The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things: and, in short, aims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty flifth volume, the paper will assume the regular maga zine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturdayfifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazin Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issues, togethe

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with arine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bludder are out of order. WHAT TO DO. There is comfort in the knowledge so Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfils every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects mability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamproot is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. POSTAL BANKS AT WASHINGTON. Bills Now Before Committees of Congress

The Chicago Record's postal savings bank bill was introduced in the bouse of representatives on the opening day of the congressional session by Representative Lorimer, the Chicago member of the house committee on postoffices and postroads. The bill was referred at once to the postoffice committee, secording to the usual custom. It was introduced often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's ator Mason, who is a member of the senate postofice committee. It is upon these committees that attention must center for the present of those interested in the passage of a law for the establishment of the postal savings-bank system. The earnest agitation among the people has forced upon all the members of congress consideration of this subject, at their meeting, December 18th: with the result that it is discussed in Washington to an extent that it never has been before. The chairman of the our midst our beloved brother, W. J. house committee is an opponent of the Leezer, and postal bank idea, but other leading members are friendly to the plan.
