.
Casaretta Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, acts gently and positively on the bowels, cleanses the entire system, dispels colds, cure headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. to-day; 10, 25, 50 cents. Holland guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

Jan. Leshey is the owner of an excellent ledge in the Greenhorn section which he calls the "Irish Hobo." The ledge is 3 1/2 feet in width, all free milling ore and assays well, one going as high as $75 per ton. This is not the average, however, but the ore looks good enough on top to pay well from the grassroots.
Miss Alice Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar. It is the famous pile remedy. Conser & Brook.
J. W. Maxwell, representing Christy & Wise's Hayseed Sheep Dip, is in town, having arrived yesterday from his home in Lakeway by stage. Mr. Maxwell will remain a few days.

WEEKLY The MONTHLY Outlook
Published Every Saturday
13 Astor Place New York

The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things; and, in short, aims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.
Beginning with the fifty fifth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturday—five-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issues, together with a large number of pictures.
The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.
Send for a specimen copy and illustrated prospectus to The Outlook, 13 Astor Place, New York City.
